3. HUANENG FINANCE FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT

Cash Deposits

The Company from time to time places deposits with Huaneng Finance at rates which are no less favourable than the rates available from independent third parties for provision of similar services in the PRC.

Pursuant to the relevant framework agreement entered into between the Company and Huaneng Finance dated 5 January 2012, for the period from 1 January 2012 to 31 December 2014, the outstanding balances of the Company's deposits with Huaneng Finance should not exceed RMB6 billion on a daily basis, the total amount of the notes discounting should not exceed RMB1 billion per annum and the maximum balances of loans should not exceed RMB6 billion on a daily basis (please refer to the announcement dated 6 January 2012 and the circular dated 20 January 2012 issued by the Company).

For the years ended 2012 and 2013, and the period from 1 January 2014 to 31 March 2014, the maximum outstanding balances of the deposits placed with Huaneng Finance, on a daily basis, were RMB5.951 billion (audited), RMB5.970 billion (audited) and RMB5.996 billion (unaudited), respectively. As such framework agreement will expire on 31 December 2014, the Company entered into the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement with Huaneng Finance to extend the arrangement for another term of 3 years commencing on 1 January 2015 and expiring on 31 December 2017. The Company estimates that during the period from 2015 to 2017, the outstanding balances of the deposits to be placed with Huaneng Finance on a daily basis shall not exceed RMB8 billion.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The proposed cap for the deposits has taken into the following consideration: (1) the increasing asset scale led to the increase in the amount of deposits of the Company; (2) the expansion of the Company's operation scale led to an apparent increase in the fund flow (as at the end of 2013, the number of controlled subsidiaries under the management of the Company increased to 55 (2011: 38 subsidiaries) and the equity-based generation capacity of the Company increased to 59,625 MW (2011: 53,186 MW)); and (3) the fact that the Company has acquired a 20% equity interest in Huaneng Finance since December 2005, the profit growth of Huaneng Finance derived from the Company's support to Huaneng Finance will provide a higher investment return to the Company.

The deposit transactions form part of the daily operations of the Company. The commercial terms (including the rates) offered by Huaneng Finance to the Company and its subsidiaries in respect of such transaction are no less favourable than those offered by domestic commercial banks for provision of similar services to the Company and its subsidiaries.

The Company may, from time to time and as necessary, enter into separate implementation agreements for individual deposit transactions contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement with Huaneng Finance. Each implementation agreement will set out the specific terms of the particular deposit transaction. As the implementation agreements are to provide for the deposit services as contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement, they do not constitute new categories of connected transactions. The terms of such implementation agreements will be within the bounds of the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement.

The commercial terms offered under any implementation agreements to be entered into between Huaneng Finance and the Company will be negotiated on arm's length terms, taking into account the prevailing market conditions, and will be no less favourable than those offered to the Company by domestic independent third parties for provision of similar service.

The Directors and senior management of the Company will monitor closely and review regularly the deposit transactions of the Company. The Company will adopt a series of risk management arrangements, and endeavour to maintain, in relation to the deposit transactions, the independence of the Company; the fairness of the amount of deposits; the fairness of the terms of the transactions; and the right of the Company to place deposits with independent third parties other than Huaneng Finance.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The reporting and record systems and internal control procedures taken by the Company include:

- the deposit transactions under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement are conducted on a non-exclusive basis;
- the Finance Department of Company will on a weekly basis, obtain terms and trend of interests etc. relating to placing deposits from major commercial banks e.g. Bank of China Limited, Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Limited and China Construction Bank Corporation within the PRC, and based on the interest rate promulgated by the People's Bank of China make comparisons, in order to allow the Company to obtain the most favourable terms relating to placing deposits, maximise the Company's interest in transactions and reduce the transactional costs and time of the Company;
- the Company will conduct quarterly checking and clearing with related parties (including Huaneng Finance) in relation to the operational fund transfers in order to ensure the safety of funds. At the same time, the Company will report the fund use position each quarter to the Beijing Securities Regulatory Bureau of the China Securities Regulatory Commission and requires itself to comply with the relevant provisions at anytime;
- the Company will strictly review contracts and timely monitor the amount and interest rate of the deposit transactions; also, the independent non-executive Directors and the Company's auditors will review annually the enforcement of agreements, in order to review the Company's deposit transactions with Huaneng Finance on their fairness and the amount and interest rate of the deposit transactions on their reasonableness.

