At this same meeting, the Standing Committee has resolved to execute the second capital increase on the Company's share capital, to be charged to freely disposable reserves, as approved by the Annual General Shareholders' Meeting of April 12th, 2002, through the issuance of the 99,157,490 of new ordinary Company shares, of the same series and carrying the same rights as those currently outstanding, with a nominal value of one euro each.

For this purpose, once the procedures established by law to satisfy the prior legal requirements in order to execute the capital increase have been fulfilled, the corresponding announcement shall be published in the Official Gazette of the Mercantile Register ("Boletín Oficial del Registro Mercantil"), thus marking the start of the period of free allocation of the new shares in the ratio of one new share for every fifty old shares held. In order to achieve this, Company shareholders will be those natural or juridical persons who at the close of the day immediately prior to the date of the beginning of the free allocation period, appear as the holders of Company shares on the accounting registers of the member entities of the Spanish Securities Settlement and Clearance Service ("Servicio de Compensación y Liquidación")

The period of free allocation shall be fifteen days, during which time the right to free allocation corresponding to shareholders may be exercised through any member entity of the Spanish Securities Settlement and Clearance Service, and may also be transferred and traded under the same conditions as the shares from which they derive.

The new shares issued will entitle holders to receive the entire amount of the dividends distributed from the time of the ending of the free allocation period.

Lastly, the Company will request as soon as possible the new shares to be admitted to official listing on the markets where the Company's shares are already traded.
