Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On June 14, 2018, the shareholders of Gaming and Leisure Properties, Inc. ("GLPI" or the "Company") approved an amendment and restatement of the Company's articles of incorporation (the "Amended Articles") to provide for a majority voting standard in uncontested director elections. Under the majority voting standard, in an uncontested director election, a candidate must receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast with respect to the election of that candidate. The full text of the Amended Articles is attached as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference. The Amended Articles became effective upon filing with the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on June 14, 2018.

The Company also adopted Amended and Restated Bylaws (the "Amended Bylaws") to remove the plurality voting standard in director elections. The Amended Articles and Amended Bylaws also remove the provisions relating to, and references to, the process through which the Company is declassifying its Board of Directors (the "Board"). The Amended Bylaws also add a requirement that a person recommended for nomination for election as a director by a shareholder must represent that he or she currently intends to serve as a director for the full term for which he or she is standing for election. The full text of the Amended Bylaws is attached as Exhibit 3.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference. The Amended Bylaws became effective on June 14, 2018.

On June 14, 2018, in connection with the adoption of a majority voting standard in uncontested director elections as described above under Item 5.03, the Board amended the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines to adopt a resignation policy. The resignation policy requires that any director nominee who fails to receive the requisite majority vote at a shareholder meeting must, promptly following certification of the shareholder vote, tender his or her resignation from the Board and all committees upon which he or she serves. The Board will then assess the appropriateness of such nominee continuing to serve as a director and decide whether to accept or reject the resignation, or whether other action should be taken. The policy further provides that any director who tenders his or her resignation shall not participate in the Board action regarding whether to accept the resignation offer. The Board will act upon the tendered resignation and publicly disclose its decision and rationale within ninety (90) days following certification of the shareholder vote. A copy of the Corporate Governance Guidelines, as amended, is available at the Company's website at www.glpropinc.com, under the "About" section.
