Annual Retainer Fee Deferral Election Program

On October 27, 2005, the Board of Directors of SJW Corp. (the "Company") approved certain amendments to the Company's Annual

Edgar Filing: SJW CORP - Form 8-K

Retainer Fee Deferral Election Program (the "Program") which was established under the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan and in which the non-employee members of the Board of Directors of the Company, San Jose Water Company, the Company's wholly owned subsidiary ("SJWC"), and SJW Land Company, another wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, are eligible to participate. Pursuant to such amendments, each such non-employee Board member who elected to defer all or a portion of his annual retainer fees from one or more of the foregoing companies for the 2005 calendar year will have the opportunity to (i) make a new election on or before December 31, 2005 with respect to the form (lump sum or installments) in which the portion of his deferral restricted stock account attributable to those deferred fees is to be paid upon his cessation of Board service, or (ii) terminate his participation in the Program for the 2005 calendar year and receive a year-end distribution of such portion of his deferral restricted stock account.

Special Deferral Election Plan

On October 27, 2005, the Board of Directors of SJWC approved an amendment to SJWC's Special Deferral Election Plan (the "Plan") which allows SJWC officers and other select employees to defer a portion of their salary and bonus each year. Pursuant to such amendment, effective January 1, 2006, participants will no longer have the right to designate the specific investment funds to serve as the measure of the investment return on their deferred monies. Instead, all deferred monies will be credited with a fixed rate of interest, compounded semi-annually and reset periodically as follows: for each calendar year, effective with the 2006 calendar year, the fixed rate of interest will be equal to the then current 30-year long-term borrowing cost of funds to SJWC (or the equivalent thereof), as measured as of the start of that period.

Additionally, pursuant to the amendment to the Plan, each participant will have the ability to terminate his or her participation in the Plan on or before November 30, 2005 and receive a year-end distribution of all or a portion of the monies he or she has deferred under the Plan.

Executive Supplement Retirement Plan

On October 27, 2005, the Board of Directors of SJWC approved an amendment to SJWC's Executive Supplement Retirement Plan (the "Retirement Plan"). Pursuant to such amendment, the benefit to which George Belhumeur, SJWC's Senior Vice President of Operations, will be entitled under the Retirement Plan upon his retirement will be determined by increasing his Final Average Compensation (as defined in Section I.17 of the Retirement Plan) by the dollar amount obtained by dividing the accrued vacation and termination payments made to him in connection with his retirement by 36. However, in determining his normal retirement benefit under Section 3.1 of the Retirement Plan or his early retirement benefit under Section 3.2 of the Retirement Plan, his accrued benefit under such Retirement Plan shall in no event be less than his accrued benefit thereunder as of February 28, 2004.
