Section 5 - Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As of January 6, 2016, Southwestern Energy Company (the Company) has accepted the resignation of Steven L. Mueller as Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Company and appointed William J. Way as CEO. Mr. Way will continue as President. He also was elected as a director of the Company as of January 6, 2016. Mr. Mueller will continue as a non-officer employee of the Company and as a director and non-executive Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board).

Mr. Way, age 56, was appointed President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company in December 2014. Mr. Way joined the Company in October 2011 as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Prior to joining the Company, he was Senior Vice President, Americas of BG Group plc with responsibility for E&P, Midstream and LNG operations in the United States, Trinidad and Tobago, Chile, Bolivia, Canada and Argentina, as well as BG's global shipping business. He joined BG Group plc in 2007. Previously, Mr. Way held various senior leadership and technical positions at ConocoPhillips, where he began his career in 1981. He is a graduate of Texas A&M University with a degree in Industrial Engineering and has an MBA from The Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He currently serves as a director for several secondary educational organizations.

The selection of Mr. Way was not pursuant to any arrangement or understanding between him and any other person. There is no family relationship between Mr. Way and any director or executive officer of the Company.

The compensation arrangements for Mr. Way as disclosed in the Company's annual proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 6, 2015 remain in effect as of this time, although changes may occur in the future.

The following material terms will apply to Mr. Mueller's retirement and have been approved by the Board and its Compensation Committee:

- He will remain as a director and non-executive Chairman of the Board through May 17, 2016, the date scheduled for the next annual meeting of stockholders (the Retirement Date). He also will remain as a non-officer employee of the Company during this period with the same salary and benefits he currently has, with the exception that he will not be eligible for a normal incentive bonus for 2016 but will be eligible for a bonus of up to 100% of his 2016 salary through the Retirement Date.

- He will not stand for reelection at the 2016 annual meeting or subsequently unless nominated by the Board of Directors.

- On the Retirement Date, he will resign as a director (if he still is a director) and retire as an employee of the Company, with vesting of all unvested restricted stock and options on the Retirement Date (which will be exercisable until their respective expiration dates, along with other vested and unexercised options) and a lump sum equal to two weeks of his base salary for each full or partial year of service with company (16 weeks, based on Mr. Mueller's eight years of service), and eligibility for participation in post-retirement benefits available to retirees on the same basis as other retirees.

- He will continue as an advisor to the Company for one year following the Retirement Date and, during this period, he will be subject to noncompetition and nonsolicitation obligations with certain exceptions.

- He will remain eligible for payments under performance units for the three-year periods ending in 2016 through 2018 as if he had remained an employee throughout that period, provided that if he has breached his noncompetition and nonsolicitation obligations described above, he will be credited only with the period before the date of that breach.

- He also will grant a general release and waiver of claims arising out of his employment or retirement from employment.
