DENTSPLY SIRONA Inc. and Subsidiaries

NOTES TO UNAUDITED INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“US GAAP”) and the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). The year-end consolidated balance sheet data was derived from audited financial statements, but does not include all disclosures required by US GAAP. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) considered necessary for a fair statement of the results for interim periods have been included. Results for interim periods should not be considered indicative of results for a full year. These financial statements and related notes contain the accounts of DENTSPLY SIRONA Inc. and Subsidiaries (“Dentsply Sirona” or the “Company”) on a consolidated basis and should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the Company’s most recent Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

On February 29, 2016, DENTSPLY International Inc. merged with Sirona Dental Systems, Inc. (“Sirona”) to form DENTSPLY SIRONA Inc. (the “Merger”). See Note 5, Business Combinations, for additional information about the Merger.

NOTE 1 – SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies of the Company, as applied in the interim consolidated financial statements presented herein are substantially the same as presented in the Company’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, except as may be indicated below:

Accounts and Notes Receivable

The Company records a provision for doubtful accounts, which is included in Selling, general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Accounts and notes receivables – trade, net are stated net of allowances for doubtful accounts and trade discounts, which were $20.6 million at March 31, 2017 and $22.7 million at December 31, 2016.

Marketable Securities

The Company accounts for its direct investment in the DIO Corporation (“DIO”) using the cost-basis method of accounting. At March 31, 2017 and December 31, 2016, the fair value of the direct investment was $55.6 million and $63.4 million.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2014-09, “Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606)” that seeks to provide a single, comprehensive revenue recognition model for all contracts with customers that improve comparability within industries, across industries and across capital markets. Under this standard, an entity should recognize revenue for the transfer of goods or services equal to the amount it expects to be entitled to receive for those goods or services. Enhanced disclosure requirements regarding the nature, timing and uncertainty of revenue and related cash flows exist. To assist entities in applying the standard, a five step model for recognizing and measuring revenue from contracts with customers has been introduced. Entities have the option to apply the new guidance retrospectively to each prior reporting period presented (full retrospective approach) or retrospectively with a cumulative effect adjustment to retained earnings for initial application of the guidance at the date of initial adoption (modified retrospective method). On July 9, 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-14, deferring the effective date by one year to annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is permitted. In April 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-10, which clarifies the “identifying performance obligations and licensing implementations guidance” aspects of Topic 606. In May 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-11, which amends and or rescinds certain aspects of the Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) to reflect the requirements under Topic 606. Additionally, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-12, which clarifies the criteria for assessing collectibility, permits an entity to elect an accounting policy to exclude from the transaction price amounts collected from customers for all sales taxes, and provides a practical expedient that permits an entity to reflect the aggregate effect of all contract modifications that occur before the beginning of the earliest period presented in accordance with Topic 606. In December 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-20, which clarifies several additional aspects of Topic 606 including contract modifications and performance obligations. The Company will adopt these accounting standards on January 1, 2018. The Company has completed its analysis of revenue areas that will be impacted by the adoption of this standard. The primary areas affected are the Company’s promotional and customer loyalty programs. The Company is currently gathering and assessing the financial impact this standard will have on its financial position, results of operations, cash flows and disclosures. The Company is also in the process of implementing changes to systems, processes and internal controls to meet the standard update to reporting and disclosure requirements. The Company has not made a decision on the transition method of adoption.

In July 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-11, "Simplifying the Measurement of Inventory." This accounting standard requires that an entity measure inventory at the lower of cost and net realizable value, as opposed to the lower of cost or market value. Net realizable value is defined as the estimated selling prices in the ordinary course of business, less reasonably predictable costs of completion, disposal, and transportation. Excluded from this update are the Last In First Out ("LIFO") and retail inventory methods of accounting for inventory. Prospective application is required for presentation purposes. The Company adopted this accounting standard for the quarter ended March 31, 2017. The adoption of this standard did not materially impact the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In November 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-17, "Balance Sheet Classification of Deferred Taxes." This accounting standard seeks to simplify the accounting related to deferred income taxes. Current US GAAP requires an entity to separate deferred tax assets ("DTAs") and deferred tax liabilities ("DTLs") into current and noncurrent amounts for each tax jurisdiction based on the classification of the related asset or liability for financial reporting. DTAs and DTLs not related to assets and liabilities for financial reporting are classified based on the expected reversal date. The new standard requires DTAs or DTLs for each tax jurisdictions to be classified as noncurrent in a classified statement of financial position. The Company adopted this accounting standard for the quarter ended March 31, 2017, applying retrospective application to the December 31, 2016, Consolidated Balance Sheet presented in this Form 10-Q. The adoption of this standard is reflected below in the summary of the classification adjustments by financial statement line item:

		December 31, 2016	December 31, 2016
	Deferred Tax Assets and Liabilities	As Reported Balance	Classification Adjustment	Adjusted Balance
Consolidated Balance Sheet Item	Current DTAs	$ 345.6	$ (172.1)	$ 173.5
Prepaid expenses and other current assets	Noncurrent DTAs	64.1	43.6	107.7
Other noncurrent assets, net	Current DTLs	64.2	(3.4)	60.8
Income taxes payable	Noncurrent DTLs	848.6	(125.1)	723.5
Deferred income taxes

In January 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-01, "Recognition and Measurement of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities." This accounting standard seeks to enhance the reporting model for financial instruments to provide users of financial statements with more decision-useful information as well as to improve and achieve convergence of the FASB and International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") standards on the accounting for financial instruments. The amendments allow equity investments that do not have readily determinable fair values to be remeasured at fair value either upon the occurrence of an observable price change or upon identification of an impairment. It also requires enhanced disclosures about those investments and reduces the number of items that are recognized in other comprehensive income. The adoption of this standard is required for interim and fiscal periods ending after December 15, 2017 and should be applied by means of a cumulative-effect adjustment to the balance sheet as of the beginning of the fiscal year of adoption. The Company is currently assessing the impact that this standard may have on its financial position, results of operations, cash flows and disclosures.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, "Leases." This accounting standard seeks to increase transparency and comparability among organizations by recognizing lease assets and lease liabilities in the balance sheet and disclosing key information about leasing arrangements. Current US GAAP does not require lessees to recognize assets and liabilities arising from operating leases in the balance sheet. This standard also provides guidance from the lessees perspective on how to determine if a lease is an operating lease or a financing lease and the differences in accounting for each. The adoption of this standard is required for interim and fiscal periods ending after December 15, 2018 and it is required to be applied using the modified retrospective approach. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently assessing the impact that this standard will have on its financial position, results of operations, cash flows and disclosures.

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-09, "Stock Compensation." This accounting standard seeks to simplify the accounting for all entities that issue stock-based payment awards to their employees. The primary areas of change include accounting for income taxes, cash flow statement classification of excess tax benefits and employee taxes paid when an employer withholds shares, accounting for forfeitures and tax withholding requirements. Amendments related to the timing of when excess tax benefits are recognized, minimum statutory withholding requirements and forfeitures should be applied using a modified retrospective transition method by means of a cumulative-effect adjustment to equity as of the beginning of the period in which the guidance is adopted. Amendments related to the presentation of employee taxes paid in the statement of cash flows when an employer withholds shares to meet the minimum statutory withholding requirement should be applied retrospectively. Amendments requiring recognition of excess tax benefits and tax deficiencies in the income statement should be applied prospectively. The Company adopted this accounting standard for the quarter ended March 31, 2017, and as a result, the Company recorded $6.3 million of excess tax benefit related to employee share-based compensation as a component of income tax expense which impacted the current year tax provision. The Company elected to record forfeitures on stock-based compensation as the participant terminates rather than estimating forfeitures. As result of election to actual-basis forfeitures, the Company recorded a cumulative-effect adjustment of $1.0 million, net of tax, to "Capital in Excess of Par Value" and "Retained Earnings" in the Consolidated Statements of Changes in Equity related to prior year's estimated forfeitures. In addition, the Company elected to adopt the cash flow classification of excess tax benefits on a prospective basis. The adoption of this standard did not materially impact the Company's financial position, results of operations, cash flows, or disclosures.