The Company considers that the arrangement of deposits with Huaneng Finance helps diversify the risk of the Company and its subsidiaries in relation to its deposits. At the same time, the Company considers that the risk of placing deposits at Huaneng Finance can be effectively controlled taking into consideration of the following factors: (1) Huaneng Finance is a non-bank financial institution and regulated by China Banking Regulatory Commission. During the course of daily operations, Huaneng Finance adheres to conduct business in compliance with the relevant regulations and according to law. During the course of development, Huaneng Finance has all along endeavoured to prevent financial risks and has established and implemented an effective internal control mechanism in compliance with the regulatory requirements of China Banking Regulatory Commission in relation to risk control ratios; (2) the Company holds a 20% interest in Huaneng Finance and may exercise its rights as shareholder according to law to promote the regulated operation of the general meeting of shareholders, board of directors and risk control committee of Huaneng Finance in order to safeguard its own interests.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The Directors are of the view that the deposit transactions do not have any effect on the assets and liabilities of the Company. Instead, the Company can earn interests out of the deposit transactions.

The importance and hence the necessity of the deposit transactions contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement to the Company are set out as follows:

- (i) The increase of the cap on the outstanding balance of the deposits (on daily basis) is to meet the business development of the Company. The expansion of the Company's operation scale led to an apparent increase in the fund flow (as at the end of 2013, the number of controlled subsidiaries under the management of the Company increased to 55 (2011: 38 subsidiaries) and the equity-based generation capacity of the Company increased to 59,625 MW (2011: 53,186 MW)). At the same time, as most of the tariffs payments are usually made by the local power grid companies towards the end of each month, there exists a gap between the practical need and the existing cap on the outstanding balances of the deposits (on daily basis). If the maximum outstanding balance of the deposits (on daily basis) was not allowed to be adjusted, the Company would need to spend more administrative costs in relocating the funds under its control more frequently so as to maintain and monitor such balance to level not to exceed the maximum cap, thus increasing the Company's compliance risks.
- (ii) Loans from Huaneng Finance have to be placed in designated account with Huaneng Finance. Like the arrangement with other commercial banks, the loans offered by Huaneng Finance are all required to be remitted to and deposited in the Company's designated deposits account with Huaneng Finance. The deposit transactions with Huaneng Finance help systemically manage the capital utilization. The Directors considers that being familiar with the business and operation of the Company, Huaneng Finance is able to provide more cost-efficient, convenient, comprehensive and personalized finance services to the Company than the deposit services provided by other commercial banks.
- (iii) The deposit interest rates offered to the Company. The deposit interest rates to be offered by Huaneng Finance will be at least equal or to no less favourable than the deposit rates offered to the Company by domestic independent third parties for provision of similar services.
- (iv) The Company has become a shareholder of Huaneng Finance since December 2005 and holds 20% of its equity interest. The profit growth of Huaneng Finance derived from the Company's support to Huaneng Finance will provide a higher investment return to the Company.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Notes Discounting Services and loan advancement services

In addition, the Company and its subsidiaries will also use the notes discounting services and loan advancement services provided by Huaneng Finance at rates and terms which are no less favourable than those offered by independent third parties for similar services to the Company in the PRC. The actual rates and terms for the notes discounting and loan advancement services will be determined based on the Contract Law of the PRC Rules on Loans by the People's Bank of China, the Finance Companies Management Approach Regulatory Commission and other laws, rules and regulations. In negotiating the terms, Huaneng Finance and the Company should follow equality, voluntariness, fairness and the principles of honesty and credibility and will be fixed within the margin of the official interest rates published by the People's Bank of China from time to time.

The Company will, from time to time, obtain terms relating to loan advancement from major commercial banks within the PRC, and make comparisons, in order to allow the Company to obtain the most favourable terms relating to loan advancement, maximize the Company's interest in transactions and reduce the Company's transaction costs and time. The Company will strictly review contracts and timely monitor the amounts and interest rates of the loan advancement transactions. Independent non-executive Directors and the Company's auditors will review annually the enforcement of agreements, in order to review the fairness of the transactions between the Company and Huaneng Group and whether the amounts of the loan advancement and interest rates are reasonable and on terms no less favourable than those offered by independent third parties.

