(1) Shares have been pledged to a third party to secure a loan.

2. Changes in Control.

The Company is currently seeking business opportunities to acquire or merge with. The Company has investigated several opportunities, but has not entered into a definitive agreement to date. Changes in the composition of the Board of Directors, as well as changes in controlling ownership of the Company's voting stock, could be possible in the near future as the Company seeks business venture acquisitions or mergers.

Matters to be Consented To

1. Reverse Split.

As of the Record Date, the Company's stock has little or no public market for its common stock. Based upon current market conditions and NASDAQ listing requirements, and brokerage firm interest in low priced securities, management has determined that it is in the Company's best interest to effectuate a reverse split, which is to be authorized by the shareholders. The Board is seeking authority to effectuate a 200 to 1 reverse split.

Fractional shares will be rounded up to the nearest full share. In an effort to preserve shareholders in "round lots", which is of benefit to the shareholders and the Company, no certificate below one hundred shares will be reversed and no certificate greater than one hundred shares will be reversed below one hundred shares.

As existing stock certificates are sent in for transfer they will be replaced with new certificates reflecting the reverse split.

2. Change in the Name of the Company.

The shareholders will vote to give the Board of Directors authority to change the name of the Company to a name to be selected at a later date. The Company is not currently negotiating with any party regarding an acquisition or merger. It is currently impossible to predict if the Company will be successful in finding a business opportunity to acquire or merge with. If, however, the Company does find such an opportunity, the Company will most likely be required to change its name.

A vote in favor of the name change does not represent a vote in favor of a particular business combination. The Company will seek such approval if a business combination is arranged and the the structure of the combination requires approval under Nevada law.

Vote Required for Approval

Approval of the proposed above action requires a majority vote of the shareholders of shares as of the Record Date. Because shareholders holding a majority of the shares are in favor of the proposed actions, proxies are not being solicited in this matter and the corporate action will be approved by written shareholder consent.