In August 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-15, "Statement of Cash Flows." This accounting standard seeks to clarify the presentation of eight specific cash flow issues in order to reduce diversity in practice. The topics of clarification include debt prepayment or extinguishment costs, settlement of zero-coupon debt instruments, contingent consideration payments made after a business combination, proceeds from the settlement of insurance claims, proceeds from the settlement of corporate-owned life insurance policies, distributions received from equity method investees, beneficial interest in securitization transactions, and separately identifiable cash flows. The amendments in this update are effective for interim and fiscal periods beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is permitted. The amendments in this update should be applied using a retrospective transition method to each period presented. The Company is currently assessing the impact that this standard will have on the presentation of its Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

In October 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-16, "Income Taxes." This accounting standard seeks to improve the accounting for the income tax consequences of intra-entity transfers of assets other than inventory. Current US GAAP prohibits the recognition of current and deferred income taxes for an intra-entity asset transfer until the asset has been sold to a third party, which is an exception to the principle of comprehensive recognition of current and deferred income taxes in US GAAP. ASU No. 2016-16 eliminates this exception. The amendments in this update are effective for interim and fiscal periods beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is permitted. The amendments in this update should be applied using a modified retrospective basis through a cumulative-effect adjustment directly to retained earnings as of the beginning of the period of adoption. The Company is currently assessing the impact that this standard will have on its financial position, results of operations, cash flows and disclosures.

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-01, "Business Combinations." This newly issued accounting standard clarifies the definition of a business with the objective of adding guidance to assist entities with evaluating whether transactions should be accounted for as acquisition or disposal of assets or businesses. The amendments in this update provide a screen to determine when a set of assets is not a business. The screen requires that when substantially all of the fair value of the gross assets acquired (or disposed of) is concentrated in a single identifiable asset or a group of similar identifiable assets, the set of assets is not a business. The amendments in this update are effective for interim and fiscal periods beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is permitted under certain conditions. The amendments in this update should be applied prospectively. The Company is currently assessing the impact that this standard will on its financial position, results of operations, cash flows and disclosures.

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-04, "Intangibles, Goodwill and Other." This newly issued accounting standard seeks to simplify the subsequent measurement of goodwill by eliminating the second step of the goodwill impairment test, which requires business to perform procedures to determine the fair value of its assets and liabilities at the impairment testing date. Under this amendment, an entity should perform its goodwill impairment test by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount and then recognize an impairment charge for the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the reporting unit's fair value. The loss recognized should not exceed the total amount of goodwill allocated to that reporting unit. Additionally, an entity should consider income tax effects from any tax deductible goodwill on the carrying amount of the reporting unit when measuring the goodwill impairment loss, if applicable. The amendments in this update are required for annual and interim goodwill impairment tests in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2019. The amendments in this update should be applied prospectively. As permitted by the accounting standard, the Company early adopted this accounting standard during the three months ended March 31, 2017. The adoption of this standard did not materially impact the Company's financial position, results of operations, cash flows, or disclosures.

In March 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-07, "Compensation - Retirement Benefits." This newly issued accounting standard is primarily intended to improve the presentation of net periodic pension cost and net periodic postretirement benefit cost. The amendments in this update require an employer to report the service cost component of net periodic benefit cost in operating income, while the interest cost, amortization, return on assets and any settlement or curtailment expense will be reported below operating income. More specifically, the service cost will be reported in the same line item as other compensation costs arising from the services rendered by the pertinent employee during the period. The amendments in this update are required for annual and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is permitted as of the beginning of an annual period for which financial statements have not been issued. The amendments in this update should be applied retrospectively for the presentation of the components of net periodic benefit cost and net periodic postretirement benefit cost in the income statement. The Company is currently assessing the impact that this standard will have on its results of operations and disclosures.

The cumulative foreign currency translation adjustments included translation losses of $353.2 million and $412.4 million at March 31, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively, and cumulative losses on loans designated as hedges of net investments of $87.5 million and $78.1 million, respectively. NOTE 4 – EARNINGS PER COMMON SHARE

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted earnings per common share for the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016:

Basic Earnings Per Common Share Computation (in millions, except per share amounts)	Three Months Ended
	2017	2016
Net income attributable to Dentsply Sirona	$59.8	$125.0
Weighted average common shares outstanding	230.1	174.8
Earnings per common share - basic	$0.26	$0.72
Diluted Earnings Per Common Share Computation (in millions, except per share amounts)
Net income attributable to Dentsply Sirona	$59.8	$125.0
Weighted average common shares outstanding	230.1	174.8
Incremental weighted average shares from assumed exercise of dilutive options from stock-based compensation awards	3.9	3.6
Total weighted average diluted shares outstanding	234.0	178.4
Earnings per common share - diluted	$0.26	$0.70

The calculation of weighted average diluted common shares outstanding excludes stock options and RSUs of 0.8 million and 0.9 million shares of common stock that were outstanding during the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively, because their effect would be antidilutive.

NOTE 5 – BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

On February 29, 2016, DENTSPLY merged with Sirona in an all-stock transaction and the registrant was renamed DENTSPLY SIRONA Inc. During the three months ended March 31, 2017, the Company finalized the valuation analysis of identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed and allocated the consideration based on the final fair values of those identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed related to the Merger.

The following table summarizes the final fair value of identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of the Merger:

(in millions)

Cash and cash equivalents	$522.3
Trade receivables	143.0
Inventory	220.7
Prepaid expenses and other current assets	111.1
Property, plant and equipment	237.1
Identifiable intangible assets	2,435.0
Goodwill	3,758.1
Other long-term assets	6.9
Total assets	7,434.2
Accounts payable	68.0
Other current liabilities	197.9
Debt	57.5
Deferred income taxes	749.1
Other long-term liabilities	95.3
Total liabilities	1,167.8
Noncontrolling interest	10.2
Total identifiable net assets	$6,256.2

Weighted average useful lives for intangible assets were determined based upon the useful economic lives of the intangible assets that are expected to contribute to future cash flows. The acquired definite-lived intangible assets are being amortized on a straight-line basis over their expected useful lives. Intangible assets acquired consist of the following:

(in millions, except for useful life)	Amount	Weighted Average Useful Life (in years)
Customer relationships	$495.0	14
Developed technology and patents	1,035.0	12
Trade names and trademarks	905.0	Indefinite
Total	$2,435.0

The fair values assigned to intangible assets were determined through the use of the income approach, specifically the relief from royalty method was used to fair value the developed technology and patents and tradenames and trademarks and the multi-period excess earnings method was used to fair value customer relationships. Both valuation methods rely on management's judgments, including expected future cash flows resulting from existing customer relationships, customer attrition rates, contributory effects of other assets utilized in the business, peer group cost of capital and royalty rates as well as other factors. The valuation of tangible assets was derived using a combination of the income approach, the market approach and the cost approach. Significant judgments used in valuing tangible assets include estimated reproduction or replacement cost, weighted average useful lives of assets, estimated selling prices, costs to complete and reasonable profit.

The $3,758.1 million of goodwill is attributable to the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed. Goodwill is considered to represent the value associated with workforce and synergies the two companies anticipate realizing as a combined company. Goodwill of $3,645.4 million has been assigned to the Company's Technologies segment and $112.7 million has been assigned to the Company's Dental and Healthcare Consumables segment. The goodwill is not expected to be deductible for tax purposes.

