SECTION 3 – SECURITIES AND TRADING MARKETS

Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On September 6, 2018, Gastar Exploration Inc. (the “Company”) received notification from the NYSE American LLC (the “NYSE American”) that the NYSE American has suspended trading of the Company’s common stock, 8.625% Series A Cumulative Preferred Stock (the “Series A preferred”) and 10.75% Series B Cumulative Preferred Stock (the “Series B preferred” together, with the Series A Preferred, the “preferred stock”) on the exchange due to the Company’s common stock’s abnormally low trading price (the “Notice”).

The Company anticipates that during the trading suspension its common stock and preferred stock issues will be quoted for trading on the OTCQB over-the counter market under different trading symbols on September 7, 2018, or shortly thereafter. The transition to the over-the-counter market will not affect the Company’s business operations or its previously announced process seeking proposals from third parties as it continues to evaluate strategic alternatives for the Company. The Company will remain subject to the public reporting requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) following the transfer of trading to the OTCQB.

As disclosed on August 29, 2018, the Company was informed by the NYSE American that the Company was not in compliance with the NYSE American’s continued listing standards because the Company’s common stock has been selling for a low price per share for a substantial period of time. In light of the trading suspension, the NYSE American stated that it intends to commence the delisting process and will apply to the SEC to delist the Company’s common stock and preferred stocks upon completion of all applicable procedures. The Company is reviewing whether it will appeal the delisting determination pending the outcome of its previously announced process seeking proposals from third parties for strategic alternatives for the Company.

A delisting of the Company’s common stock would constitute a “fundamental change” under the terms of the indenture (the “Indenture”) governing the Company’s Convertible Notes due 2022 (“Convertible Notes”), which would permit the noteholders to require the Company to repurchase all or part of such holder’s notes at a cash repurchase price equal to 101% of the principal amount of the Convertible Notes being repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest. The Convertible Notes would be required to be repurchased on a date specified by the Company (the “Fundamental Change Repurchase Date”) that is not less than 20 nor more than 35 calendar days after the date a fundamental change repurchase notice is sent (which is required to be sent within 20 calendar days of the fundamental change event). The failure to repurchase the Convertible Notes on the Fundamental Change Repurchase Date would constitute an event of default under the Indenture and result in the automatic acceleration of the maturity date of the Convertible Notes. Furthermore, upon the occurrence of an event of default under the Indenture, Ares Management LLC and its affiliates, as holders of a majority in principal amount of the Company’s term loan, or any transferee holder of a majority in principal amount of the Company’s term loan, would have the right to immediately accelerate the maturity of the term loan.