As Huaneng Finance is more efficient in terms of notes discounting services and loan advancement services than the general domestic commercial banks that perform similar services for the Company and its subsidiaries (mainly due to the fact that less time is required to process the transactions). As such, the Company considers that the provision of notes discounting services and loan advancement services by Huaneng Finance will benefit the Company by increasing the operation efficiency in the use of fund. Therefore, the Company will continue to engage the notes discounting services and loan advancement services from Huaneng Finance in 2015, 2016 and 2017. For the years ended 2012 and 2013, and the period from 1 January 2014 to 31 March 2014, the Company has not engaged any notes discounting services from Huaneng Finance due to the reasons that during such period, the cash flow of the Company was relatively sufficient and that had been more fund raising channels available to the Company. In respect of the loan advancement services (all of them did not require any security) provided by Huaneng Finance, for the years ended 2012 and 2013, and the period from 1 January 2014 to 31 March 2014, the maximum outstanding balance (on daily basis) were RMB2.165 billion (audited), RMB1.732 billion (audited) and RMB1.807 billion (unaudited), respectively. The Company estimates that the total transaction amount relating to the notes discounting services provided by Huaneng Finance for each of 2015, 2016 and 2017 is RMB1 billion while the maximum loan outstanding balance (on daily basis) for each of 2015, 2016 and 2017 is RMB8 billion.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Pursuant to the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement, Huaneng Finance shall provide notes discounting services and loan advancement services on normal commercial terms that are no less favourable than those offered by independent third parties for similar services to the Company.

4. BOARD OF DIRECTORS' VIEWS

Pursuant to the Shanghai Listing Rules and Rule 14A.56(9) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, Messrs. Cao Peixi, Huang Long, Li Shiqi, Huang Jian, Liu Guoyue and Fan Xi Xia, all being directors of the Board of the Company who were deemed to be related in the continuing connected transactions, had abstained from voting on the board resolution relating to the entering of the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement (and the caps thereof). The resolution was voted by directors who are not related to the transactions.

The Board (including the Independent Non-executive Directors) is of the view that the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement was entered into: (1) in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Company; (2) on normal commercial terms (on arm's length basis or on terms no less favourable to the Company than terms available from independent third parties); and (3) on terms that are fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

5. IMPLICATION UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES

As the applicable percentage ratios relating to the scale of the deposit transactions with Huaneng Finance and its subsidiaries and associates contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement calculated in accordance with Rule 14.07 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules exceed 5%, such transactions are therefore subject to the reporting, announcement and Independent Shareholders' approval requirements under Rules 14A.45 to 14A.48 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

With respect to the notes discounting and loan advancement, given that the notes discounting services and loan advancement services are provided by Huaneng Finance for the benefit of the Company and on normal commercial terms that are comparable to or more favourable than those offered by independent third parties for similar services in the PRC and that no security over the assets of the Company is granted in respect of such services, the transactions for notes discounting services and loan advancement services contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement are exempt from reporting, announcement and Independent Shareholders' approval requirements under Rule 14A.65(4) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

6. INDEPENDENT SHAREHOLDERS' APPROVAL

Under the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the deposit transactions under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement require Independent Shareholders' approvals. However, pursuant to the Shanghai Listing Rules, the conduct of all transactions with Huaneng Group (together with its subsidiaries and associates, all being treated as concerted related parties of the Company under the Shanghai Listing Rules) as set out in this circular shall be approved by the Independent Shareholders of the Company. The Company will seek approval from Independent Shareholders for the conduct of the continuing connected transactions (including the relevant proposed caps) contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement at the 2013 Annual General Meeting to be held on 26 June 2014. Huaneng Group and its associates (holding an aggregate of 7,211,431,502 ordinary shares in the Company, representing approximately 51.31% of the total issued shares of the Company as at 31 March 2014) will abstain from voting in the resolution with respect to the conduct of the continuing connected transactions (including the relevant proposed caps) contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement at the 2013 Annual General Meeting, at which the proposed resolution will be passed by way of ordinary resolution and voting will be taken by way of poll in accordance with the requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Notice of the 2013 Annual General Meeting, together with the relevant reply slip and proxy form, have been issued to Shareholders separately. Whether or not you intend to attend the 2013 Annual General Meeting in person, you are requested to complete and return the reply slip in accordance with the instructions printed thereon. To the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders

