Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Healthways has signed a new, five-year agreement with WellPoint, Inc., the nation's largest health benefits provider, to bring fully integrated customer-focused Health SupportSM programs, including smoking cessation, physical activity, nutrition, weight management, stress relief, and early detection and screening, as well as Healthways' award-winning SilverSneakers® Fitness Program, to WellPoint's 34 million members nationwide. The agreement will make Healthways' full suite of wellness, healthy living and preventive services available to WellPoint's self-insured customers and fully insured members from a single access point. These programs will be immediately available to WellPoint national customers and will be available in local markets in 14 states beginning June 1. In addition, Healthways and WellPoint have also agreed to continue to work together to develop and deliver innovative new programs on an annual basis that help people continue to make choices that lead to better health.