Sirona contributed net sales of $229.1 million and operating income of $22.5 million to the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations during the period from January 1, 2017 to March 31, 2017, which is primarily included in the Technologies segment. For the three months ended March 31, 2016, Sirona contributed net sales of $120.1 million and operating income of $28.1 million for the period February 29, 2016 to March 31, 2016, which is primarily included in the Technologies segment.

The following unaudited pro forma financial information reflects the consolidated results of operations of the Company had the Merger occurred on January 1, 2015. Sirona's financial information has been compiled in a manner consistent with the accounting policies adopted by DENTSPLY. The following unaudited pro forma financial information for the three months ended March 31, 2016, has been prepared for comparative purposes and does not purport to be indicative of what would have occurred had the Merger occurred on January 1, 2015, nor are they indicative of any future results.

	Pro forma - unaudited Three Months Ended March 31, 2016
(in millions, except per share amount)
Net sales	$ 940.2
Net income attributable to Dentsply Sirona	$ 93.7
Diluted earnings per common share	$ 0.39

The pro forma financial information is based on the Company's assignment of consideration given and therefore subject to adjustment. These pro forma amounts were calculated after applying the Company's accounting policies and adjusting Sirona's results to reflect adjustments that are directly attributable to the Merger. These adjustments mainly include additional intangible asset amortization, depreciation, inventory fair value adjustments, transaction costs and taxes that would have been charged assuming the fair value adjustments had been applied from January 1, 2015, together with the consequential tax effects at the statutory rate. Pro forma results do not include any anticipated synergies or other benefits of the Merger.

Subsequent to the quarter ended March 31, 2017, the Company acquired RTD, a privately-held France-based manufacturer of endodontic posts.

NOTE 6 – SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company has numerous operating businesses covering a wide range of dental consumable products, dental technology products and certain healthcare products primarily serving the professional dental market. Professional dental products represented approximately 92% of net sales for the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 91% of net sales for the three months ended March 31, 2016.

The operating businesses are combined into two operating groups, which generally have overlapping geographical presence, customer bases, distribution channels, and regulatory oversight. These operating groups are considered the Company's reportable segments as the Company's chief operating decision-maker regularly reviews financial results at the operating group level and uses this information to manage the Company's operations. The accounting policies of the segments are consistent with those described in the Company's most recently filed Form 10-K, in the summary of significant accounting policies.

The Company evaluates performance of the segments based on the groups' net third party sales, excluding precious metal content, and segment adjusted operating income. The Company defines net third party sales excluding precious metal content as the Company's net sales excluding the precious metal cost within the products sold, which is considered a measure not calculated in accordance with US GAAP, and is therefore considered a non-US GAAP measure. Management believes that the presentation of net sales, excluding precious metal content, provides useful information to investors because a portion of Dentsply Sirona's net sales is comprised of sales of precious metals generated through sales of the Company's precious metal dental alloy products, which are used by third parties to construct crown and bridge materials. Due to the fluctuations of precious metal prices and because the cost of the precious metal content of the Company's sales is largely passed through to customers and has minimal effect on earnings, Dentsply Sirona reports net sales both with and without precious metal content to show the Company's performance independent of precious metal price volatility and to enhance comparability of performance between periods. The Company uses its cost of precious metal purchased as a proxy for the precious metal content of sales, as the precious metal content of sales is not separately tracked and invoiced to customers. The Company believes that it is reasonable to use the cost of precious metal content purchased in this manner since precious metal dental alloy sale prices are typically adjusted when the prices of underlying precious metals change. The Company's exclusion of precious metal content in the measurement of net third party sales enhances comparability of performance between periods as it excludes the fluctuating market prices of the precious metal content. The Company also evaluates segment performance based on each segment's adjusted operating income before provision for income taxes and interest. Segment adjusted operating income is defined as operating income before income taxes and before certain corporate headquarter unallocated costs, restructuring and other costs, interest expense, interest income, other expense (income), net, amortization of intangible assets and depreciation resulting from the fair value step-up of property, plant and equipment from acquisitions. The Company's segment adjusted operating income is considered a non-US GAAP measure. A description of the products and services provided within each of the Company's two operating segments is provided below.

Dental and Healthcare Consumables

This segment includes responsibility for the worldwide design, manufacture, sales and distribution of the Company's Dental and Healthcare Consumable Products which include preventive, restorative, instruments, endodontic, and laboratory dental products as well as consumable medical device products.

Technologies

This segment is responsible for the worldwide design, manufacture, sales and distribution of the Company's Dental Technology Products which includes dental implants, CAD/CAM systems, imaging systems, treatment centers and orthodontic products.

NOTE 7 – INVENTORIES

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. The cost of inventories determined by the last-in, first-out (“LIFO”) method at March 31, 2017 and December 31, 2016 were $8.8 million and $8.6 million, respectively. The cost of other inventories was determined by the first-in, first-out (“FIFO”) or average cost methods. If the FIFO method had been used to determine the cost of LIFO inventories, the amounts at which net inventories are stated would be higher than reported at March 31, 2017 and December 31, 2016 by $6.9 million and $6.8 million, respectively.

Inventories, net of inventory valuation reserves, consist of the following:

(in millions)	March 31, December 31,

In October 2016, the Company announced that it is proposing plans in Germany to reorganize and combine portions of its manufacturing, logistics and distribution networks within both of the Company's segments. As required under German law, the Company has entered into a statutory co-determination process under which it will collaborate with the appropriate labor groups to jointly define the infrastructure and staffing adjustments necessary to support this initiative. The Company continues to initiate similar actions in other regions of the world. The Company estimates the cost of these initiatives to be approximately $89.0 million, primarily for severance related benefits for employees, which is expected to be incurred as actions are implemented over the next two years.

NOTE 10 – FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND DERIVATIVES

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

The Company's activities expose it to a variety of market risks, which primarily include the risks related to the effects of changes in foreign currency exchange rates, interest rates and commodity prices. These financial exposures are monitored and managed by the Company as part of its overall risk management program. The objective of this risk management program is to reduce the volatility that these market risks may have on the Company's operating results and equity. The Company employs derivative financial instruments to hedge certain anticipated transactions, firm commitments, or assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies. Additionally, the Company utilizes interest rate swaps to convert variable rate debt to fixed rate debt.

Derivative Instruments Designated as Hedging

Cash Flow Hedges

The following table summarizes the notional amounts of cash flow hedges by derivative instrument type at March 31, 2017 and the notional amounts expected to mature during the next 12 months, with a discussion of the various cash flow hedges by derivative instrument type following the table:

(in millions)	Aggregate Notional Amount	Aggregate Notional Amount Maturing within 12 Months
Foreign exchange forward contracts	$ 293.8	$ 223.5
Interest rate swaps	112.8	—
Total derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges	$ 406.6	$ 223.5

Foreign Exchange Risk Management

The Company uses a layered hedging program to hedge select anticipated foreign currency cash flows to reduce volatility in both cash flows and reported earnings of the consolidated Company. The Company accounts for the designated foreign exchange forward contracts as cash flow hedges. As a result, the Company records the fair value of the contracts primarily through AOCI based on the tested effectiveness of the foreign exchange forward contracts. The Company measures the effectiveness of cash flow hedges of anticipated transactions on a spot-to-spot basis rather than on a forward-to-forward basis. Accordingly, the spot-to-spot change in the derivative fair value will be deferred in AOCI and released and recorded in the Consolidated Statements of Operations in the same period that the hedged transaction is recorded. The time value component of the fair value of the derivative is deemed ineffective and is reported currently in Other expense (income), net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations in the period which it is applicable. Any cash flows associated with these instruments are included in cash from operating activities in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. The Company hedges various currencies, with the most significant activity occurring in euros, Swedish kronor, Canadian dollars, British pounds, Swiss francs, Japanese Yen and Australian dollars.