Dear Sirs,

CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS
REGARDING THE DEPOSIT TRANSACTIONS
UNDER THE HUANENG FINANCE FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT

INTRODUCTION

We refer to our appointment as the independent financial adviser to advise the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders in connection with the deposits placed by the Group with Huaneng Finance under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement (the "Deposit Transactions") and the highest outstanding daily balance of the Deposit Transactions for each of the three years ending 31 December 2015, 2016 and 2017 (the "Proposed Annual Caps") pursuant to the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement. Details of the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereunder are set out in the letter from the Board (the "Letter from the Board") contained in the circular of the Company dated 12 May 2014 (the "Circular") of which this letter forms part. Unless the context requires otherwise, capitalised terms used in this letter shall have the same meanings as those defined in the Circular.

As set out in the Letter from the Board, the Company entered into the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement with Huaneng Finance on 22 April 2014. The Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement sets out, among others, the terms of the Deposit Transactions and the Proposed Annual Caps of the Deposit Transactions of RMB8.0 billion.

LETTER FROM INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

As of 31 March 2014, HIPDC, being the direct controlling shareholder of the Company, holds 36.05% of the total equity interests in the Company, while Huaneng Group holds a 51.98% direct equity interests and a 5% indirect equity interests in HIPDC. In addition, Huaneng Group holds a 11.06% direct equity interests in the Company, a 3.36% indirect equity interests in the Company through Hua Neng HK (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Huaneng Group), a 0.04% indirect equity interests in the Company through Huaneng Capital Services Company Limited (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Huaneng Group) and a 0.79% indirect equity interests in the Company through Huaneng Finance (a controlling subsidiary of Huaneng Group).

Huaneng Finance is a company incorporated in the PRC. The principal business of Huaneng Finance includes deposit-taking, loans handling, acceptance and discounting of bills, inter-bank borrowing and foreign investment. Huaneng Group holds a 52% interest in Huaneng Finance. The Company holds a 20% interest in Huaneng Finance and Huaneng Finance in turn holds 0.79% interest in the Company. As such, Huaneng Finance is an associate of the connected person of the Company while the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement and the transactions as contemplated therein constitute continuing connected transactions of the Company.

As the Proposed Annual Caps for the Deposit Transactions of RMB8.0 billion exceeds 5%, such transactions are therefore subject to the reporting, announcement and Independent Shareholders' approval requirements under Rules 14A.45 to 14A.48 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.. As at the Latest Practicable Date, Huaneng Group and its associates (holding an aggregate of 7,211,431,502 ordinary shares in the Company, representing approximately 51.31% of the total issued shares of the Company as at 31 March 2014) will abstain from voting at the EGM in the resolution with respect to the conduct of the continuing connected transactions (including the relevant proposed caps) contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement.

Huaneng Finance will also provide notes discounting services and loan advancement services (the "Other Transactions") to the Company under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement. Given that the Other Transactions are provided by Huaneng Finance for the benefit of the Company and on normal commercial terms that are comparable to or more favorable than those offered by independent third parties for similar services in the PRC and that no security over the assets of the Company will be granted in respect of such services, the Other Transactions contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement are exempt from reporting, announcement and Independent Shareholders' approval requirements under Rule 14A.65(4) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

LETTER FROM INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

The Independent Board Committee comprising all of the five independent non-executive Directors, namely Mr. Shao Shiwei, Mr. Wu Liansheng, Mr. Li Zhensheng, Mr. Qi Yudong and Mr. Zhang Shouwen, has been established to consider the terms of the Deposit Transactions (including the Proposed Annual Caps) and to make recommendation to the Independent Shareholders as regards voting. We have been appointed as the independent financial adviser to advise the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders as to whether the terms of the Deposit Transactions and the Proposed Annual Caps are on normal commercial terms and in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group; fair and reasonable so far as the Independent Shareholders are concerned and is in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

Independent Shareholders should note that the advices and recommendation given by the Independent Board Committee and us are on the Deposit Transactions and the Proposed Annual Caps only, and do not cover the Other Transactions contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement. Independent Shareholders are advised to read the Letter from the Board carefully for the details of the Other Transactions before making their decision as regards voting. Independent Shareholders should also note that, if they vote in favor of the resolution proposed at the 2013 Annual General Meeting regarding the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement, they would approve all the continuing connected transactions contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement including the Deposit Transactions and the Other Transactions.

