Lamperd Less Lethal First Quarter 2017 Results Exceed All of 2016 Total Year Revenue

Increasing Market Demand for Advanced Security Products Continue to Bring New Customers and Increasing Purchase Order Values

SARNIA, ON--(Market wired - May 15, 2017) - Lamperd Less Lethal, Inc. (OTC: LLLI) has reported the company's first quarter results which include sales revenues of over $136,900.00 for the three months ending March 31, 2017. The first quarter revenue figure actually exceeds the company's full year revenue total for all of 2016 by nearly 60%. The significant improvements in recent revenues are a result of growing interest in Lamperd products from new distributors serving law enforcement, military and private security customers. A strong interest is currently increasing in Lamperd's lines of crowd control products to deal with civil protests and other high tension situations in many different countries.