These foreign exchange forward contracts generally have maturities up to 18 months and the counterparties to the transactions are typically large international financial institutions.

Interest Rate Risk Management

The Company uses interest rate swaps to convert a portion of its variable interest rate debt to fixed interest rate debt. At March 31, 2017, the Company has one significant exposure hedged with interest rate contracts. The exposure is hedged with derivative contracts having notional amounts totaling 12.6 billion Japanese yen, which effectively converts the underlying variable interest rate debt facility to a fixed interest rate of 0.9% for an initial term of five years ending September 2019.

The Company enters into interest rate swap contracts infrequently as they are only used to manage interest rate risk on long-term debt instruments and not for speculative purposes. Any cash flows associated with these instruments are included in cash from operating activities in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

Commodity Risk Management

The Company enters into precious metal commodity swap contracts to effectively fix certain variable raw material costs typically for up to 18 months. These swaps are used to stabilize the cost of components used in the production of certain products. The Company generally accounts for the commodity swaps as cash flow hedges in the same manner as described above in foreign exchange risk management.

The following tables summarize the amount of gains (losses) recorded in AOCI in the Consolidated Balance Sheets and income (expense) in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations related to all cash flow hedges for the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016:

Overall, the derivatives designated as cash flow hedges are considered to be highly effective. At March 31, 2017, the Company expects to reclassify $0.2 million of deferred net gains on cash flow hedges recorded in AOCI to the Consolidated Statements of Operations during the next 12 months. The term over which the Company is hedging exposures to variability of cash flows (for all forecasted transactions, excluding interest payments on variable interest rate debt) is typically 18 months.

For the rollforward of derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges in AOCI see Note 3, Comprehensive Income.

Hedges of Net Investments in Foreign Operations

The Company has significant investments in foreign subsidiaries the most significant of which are denominated in euros, Swiss francs, Japanese yen and Swedish kronor. The net assets of these subsidiaries are exposed to volatility in currency exchange rates. The Company employs both derivative and non-derivative financial instruments to hedge a portion of this exposure. The derivative instruments consist of foreign exchange forward contracts. The non-derivative instruments consist of foreign currency denominated debt held at the parent company level. Translation gains and losses related to the net assets of the foreign subsidiaries are offset by gains and losses in derivative and non-derivative financial instruments designated as hedges of net investments, which are included in AOCI. Any cash flows associated with these instruments are included in investing activities in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows except for derivative instruments that include an other-than-insignificant financing element, in which case all cash flows will be classified as financing activities in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

The following table summarizes the notional amounts of hedges of net investments by derivative instrument type at March 31, 2017 and the notional amounts expected to mature during the next 12 months:

(in millions)	Aggregate Notional Amount	Aggregate Notional Amount Maturing within 12 Months
Foreign exchange forward contracts	$ 64.5	$ 64.5

The fair value of the foreign exchange forward contracts is the estimated amount the Company would receive or pay at the reporting date, taking into account the effective interest rates and foreign exchange rates. The effective portion of the change in the value of these derivatives is recorded in AOCI, net of tax effects.

The following tables summarize the amount of gains (losses) recorded in AOCI in the Consolidated Balance Sheets and other income (expense) in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations related to the hedges of net investments for the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016:

Derivative Instruments Not Designated as Hedges

The Company enters into derivative instruments with the intent to partially mitigate the foreign exchange revaluation risk associated with recorded assets and liabilities that are denominated in a non-functional currency. The gains and losses on these derivative transactions offset the gains and losses generated by the revaluation of the underlying non-functional currency balances and are recorded in Other expense (income), net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company primarily uses foreign exchange forward contracts and cross currency basis swaps to hedge these risks. Any cash flows associated with the foreign exchange forward contracts and interest rate swaps not designated as hedges are included in cash from operating activities in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. Any cash flows associated with the cross currency basis swaps not designated as hedges are included in investing activities in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows except for derivative instruments that include an other-than-insignificant financing element, in which case the cash flows will be classified as financing activities in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

The following tables summarize the aggregate notional amounts of the Company's economic hedges not designated as hedges by derivative instrument types at March 31, 2017 and the notional amounts expected to mature during the next 12 months:

(in millions)	Aggregate Notional Amount	Aggregate Notional Amount Maturing within 12 Months
Foreign exchange forward contracts	$ 356.9	$ 356.9
Interest rate swaps	0.8	0.8
Total for instruments not designated as hedges	$ 357.7	$ 357.7

The following table summarizes the amounts of gains (losses) recorded in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations related to the economic hedges not designated as hedging for the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 2016:

Foreign exchange forward contracts (a)	Other expense (income), net	$(2.8)	$(16.4)
Total for instruments not designated as hedges		$(2.8)	$(16.4)

(a) The gains and losses on these derivative transactions offset the gains and losses generated by the revaluation of the underlying non-functional currency balances which are recorded in Other expense (income), net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

During March 2016, the Company established hedges totaling 316.5 million euros to offset a euro denominated intercompany note receivable at a U.S. dollar functional entity. The change in the value of the hedges resulted in a $12.1 million loss, which were offset by the changes in the value of the euro denominated intercompany note receivable at a U.S. dollar functional entity.

Balance Sheet Offsetting

Substantially all of the Company's derivative contracts are subject to netting arrangements, whereby the right to offset occurs in the event of default or termination in accordance with the terms of the arrangements with the counterparty. While these contracts contain the enforceable right to offset through netting arrangements with the same counterparty, the Company elects to present them on a gross basis in the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

NOTE 11 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

The Company records financial instruments at fair value with unrealized gains and losses related to certain financial instruments reflected in AOCI in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. In addition, the Company recognizes certain liabilities at fair value. The Company applies the market approach for recurring fair value measurements. Accordingly, the Company utilizes valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The fair value of financial instruments is determined by reference to various market data and other valuation techniques as appropriate. The Company believes the carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable (net of allowance for doubtful accounts), prepaid expenses and other current assets, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, income taxes payable and notes payable approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments. The Company estimated the fair value and carrying value of total long-term debt, including the current portion, was $1,551.7 million and $1,539.2 million, respectively at March 31, 2017. At December 31, 2016, the Company estimated the fair value and carrying value, including the current portion, was $1,525.7 million and $1,522.2 million, respectively. The variable interest rate on the Japanese yen term loan is consistent with current market conditions, therefore the fair value approximates the loan's carrying value.

The following tables set forth by level within the fair value hierarchy the Company's financial assets and liabilities that were accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis at March 31, 2017 and December 31, 2016, which are classified as Cash and cash equivalents, Prepaid expenses and other current assets, net, Other noncurrent assets, net, Accrued liabilities, and Other noncurrent liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Financial assets and liabilities that are recorded at fair value as of the balance sheet date are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Derivative valuations are based on observable inputs to the valuation model including interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates, future commodities prices and credit risks. The Company utilizes commodity contracts, interest rate swaps and foreign exchange forward contracts that are considered cash flow hedges. In addition, the Company at times employs forward exchange contracts that are considered hedges of net investment in foreign operations. Designated derivative instruments are further discussed in Note 10, Financial Instruments and Derivatives.

The Company's Level 3 liabilities at March 31, 2017 and December 31, 2016 are related to earn-out obligations on prior acquisitions. The following table presents a reconciliation of the Company's Level 3 holdings measured at fair value on a recurring basis using unobservable inputs:

NOTE 12 – INCOME TAXES

Uncertainties in Income Taxes

The Company recognizes in the interim consolidated financial statements, the impact of a tax position, if that position is more likely than not of being sustained on audit, based on the technical merits of the position.