PRINCIPAL FACTORS AND REASONS CONSIDERED

In considering whether the terms of the Deposit Transactions and the Proposed Annual Caps are fair and reasonable in so far as the Independent Shareholders are concerned, we have taken into account the principal factors and reasons set out below:

Background of the Company, Huaneng Group and Huaneng Finance

The Company and its subsidiaries mainly develop, construct, operate and manage large-scale power plants in China nationwide. It is one of the largest listed power producers in China, with a controlling capacity of 66,795 MW as at 31 December 2013.

Huaneng Group is principally engaged in development, investment, construction, operation and management of power plants; organising the generation and sale of power (and heat); and the development, investment, construction, production and sale of products in relation to energy, transportation, new energy and environmental protection industries.

Huaneng Finance is a non-bank financial institution incorporated in the PRC. The principal business of Huaneng Finance includes deposit-taking, loans handling, acceptance and discounting of bills, inter-bank borrowing and foreign investment. As advised by the management of the Company, Huaneng Finance is positioned as a platform of Huaneng Group for intra-group funds management and mainly serves Huaneng Group and its associates. Huaneng Group holds a 52% interest in Huaneng Finance. The Company holds a 20% interest in Huaneng Finance and Huaneng Finance in turn holds 0.79% interest in the Company.

Reasons for the Deposit Transactions contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement

As set out in the Letter from the Board, the Company from time to time places deposits with Huaneng Finance at rates which are no less favourable than the rates available from independent third parties for provision of similar services in the PRC. In addition, the Company will also utilize the notes discounting services provided by Huaneng Finance by paying it a service fee lower than the service fees charged by independent third parties for provision of similar services in the PRC.

LETTER FROM INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

As set out in the Letter from the Board, the Company considers that the Deposit Transactions with Huaneng Finance helps diversify the risk of the Company and its subsidiaries in relation to its deposits. At the same time, the Company considers that the risk of placing deposits at Huaneng Finance can be effectively controlled taking into consideration of the following factors: (1) Huaneng Finance is a non-bank financial institution and regulated by China Banking Regulatory Commission. During the course of daily operations, Huaneng Finance adheres to conduct business in compliance with the relevant regulations and according to law. During the course of development, Huaneng Finance has all along endeavoured to prevent financial risks and has established and implemented an effective internal control mechanism in compliance with the regulatory requirements of China Banking Regulatory Commission in relation to risk control ratios; (2) the Company holds a 20% interest in Huaneng Finance and may exercise its rights as shareholder according to law to promote the regulated operation of the general meeting of shareholders, board of directors and risk control committee of Huaneng Finance in order to safeguard its own interests. The Directors are of the view that the Deposit Transactions do not have any effect on the assets and liabilities of the Group. Instead, the Group can earn interests out of the Deposit Transactions.

As set out in the Letter from the Board, the Directors have considered the importance and hence the necessity of the Deposit Transactions contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement to the Company are set out as follows:

- (i) The increase of the cap on the outstanding balance of the deposits (on daily basis) is to meet the business development of the Company. The expansion of the Company's operation scale led to an apparent increase in the fund flow (as at the end of 2013, the number of controlled subsidiaries under the management of the Company increased to 55 (2011: 38 subsidiaries) and the equity-based generation capacity of the Company increased to 59,625 MW (2011: 53,186 MW)). At the same time, as most of the tariffs payments are usually made by the local power grid companies towards the end of each month, there exists a gap between the practical need and the existing cap on the outstanding balances of the deposits (on daily basis). If the maximum outstanding balance of the deposits (on daily basis) was not allowed to be adjusted, the Company would need to spend more administrative costs in relocating the funds under its control more frequently so as to maintain and monitor such balance to level not to exceed the maximum cap, thus increasing the Company's compliance risks.
- (ii) Loans from Huaneng Finance have to be placed in designated account with Huaneng Finance. Like the arrangement with other commercial banks, the loans offered by Huaneng Finance are all required to be remitted to and deposited in the Company's designated deposits account with Huaneng Finance. The Deposit Transactions with Huaneng Finance help systemically manage the capital utilization. The Directors considers that being familiar with the business and operation of the Company, Huaneng Finance is able to provide more cost-efficient, convenient, comprehensive and personalized finance services to the Company than the deposit services provided by other commercial banks.

