Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On April 11, 2016, Bridge Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”) and The Bridgehampton National Bank (the “Bank”), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, amended their employment agreement with Howard H. Nolan, Senior Executive Vice President, Chief Administrative and Chief Financial Officer of the Company and the Bank, to provide for severance in the event of a termination of employment following a change in control equal to three times the sum of (i) Base Salary, and (ii) the highest annual bonus earned by Mr. Nolan during the three prior years (including any incentive award earned under the short term incentive plan). Previously, the employment agreement provided for a change in control termination of employment severance payment equal to three times the executive’s annual compensation for the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which the change in control occurs.

In addition, the agreement has been revised to provide that, in the event that an excise tax under Sections 280G and 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code would be assessed on the payments or other benefits received under the agreement in connection with a change in control of the Company, the executive would receive either: (1) all the payments and benefits to which he is entitled under the agreement, subject to the excise tax; or (2) have such payments and benefits reduced by the minimum amount necessary so that excise tax will not apply, if such reduction would result in a greater net after-tax benefit to the executive.

A copy of the amendment to the employment agreement will be included as an exhibit to the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2016.