26

It is reasonably possible that certain amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly increase or decrease within 12 months of the reporting date of the Company's interim consolidated financial statements. Final settlement and resolution of outstanding tax matters in various jurisdictions during the next twelve months are not expected to be significant.

Other Tax Matters

During the quarter, the Company recorded $6.3 million of excess tax benefit related to employee share-based compensation, $12.2 million of tax expense related to enacted statutory rate changes and $1.4 million of tax benefit for other discrete tax matters.

In the first quarter of 2016, the Company recorded a tax benefit from the release of a valuation allowance on previously unrecognized tax assets related to foreign interest deduction carryforwards of a non-U.S. legacy DENTSPLY subsidiary of approximately $76.1 million, resulting from the Merger. The Company also recorded $4.1 million of tax expense related to other discrete tax matters.

NOTE 13 – FINANCING ARRANGEMENTS

The Company's revolving credit facility, term loans and Senior Notes contain certain affirmative and negative covenants relating to the Company's operations and financial condition. At March 31, 2017, the Company was in compliance with all debt covenants.

At March 31, 2017, there were no outstanding borrowings under the current $500.0 million multi-currency revolving credit facility.

At March 31, 2017, the Company had $541.0 million of borrowing available under lines of credit, including lines available under its short-term arrangements and revolving credit agreement.

NOTE 14 – GOODWILL AND INTANGIBLE ASSETS

A reconciliation of changes in the Company's goodwill by reportable segment is as follows:

Three reporting units, all components of the Technologies operating segment, and one reporting unit, a component of the Dental and Healthcare Consumables operating segment, were created as a result of the Merger. At the date of the Merger, the fair value of the businesses equaled book value with goodwill for the reporting units totaling $3,758.1 million. Given the limited time since the Merger date, the reporting units' fair values approximate the book values of the reporting units at March 31, 2017. Slower net sales growth rates in the dental industry, an increase in discount rates, unfavorable changes in earnings multiples or a decline in future cash flow projections, among other factors, may cause a change in circumstances indicating that the carrying value of the Company's goodwill may not be recoverable.

At March 31, 2017, indefinite-lived assets recorded on three reporting units, all within the Technologies operating segment, and indefinite-lived assets recorded on one reporting unit within the Dental and Healthcare Consumables operating segment, were identified and fair valued as a result of the Merger. At the date of the Merger, the fair value of the indefinite-lived assets equaled book value totaling $905.0 million. Given the limited time since the Merger date, the indefinite-lived asset's fair values approximate the book values. Slower net sales growth rates in the dental industry, an increase in discount rates, unfavorable changes in earnings multiples or a decline in future cash flow projections, among other factors, may cause a change in circumstances indicating that the carrying value of the Company's indefinite-lived assets may not be recoverable.

NOTE 15 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Litigation

On June 18, 2004, Marvin Weinstat, DDS and Richard Nathan, DDS filed a class action suit in San Francisco County, California alleging that the Company misrepresented that its Cavitron® ultrasonic scalers are suitable for use in oral surgical procedures. The Complaint sought a recall of the product and refund of its purchase price to dentists who have purchased it for use in oral surgery. The Court certified the case as a class action in June 2006 with respect to the breach of warranty and unfair business practices claims. The certified class is defined as California dental professionals who, at any time during the period beginning June 18, 2000 through September 14, 2012, purchased and used one or more Cavitron® ultrasonic scalers for the performance of oral surgical procedures on their patients, which Cavitrons® were accompanied by Directions for Use that “Indicated” Cavitron® use for “periodontal debridement for all types of periodontal disease.” The case went to trial in September 2013, and on January 22, 2014, the San Francisco Superior Court issued its decision in the Company's favor, rejecting all of the plaintiffs' claims. The plaintiffs have appealed the Superior Court's decision, and the appeal is now pending. The Company is defending against this appeal.

On December 12, 2006, Carole Hildebrand, DDS, and Robert Jaffin, DDS, filed a Complaint in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (the Plaintiffs subsequently added Dr. Mitchell Goldman as a named class representative). The same law firm that filed the Weinstat case in California filed this case. The Complaint asserts putative class action claims on behalf of dentists located in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The Complaint asserts that the Company's Cavitron® ultrasonic scaler was negligently designed and sold in breach of contract and warranty arising from alleged misrepresentations about the potential uses of the product because the Company cannot assure the delivery of potable or sterile water through the device. The Court granted the Company's Motion for Dismissal of the case for lack of jurisdiction. Following that dismissal, the plaintiffs filed a second complaint under the name of Dr. Hildebrand's corporate practice, Center City Periodontists, asserting the same allegations. The plaintiffs moved to have the case certified as a class action and the Company objected. The Court granted the Company's Motion to Dismiss plaintiffs' New Jersey Consumer Fraud and negligent design claims, leaving only a breach of express warranty claim. The Court subsequently denied the Company's Motion for Summary Judgment on the express warranty claim. The Court held hearings during 2016 on plaintiffs' class certification motion. The Court has not scheduled further hearings in the matter and the Company is awaiting a ruling on the class certification motion by the Court.

On January 20, 2014, the Company was served with a qui tam complaint filed by two former and one current employee of the Company under the Federal False Claims Act and equivalent state and city laws. The lawsuit was previously under seal in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. The complaint alleges, among other things, that the Company engaged in various illegal marketing activities, and thereby caused dental and other healthcare professionals to file false claims for reimbursement with federal and state governments. The relators seek injunctive relief, fines, treble damages, and attorneys' fees and costs. On January 27, 2014, the United States filed with the Court a notice that it had elected not to intervene in the qui tam action at this time. The United States' notice indicated that the named state and city co-plaintiffs had authorized the United States to communicate to the Court that they also had decided not to intervene at this time. These non-intervention decisions do not prevent the qui tam relators from litigating this action, and the United States and/or the named states and/or cities may seek to intervene in the action at a later time. On September 4, 2014, the Company's motion to dismiss the complaint was granted in part and denied in part. The Company filed a motion for summary judgment in December 2015. In April 2016, the Court granted the Company's motion for summary judgment, which disposes of all remaining claims against the Company in the matter. The plaintiffs filed a notice of appeal in May 2016 and the matter has been assigned by the Court of Appeals for mediation. The Company will continue to vigorously defend itself.

The Company does not believe a loss is probable related to the above litigation. Further, a reasonable estimate of a possible range of loss cannot be made. In the event that one or more of these matters is unfavorably resolved, it is possible the Company's results from operations, financial position or liquidity could be materially impacted.

In 2012, the Company received subpoenas from the U. S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Indiana (the "USAO") and from the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the United States Department of the Treasury ("OFAC") requesting documents and information related to compliance with export controls and economic sanctions regulations by certain of its subsidiaries. The Company has voluntarily contacted OFAC and the Bureau of Industry and Security of the U. S. Department of Commerce ("BIS"), in connection with these matters as well as regarding compliance with export controls and economic sanctions regulations by certain other business units of the Company identified in connection with an internal review by the Company. On September 1, 2016, the Company entered into an extension of the tolling agreement originally entered into in August 2014, such that the statute of limitations was tolled until May 1, 2017. The Company's discussions with OFAC to resolve this matter are ongoing.

At this stage of the inquiries, the Company is unable to predict the ultimate outcome of these matters or what impact, if any, the outcome of these matters might have on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows. Violations of export control or economic sanctions laws or regulations could result in a range of governmental enforcement actions, including fines or penalties, injunctions and/or criminal or other civil proceedings, which actions could have a material adverse effect on the Company's reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations. At this time, no claims have been made against the Company.