LETTER FROM INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

- (iii) The deposit interest rates offered to the Company. The deposit interest rates to be offered by Huaneng Finance will be at least equal or to no less favourable than the deposit rates offered to the Company by domestic independent third parties for provision of similar services.
- (iv) The Company has become a shareholder of Huaneng Finance since December 2005 and holds 20% of its equity interest. The profit growth of Huaneng Finance derived from the Company's support to Huaneng Finance will provide a higher investment return to the Company.

We have discussed with the management of the Company and were advised by the Company that Huaneng Finance had capital adequacy ratio of approximately 23.67% as at 31 December 2013, which was significantly higher than the capital adequacy ratio requirements as imposed by the CBRC. We have reviewed the Regulation Governing Capital of Commercial Banks (Provisional) issued by the CBRC regarding the capital adequacy ratio requirements that the CBRC requires capital adequacy ratio at 11.5% for systemically important financial institutions and 10.5% for other financial institutions. According to our discussion with the management of the Company, we are given to understand that the Company and Huaneng Finance entered into written agreement to formally regulate the Group's financing activities with Huaneng Finance since 21 October 2008 and the Group has established stable relationship with Huaneng Finance. Having taken into account the stable relationship established between the Group and Huaneng Finance, the benefits/ reasons as mentioned above, the background and business scope of Huaneng Finance as mentioned above, and the commercial terms offered by Huaneng Finance to members of the Group pursuant to the terms of the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement in respect of the Deposit Transactions and Other Transactions will be no less favourable than those offered to the Group by domestic independent third parties for provision of similar service as mentioned below, we consider that there is a commercial justification for the Company to enter into the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement, and the Deposit Transactions are on normal commercial terms and in ordinary and usual course of business of the Company.

As stated in the Letter from the Board, the Directors and senior management of the Company will monitor closely and review regularly the Deposit Transactions of the Group. The Group will adopt a series of risk management arrangements, and endeavour to maintain, in relation to the Deposit Transactions, the independence of the Group; the fairness of the amount of deposits; the fairness of the terms of the transactions; and the right of the Group to place deposits with independent third parties other than Huaneng Finance.

The reporting and record systems and internal control procedures taken by the Group include:

- the Deposit Transactions under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement are conducted on a non-exclusive basis;

LETTER FROM INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

- the Finance Department of Company will on a weekly basis, obtain terms and trend of interests etc. relating to placing deposits from major commercial banks e.g. Bank of China Limited, Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Limited and China Construction Bank Corporation within the PRC, and based on the interest rate promulgated by the People's Bank of China make comparisons, in order to allow the Company to obtain the most favourable terms relating to placing deposits, maximise the Company's interest in transactions and reduce the transactional costs and time of the Company;
- the Company will conduct quarterly checking and clearing with related parties (including Huaneng Finance) in relation to the operational fund transfers in order to ensure the safety of funds. At the same time, the Company will report the fund use position each quarter to the Beijing Securities Regulatory Bureau of the China Securities Regulatory Commission and requires itself to comply with the relevant provisions at anytime;
- the Company will strictly review contracts and timely monitor the amount and interest rate of the Deposit Transactions; also, the independent non-executive Directors and the Company's auditors will review annually the enforcement of agreements, in order to review the Company's Deposit Transactions with Huaneng Finance on their fairness and the amount and interest rate of the Deposit Transactions on their reasonableness.

