Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 5, 2004, General Motors Corporation (GM) and Citibank, N.A., as trustee, entered into three supplemental indentures to GM's existing indenture pursuant to which GM currently has contingently convertible securities outstanding. The following description of the supplemental indentures does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the supplemental indentures, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 4.1, 4.2 and 4.3, respectively.

GM currently has $8.1 billion of outstanding contingently convertible securities. By executing the supplemental indentures, GM unilaterally and irrevocably waived, and relinquished, its right to use stock, and has committed to use cash, to settle the principal amount of the securities if (1) holders ever choose to convert the securities or (2) if GM is ever required by holders to repurchase the securities. GM retains the right to use either cash or stock to settle any amount that might become due to security holders in excess of the principal amount.