In addition to the matters disclosed above, the Company is, from time to time, subject to a variety of litigation and similar proceedings incidental to its business. These legal matters primarily involve claims for damages arising out of the use of the Company's products and services and claims relating to intellectual property matters including patent infringement, employment matters, tax matters, commercial disputes, competition and sales and trading practices, personal injury and insurance coverage. The Company may also become subject to lawsuits as a result of past or future acquisitions or as a result of liabilities retained from, or representations, warranties or indemnities provided in connection with, divested businesses. Some of these lawsuits may include claims for punitive and consequential, as well as compensatory damages. Based upon the Company's experience, current information and applicable law, it does not believe that these proceedings and claims will have a material adverse effect on its consolidated results of operations, financial position or liquidity. However, in the event of unexpected further developments, it is possible that the ultimate resolution of these matters, or other similar matters, if unfavorable, may be materially adverse to the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations or liquidity.

While the Company maintains general, product, property, workers' compensation, automobile, cargo, aviation, crime, fiduciary and directors' and officers' liability insurance up to certain limits that cover certain of these claims, this insurance may be insufficient or unavailable to cover such losses. In addition, while the Company believes it is entitled to indemnification from third parties for some of these claims, these rights may also be insufficient or unavailable to cover such losses.

Purchase Commitments

From time to time, the Company enters into long-term inventory purchase commitments with minimum purchase requirements for raw materials and finished goods to ensure the availability of products for production and distribution. These commitments may have a significant impact on levels of inventory maintained by the Company.

References to the “Combined Businesses” are included below to provide comparisons of net sales performance year over year as if the businesses were combined on January 1, 2016.

OVERVIEW

Highlights

For the three months ended March 31, 2017, the Company reported a sales increase of 16.6%, which primarily reflects the impact of consolidating two additional months of Sirona’s revenues in 2017 compared with 2016. For the three month period ended March 31, 2017, sales of our Combined Businesses declined 2.2% on a constant currency basis and internal growth was negative 4.7%, which was unfavorably impacted by approximately $40 million as a result of quarter-over-quarter net changes in equipment inventory levels at certain distributors in North America and Europe related to the transition in distribution strategy in North America (see “Business Drivers” under this section for further detail). Inventory held by these distributors increased during the first quarter of 2016 by approximately $27 million and decreased during the first quarter of 2017 by approximately $13 million.

On a geographic basis, the Combined Businesses generated constant currency sales growth of 5.3% in Europe, negative 2.4% in the Rest of World region and negative 10.0% in the United States for the three month period ended March 31, 2017.

First quarter 2017 earnings per diluted share of $0.26 declined 62.9% compared to $0.70 in the first quarter of 2016, which largely reflects the tax benefit recorded in the first quarter of 2016, the higher weighted average common shares outstanding in the first quarter of 2017 as a result of the Merger, lower sales and gross profit associated with quarter-over-quarter net equipment inventory changes at certain distributors, partially offset by the impact of consolidating two additional months of Sirona’s results. On an adjusted basis (a non-US GAAP measure), first quarter 2017 earnings per diluted share was $0.49 a decline from $0.69 in the first quarter of 2016.

During the quarter ended March 31, 2017, the Company repurchased approximately 1.4 million common shares for $84.6 million. Since the Merger in February 2016, the Company has deployed cash in excess of $1 billion as it returned cash to shareholders through common share repurchases and dividends, as well as strengthened the business through acquisitions.

BUSINESS

The Company operates in two business segments, Dental and Healthcare Consumables and Technologies.

The Dental and Healthcare Consumables segment includes responsibility for the worldwide design, manufacture, sales and distribution of the Company's Dental and Healthcare Consumable Products which include preventive, restorative, instruments, endodontic, and laboratory dental products as well as consumable medical device products.

The Technologies segment is responsible for the worldwide design, manufacture, sales and distribution of the Company's Dental Technology Products which includes dental implants, CAD/CAM systems, imaging systems, treatment centers and orthodontic products.

Principal Measurements

The principal measurements used by the Company in evaluating its business are: (1) constant currency sales growth by segment and geographic region; (2) internal sales growth by segment and geographic region; and (3) adjusted operating income and margins of each reportable segment, which excludes the impacts of purchase accounting, corporate expenses, and certain other items to enhance the comparability of results period to period. These principal measurements are not calculated in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States; therefore, these items represent non-US GAAP measures. These non-US GAAP measures may differ from other companies and should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with US GAAP.

The Company defines "constant currency" sales growth as the increase or decrease in net sales from period to period excluding precious metal content and the impact of changes in foreign currency exchange rates. This impact is calculated by comparing current-period revenues to prior-period revenues, with both periods converted at the U.S. dollar to local currency foreign exchange rate for each month of the prior period, for the currencies in which the Company does business. The Company defines "internal" sales growth as constant currency sales growth excluding the impacts of net acquisitions and divestitures, Merger accounting impacts and discontinued products.

Business Drivers

The primary drivers of internal growth include macroeconomic factors, global dental market growth, innovation and new product launches by the Company, as well as continued investments in sales and marketing resources, including clinical education. Management believes that the Company's ability to execute its strategies has allowed it to grow faster than the underlying dental market.

The Company has a focus on maximizing operational efficiencies on a global basis. The Company has expanded the use of technology as well as process improvement initiatives to enhance global efficiency. In addition, management continues to evaluate the consolidation of operations and functions, as part of integration activities, to further reduce costs. The Company believes that the benefits from these global efficiency and integration initiatives will improve the cost structure and help mitigate the impacts of rising costs such as energy, employee benefits and regulatory oversight and compliance.

The Company expects that it will record restructuring charges, from time to time, associated with such initiatives. These restructuring charges could be material to the Company's consolidated financial statements and there can be no assurance that the target adjusted operating income margins will continue to be achieved.

In October 2016, the Company announced that it is proposing plans in Germany to reorganize and combine portions of its manufacturing, logistics and distribution networks within both of the Company's segments. As required under German law, the Company has entered into a statutory co-determination process under which it will collaborate with the appropriate labor groups to jointly define the infrastructure and staffing adjustments necessary to support this initiative. The Company continues to initiate similar actions in other regions of the world. The Company estimates the cost of these initiatives to be approximately $89 million, primarily for severance related benefits for employees, which is expected to be incurred as actions are implemented over the next two years.

Product innovation is a key component of the Company's overall growth strategy. New advances in technology are anticipated to have a significant influence on future products in the dentistry and consumable medical device markets in which the Company operates. As a result, the Company continues to pursue research and development initiatives to support technological development, including collaborations with various research institutions and dental schools. In addition, the Company licenses and purchases technologies developed by third parties. Although the Company believes these activities will lead to new innovative dental, healthcare consumable and dental technology products, they involve new technologies and there can be no assurance that commercialized products will be developed.

The Company's business is subject to quarterly fluctuations of consolidated net sales and net income. Price increases, promotional activities as well as changes in inventory levels at distributors contribute to this fluctuation. The Company typically implements most of its price increases in October or January of a given year across most of its businesses. Distributor inventory levels tend to increase in the period leading up to a price increase and decline in the period following the implementation of a price increase. Required minimum purchase commitments under agreements with key distributors may increase inventory levels in excess of retail demand. These net inventory changes have impacted the Company's consolidated net sales and net income in the past, and may continue to do so in the future, over a given period or multiple periods. In addition, the Company may from time to time, engage in new distributor relationships that could cause quarterly fluctuations of consolidated net sales and net income. Distributor inventory levels may fluctuate, and may differ from the Company's predictions, resulting in the Company's projections of future results being different than expected. There can be no assurance that the Company's dealers and customers will maintain levels of inventory in accordance with the Company's predictions or past history, or that the timing of customers' inventory build or liquidation will be in accordance with the Company's predictions or past history. Any of these fluctuations could be material to the Company's consolidated financial statements.