We have discussed with the management of the Company and are confirmed by the Directors that the then transactions under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement will be consistent with the abovementioned reporting and record systems and internal control procedures. We have also reviewed the annual report of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2013 (the "2013 Annual Report") and noted that the audit committee of the Company, comprising all of the five independent non-executive Directors, namely Mr. Shao Shiwei, Mr. Wu Liansheng, Mr. Li Zhensheng, Mr. Qi Yudong and Mr. Zhang Shouwen, regularly reviewed the Company's continuing connected transactions and ensuring that the terms of such transactions are consistent with those approved by the shareholders of the Company. As disclosed in the 2013 Annual Report, we noted that the Company has engaged external auditor to report on the Group's continuing connected transactions, including but not limited to the Deposit Transactions, in accordance with Hong Kong Standard on Assurance Engagements 3000 "Assurance Engagement Other Than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information" and with reference to Practice Note 740 "Auditor Letter on Continuing Connected Transactions under the Hong Kong Listing Rules" issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The external auditor has issued an unqualified letter containing their conclusions in respect of the continuing connected transactions set out above in accordance with Rule 14A.38 of the Listing Rules. In view of the above, we consider that the abovementioned reporting and record systems and internal control procedures have been implemented effectively by the Company such that transactions under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement will be offered to the Group on terms no less favorable than those available from third parties.

LETTER FROM INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

Principal terms of the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement

The principal terms of the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement are as follows:

- Huaneng Finance agrees to provide cash deposit services, discounting services and loan advancement to the Group.
- Members of the Group may, from time to time and as necessary, enter into separate implementation agreements for individual deposit transactions contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement with Huaneng Finance. Each implementation agreement will set out the specifications for the particular transaction while the terms of such implementation agreement will be within the bounds of the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement.
- The Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement was signed on 22 April 2014 for a term of three (3) years, commencing on 1 January 2015 and expiring on 31 December 2017 where the Deposit Transactions will be conducted throughout such period.

Pricing and Proposed Annual Caps of the Deposit Transactions contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement

Pursuant to the terms of the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement, the commercial terms offered under any implementation agreement to be entered into between Huaneng Finance and members of the Group in respect of the Deposit Transactions and Other Transactions will be negotiated on an arm's length basis comprehensively, taking into account the prevailing market conditions, but in any event on terms no less favourable than those offered to the Group by domestic independent third parties for provision of similar service.

LETTER FROM INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

We understand that the rates offered by Huaneng Finance and all domestic independent third parties in the PRC are subject to the guidelines published by the People's Bank of China (the "PBOC"). It is noted from the website of the PBOC that all domestic independent third parties in the PRC are forbidden to provide a deposit interest rate higher than the margin of official deposit interest rates published by the PBOC. As advised by the management of the Company, the deposit rates offered by Huaneng Finance have been and will be consistent with the margin of official deposit interest rates prescribed by the PBOC from time to time. As such, it is not possible that the deposit interest rates offered by Huaneng Finance will be lower than the rates offered by independent third parties since Huaneng Finance has offered a deposit interest rate equal to the margin of official deposit interest rates published by the PBOC. In addition, settlement services would be offered to the Group for free which would reduce the Group's overall financial expenses. We have selected and reviewed implementation agreements from the subsidiaries of the Company which have separately entered into such implementation agreement with Huaneng Finance and remain effective up to the Latest Practicable Date, which we consider the sample selection is fair and representative, and found that all the deposit interest rates stipulated in these implementation agreements followed the then-applicable margin of official deposit interest rate prescribed by the PBOC.

Taking into account the restriction on deposit interest rates published by the PBOC that all domestic independent third parties in the PRC are forbidden to provide a deposit interest rate higher than the margin of official deposit interest rates published by the PBOC, we are of the view that the deposit interest rates to be offered by Huaneng Finance to the Group in which will be consistent with the margin of official deposit interest rates prescribed by the PBOC from time to time will be at least equal to or no less favourable than the deposit interest rate offered to the Group by domestic independent third parties for provision of similar service, the Deposit Transactions contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement are on normal commercial terms, and are fair and reasonable so far as the Company and the Independent Shareholders are concerned.

Pursuant to the terms of the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement, the outstanding daily balance of deposits placed by the Group with Huaneng Finance for each of the three years ending 31 December 2015, 2016 and 2017, shall not exceed RMB8.0 billion.

As stated in the Letter from the Board, Pursuant to the relevant framework agreement entered into between the Company and Huaneng Finance dated 5 January 2012, for the period from 1 January 2012 to 31 December 2014, the outstanding balances of the Company's deposits with Huaneng Finance should not exceed RMB6 billion on a daily basis.

