Item 8.01 Other Events.

People's Utah Bancorp (the "Company") announced that the Company received permission from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and Utah Department of Financial Institutions for the merger of the charters of its two subsidiary banks, Bank of American Fork ("BAF") and Lewiston State Bank ("LSB"). The Company completed this merger of charters on September 29, 2015. The new amended charter has renamed the combined bank People's Intermountain Bank (PIB) with BAF and LSB continuing to do business as registered names of PIB.

In conjunction with the completion of the merger of the charters, Rick W. Anderson, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer ("COO") of People's Utah Bancorp, has also been named President of People's Intermountain Bank. Mr. Anderson will continue to concentrate on maintaining the operational focus of PIB on the respective communities served, which is a logical extension of his duties as COO of People's Utah Bancorp. Richard T. Beard will remain Chief Executive officer of PIB and the President and Chief Executive Officer of People's Utah Bancorp and will focus on corporate and strategic areas of PIB and the Company.