The Company has two exclusive distribution agreements with Patterson Companies, Inc. ("Patterson") for the marketing and sales of certain legacy Sirona products and equipment in the United States and Canada. In order to maintain exclusivity, certain purchase targets had to be achieved. In the fourth quarter 2016, the decision not to extend the exclusivity beyond September 2017 was announced. The Company's relationship with Patterson remains strong as the Company recently entered into a new three-year agreement with Patterson to continue to distribute the Company's equipment lines in the United States on a non-exclusive basis. Year-over-year, changes in Patterson inventory negatively impacted the Company's reported sales in the first quarter of 2017 by approximately $35 million. Inventory held by Patterson increased during the first quarter of 2016 by approximately $26 million, aligned with their typical purchasing ahead of their year-end and in an effort to meet minimum purchase targets required in order to maintain exclusivity. Inventory held by Patterson decreased during the first quarter of 2017 by approximately $9 million. The Company expects Patterson to continue to reduce their inventory of the Company's equipment by an additional $50 to $60 million in the aggregate in the second and third quarters of 2017. The Company also recently entered into a new non-exclusive three-year agreement with Henry Schein, Inc. for distribution of the Company's equipment lines in the United States. The agreement with Henry Schein is effective September 1, 2017. The Company believes that Henry Schein will begin to place initial stocking orders for the Company's equipment products as early as in the second quarter 2017 and that such orders will continue through the balance of 2017. At this time, the Company believes that net changes in distributor inventories in North America will reduce the Company's sales by $10 million to $20 million for the balance of 2017.

The Company will continue to pursue opportunities to expand the Company's product offerings, technologies and sales and service infrastructure through partnerships and acquisitions. Although the professional dental and the consumable medical device markets in which the Company operates have experienced consolidation, they remain fragmented. Management believes that there will continue to be adequate opportunities to participate as a consolidator in the industry for the foreseeable future.

Impact of Foreign Currencies and Interest Rates

Due to the Company's significant international presence, movements in foreign exchange and interest rates may impact the Consolidated Statements of Operations. With approximately two thirds of the Company's net sales located in regions outside the United States, the Company's consolidated net sales are impacted negatively by the strengthening or positively impacted by the weakening of the U.S. dollar. Additionally, movements in certain foreign exchange and interest rates may unfavorably or favorably impact the Company's results of operations, financial condition and liquidity. For the three months ended March 31, 2017, net sales, excluding precious metal content, were unfavorably impacted by approximately 1.6% and earnings per diluted common share by approximately $0.03 due to movements in foreign currency exchange rates when compared to the same period in 2016.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS, QUARTER ENDED MARCH 31, 2017 COMPARED TO QUARTER ENDED MARCH 31, 2016

Net Sales

The discussion below summarizes the Company's sales growth which excludes precious metal content, into the following components: (1) impact of the Merger; and (2) the results of the "Combined Businesses" as if the businesses were merged on January 1, 2016. These disclosures of net sales growth provide the reader with sales results on a comparable basis between periods.

Management believes that the presentation of net sales, excluding precious metal content, provides useful information to investors because a portion of Dentsply Sirona's net sales is comprised of sales of precious metals generated through sales of the Company's precious metal dental alloy products, which are used by third parties to construct crown and bridge materials. Due to the fluctuations of precious metal prices and because the cost of the precious metal content of the Company's sales is largely passed through to customers and has minimal effect on earnings, Dentsply Sirona reports net sales both with and without precious metal content to show the Company's performance independent of precious metal price volatility and to enhance comparability of performance between periods. The Company uses its cost of precious metal purchased as a proxy for the precious metal content of sales, as the precious metal content of sales is not separately tracked and invoiced to customers. The Company believes that it is reasonable to use the cost of precious metal content purchased in this manner since precious metal dental alloy sale prices are typically adjusted when the prices of underlying precious metals change.

The presentation of net sales, excluding precious metal content, is considered a measure not calculated in accordance with US GAAP, and is therefore considered a non-US GAAP measure. The Company provides the following reconciliation of net sales to net sales, excluding precious metal content. The Company's definitions and calculations of net sales, excluding precious metal content, and other operating measures derived using net sales, excluding precious metal content, may not necessarily be the same as those used by other companies.

Net sales, excluding precious metal content	$889.4	$754.5	$134.9	17.9 %

Net sales, excluding precious metal content, for the three months ended March 31, 2017 were $889.4 million, an increase of $134.9 million from the first quarter of 2016. The increase in net sales, excluding precious metal content, reflects sales of $112.7 million as a result of the consolidation of two additional months of Sirona in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to the same period in 2016, and was unfavorably impacted by approximately $40 million as a result of quarter-over-quarter net changes in equipment inventory levels at certain distributors in North America and Europe related to the transition in distribution strategy in North America (see "Business Drivers" under this section for further detail).

Sales related to precious metal content declined 38.7% in the quarter as compared to the same period in 2016, which was primarily due to the continuing reduction in the use of precious metal alloys in dentistry.

For the three months ended March 31, 2017, sales of our Combined Businesses declined 2.2% on a constant currency basis. This includes a benefit of 2.5% from acquisitions, which results in negative internal sales growth of 4.7%. Net sales, excluding precious metal content, were negatively impacted by approximately 1.3% due to the strengthening of the U.S. dollar over the prior year period. A reconciliation of reported net sales to net sales, excluding precious metal content, of the combined business is as follows:

United States

Reported net sales, excluding precious metal content, increased by 12.1% in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to the first quarter of 2016. The increase in net sales, excluding precious metal content, reflects sales of $27.0 million as a result of the consolidation of two additional months of Sirona in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to the same period in 2016 as well as growth in the Dental and Healthcare Consumables segment during the first quarter of 2017.

For the three month period ended March 31, 2017, sales of our Combined Businesses declined 10.0% on a constant currency basis. This includes a benefit of 1.3% from acquisitions, which results in a negative internal sales growth rate of 11.3%. In connection with the transition of our distribution strategy in North America, net sales, excluding precious metal content, was unfavorably impacted by approximately $30 million as a result of changes in net equipment inventory levels at a certain distributor in the United States for the quarter ended March 31, 2016 as compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2017 (see “Business Drivers” under this section for further detail).

Europe

Reported net sales, excluding precious metal content, increased by 21.4% in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to the first quarter of 2016. The increase in net sales, excluding precious metal content, reflects sales of $53.8 million as a result of the consolidation of two additional months of Sirona in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to the same period in 2016.

For the three month period ended March 31, 2017, sales of our Combined Businesses grew 5.3% on a constant currency basis. This includes a benefit of 3.1% from acquisitions, which results in internal growth of 2.2%. Net sales, excluding precious metal content, were negatively impacted by approximately 3.6% due to the strengthening of the U.S. dollar over the prior year period. In connection with the transition of our distribution strategy in North America, net sales, excluding precious metal content, was unfavorably impacted by approximately $5 million as a result of changes in net equipment inventory levels at a certain global distributor for the quarter ended March 31, 2016 as compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2017 (see “Business Drivers” under this section for further detail). Excluding this impact, internal sales growth in this region was primarily driven by higher demand in the Dental and Healthcare Consumables segment.

Rest of World

Reported net sales, excluding precious metal content, increased by 21.0% in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to the first quarter of 2016. The increase in net sales, excluding precious metal content, reflects sales of $31.9 million as a result of the consolidation of two additional months of Sirona in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to the same period in 2016.