For the years ended 2012 and 2013, and the period from 1 January 2014 to 31 March 2014, the maximum outstanding balances of the deposits placed with Huaneng Finance, on a daily basis, were RMB5.951 billion (audited), RMB5.970 billion (audited) and RMB5.996 billion (unaudited), respectively, and have all been within the bounds of the relevant annual caps of RMB6 billion.

LETTER FROM INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

As stated in the Letter from the Board, the Company estimates that during the period from 2015 to 2017, the outstanding balances of the deposits to be placed with Huaneng Finance on a daily basis shall not exceed RMB8 billion. The Proposed Annual Caps of the Deposit Transactions have been determined with reference to a number of factors including:

- (i) the increasing asset scale led to the increase in the amount of deposits of the Company. The total assets of the Company increased from approximately RMB259.1 billion in 2012 to approximately RMB262.2 billion in 2013;
- (ii) the expansion of the Company's operation scale led to an apparent increase in the fund flow (as at the end of 2013, the number of controlled subsidiaries under the management of the Company increased to 55 (2011: 38 subsidiaries) and the equity-based generation capacity of the Company increased to 59,625 MW (2011: 53,186 MW)); and
- (iii) the fact that the Company has acquired a 20% equity interest in Huaneng Finance since December 2005, the profit growth of Huaneng Finance derived from the Company's support to Huaneng Finance will provide a higher investment return to the Company.

In assessing the fairness and reasonableness of the Proposed Annual Caps for the Deposit Transactions, we have noted the followings:

- (i) the large amount of cash held by the Company. The Company's cash at bank and on hand amounted to approximately RMB15.6 billion as at 30 June 2013 and approximately RMB9.3 billion as at 31 December 2013, and the Proposed Annual Caps represents approximately 86.0% of the total cash at bank and on hand as at 31 December 2013 and 51.3% of the total cash at bank and on hand as at 30 June 2013;
- (ii) the rapidly increasing business scale and cash generated from operating activities. As at the end of 2013, the number of controlled subsidiaries under the management of the Company increased to 55 (2011: 38 subsidiaries) and the equity-based generation capacity of the Company increased to 59,625 MW (2011: 53,186 MW), and the net cash from operating activities of the Company for the three years immediately preceding this circular is approximately RMB20.9 billion, RMB26.9 billion and RMB40.2 billion, respectively, representing a compound annual growth rate of 38.7%; and
- (iii) the highest outstanding daily balance of the Deposit Transactions for the two years ended 31 December 2012 and 31 December 2013 and the period from 1 January 2014 to 31 March 2014 were approximately RMB5.951 billion (audited), RMB5.970 billion (audited) and RMB5.996 billion (unaudited), respectively, representing a historical utilisation rate of annual caps of approximately 99.1%, 99.5% and 99.9%, respectively, which is computed based on the highest historical outstanding daily balances with Huaneng Finance during the period under review.

LETTER FROM INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER

Having taken into consideration that (i) the Proposed Annual Caps represents an increase of approximately 33.3% as compared to the previous annual caps of RMB6.0 billion and (ii) the increment in Proposed Annual Caps as mentioned above are in line with the compound annual growth rate of the net cash from operating activities of the Company of approximately 38.7% for the three years ended 31 December 2013, we are therefore of the view that the increment in the Proposed Annual Caps is acceptable.

Based on our discussions with the Company and taking into account the factors and reasons discussed above, we are of the view that the Proposed Annual Caps for the Deposit Transactions is fair and reasonable so far as the Independent Shareholders are concerned and is in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

RECOMMENDATION

Taking into consideration of the above principal factors and reasons, we are of the opinion that the Deposit Transactions are on normal commercial terms and in ordinary and usual course of business of the Company and both of the Deposit Transactions and the Proposed Annual Cap are fair and reasonable so far as the Independent Shareholders are concerned and are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. Accordingly, we advise the Independent Board Committee to recommend the Independent Shareholders to vote in favour of the resolution proposed at the EGM regarding the Deposit Transactions (including the Proposed Annual Caps) contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement. Independent Shareholders are reminded that if they vote in favour of the aforesaid resolution, they would approve all of the transactions, including the Other Transactions, contemplated under the Huaneng Finance Framework Agreement. Independent Shareholders are advised to read the Letter from the Board carefully for the details of the Other Transactions before making their decision as regards voting.

Yours faithfully,
For and on behalf of