For the three month period ended March 31, 2017, sales of our Combined Businesses declined 2.4% on a constant currency basis. This includes a benefit of 2.8% from acquisitions, which results in a negative internal sales growth rate of 5.2%. Net sales, excluding precious metal content, were positively impacted by approximately 50 basis points due to the weakening of the U.S. dollar over the prior year period. The negative growth was driven by lower demand in the Technologies segment. In connection with the transition of our distribution strategy in North America net sales, excluding precious metal content, was unfavorably impacted by approximately $5 million as a result of changes in net equipment inventory levels at a distributor in Canada for the quarter ended March 31, 2016 as compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2017 (see “Business Drivers” under this section for further detail).

Gross profit as a percentage of net sales, including precious metal content	54.6	% 54.2	%
Gross profit as a percentage of net sales, excluding precious metal content	55.3	% 55.5	%

Gross profit as a percentage of net sales, excluding precious metal content, decreased by 20 basis points for the quarter ended March 31, 2017 as compared to the same three month period ended March 31, 2016.

Net reductions in merger and acquisition related expenses, such as inventory step up and intangible amortization largely offset a 170 basis points negative impact on gross profit margins from equipment. The timing of the merger favorably impacted gross profit margins in the March 31, 2016 quarter and the product mix from distributor equipment inventory reductions unfavorably impacted gross profit margins in the March 31, 2017 quarter. Savings from the Company’s global efficiency and integration program and favorable product pricing during the quarter ended March 31, 2017 compensated for negative foreign currency exchange impacts on gross profit margins.

SG&A expenses, including research and developing expenses, as a percentage of net sales, excluding precious metal content, for the quarter ended March 31, 2017 increased 20 basis points compared to the quarter ended March 31, 2016.

Net reductions in business combination related costs, partially offset by higher fair value adjustments and amortization of purchased intangible assets and similar items benefited the SG&A rate by 330 basis points. These benefits largely compensated for rate increases driven by lower revenues associated with equipment inventory reductions, biennial trade shows and other selling events as well as the effects of acquisitions and foreign currency exchange.

Provision for Income Taxes

For the three months ended March 31, 2017, income taxes were an expense of $16.9 million as compared to $57.9 million of benefit in the quarter ended March 31, 2016.

During the first quarter of 2017, the Company recorded $6.3 million of excess tax benefit related to employee share-based compensation, $12.2 million of tax expense related to enacted statutory rate changes and $1.4 million of tax benefit related to other discrete tax matters. Excluding these tax matters, the Company's effective tax rate was 16.2%. The effective tax rate was favorably impacted by the Company's change in the mix of consolidated earnings.

In the first quarter of 2016, the Company recorded a tax benefit from the release of a valuation allowance on previously unrecognized tax assets related to foreign interest deduction carryforwards of a non-U.S. legacy DENTSPLY subsidiary of approximately $76.1 million, resulting from the Merger. The Company also recorded $4.1 million of tax expense related to other discrete tax matters. Excluding the impact of these tax matters, the Company's effective tax rate was 20.9%.

The Company's effective income tax rate for the first quarter of 2017 included the net impact of amortization of purchased intangible assets, business combination related costs, fair value adjustments, restructuring program related costs and other costs, credit risk and fair value adjustments and income tax related adjustments which impacted income before income taxes and the provision for income taxes by $64.0 million and $10.1 million, respectively.

The Company's effective income tax rate for the first quarter of 2016 included the net impact of business combination related costs and fair value adjustments, amortization of purchased intangible assets, restructuring, restructuring program related costs and other costs, credit risk and fair value adjustments and income tax related adjustments which impacted income before income taxes and the benefit for income taxes by $91.9 million and $94.5 million, respectively.

Net Income attributable to Dentsply Sirona

In addition to the results reported in accordance with US GAAP, the Company provides adjusted net income attributable to Dentsply Sirona and adjusted earnings per diluted common share ("adjusted EPS"). The Company discloses adjusted net income attributable to Dentsply Sirona to allow investors to evaluate the performance of the Company's operations exclusive of certain items that impact the comparability of results from period to period and may not be indicative of past or future performance of the normal operations of the Company and certain large non-cash charges related to intangible assets either purchased or acquired through a business combination. The Company believes that this information is helpful in understanding underlying operating trends and cash flow generation.

Adjusted net income and adjusted EPS are important internal measures for the Company. Senior management receives a monthly analysis of operating results that includes adjusted net income and adjusted EPS and the performance of the Company is measured on this basis along with other performance metrics.

The adjusted net income attributable to Dentsply Sirona consists of net income attributable to Dentsply Sirona adjusted to exclude the following:

(1) Business combination related costs and fair value adjustments. These adjustments include costs related to integrating and consummating mergers and recently acquired businesses, as well as costs, gains and losses related to the disposal of businesses or product lines. In addition, this category includes the roll off to the consolidated statement of operations of fair value adjustments related to business combinations, except for amortization expense noted below. These items are irregular in timing and as such may not be indicative of past and future performance of the Company and are therefore excluded to allow investors to better understand underlying operating trends.

(2) Restructuring program related costs and other costs. These adjustments include costs related to the implementation of restructuring initiatives as well as certain other costs. These costs can include, but are not limited to, severance costs, facility closure costs, lease and contract terminations costs, related professional service costs, duplicate facility and labor costs associated with specific restructuring initiatives, as well as, legal settlements and impairments of assets. These items are irregular in timing, amount and impact to the Company's financial performance. As such, these items may not be indicative of past and future performance of the Company and are therefore excluded for the purpose of understanding underlying operating trends.

(3) Amortization of purchased intangible assets. This adjustment excludes the periodic amortization expense related to purchased intangible assets. Amortization expense has been excluded from adjusted net income attributed to Dentsply Sirona to allow investors to evaluate and understand operating trends excluding these large non-cash charges.

(4) Credit risk and fair value adjustments. These adjustments include both the cost and income impacts of adjustments in certain assets and liabilities including the Company's pension obligations, that are recorded through net income which are due solely to the changes in fair value and credit risk. These items can be variable and driven more by market conditions than the Company's operating performance. As such, these items may not be indicative of past and future performance of the Company and therefore are excluded for comparability purposes.

(5) Certain fair value adjustments related to an unconsolidated affiliated company. This adjustment represents the fair value adjustment of the unconsolidated affiliated company's convertible debt instrument held by the Company. The affiliate is accounted for under the equity method of accounting. The fair value adjustment is driven by open market pricing of the affiliate's equity instruments, which has a high degree of variability and may not be indicative of the operating performance of the affiliate or the Company.

(6) Income tax related adjustments. These adjustments include both income tax expenses and income tax benefits that are representative of income tax adjustments mostly related to prior periods, as well as the final settlement of income tax audits, and discrete tax items resulting from the implementation of restructuring initiatives. These adjustments are irregular in timing and amount and may significantly impact the Company's operating performance. As such, these items may not be indicative of past and future performance of the Company and therefore are excluded for comparability purposes.

Adjusted earnings per diluted common share is calculated by dividing adjusted net income attributable to Dentsply Sirona by diluted weighted-average common shares outstanding. Adjusted net income attributable to Dentsply Sirona and adjusted earnings per diluted common share are considered measures not calculated in accordance with US GAAP, and therefore are non-US GAAP measures. These non-US GAAP measures may differ from other companies. Income tax related adjustments may include the impact to adjust the interim effective income tax rate to the expected annual effective tax rate. The non-US GAAP financial information should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with US GAAP.

Adjusted Operating Income and Margin

Adjusted operating income and margin is another important internal measure for the Company. Operating income in accordance with US GAAP is adjusted for the items noted above which are excluded on a pre-tax basis to arrive at adjusted operating income, a non-US GAAP measure. The adjusted operating margin is calculated by dividing adjusted operating income by net sales, excluding precious metal content.

Senior management receives a monthly analysis of operating results that includes adjusted operating income. The performance of the Company is measured on this basis along with the adjusted non-US GAAP earnings noted above as well as other performance metrics. Dental and Healthcare Consumables

Reported net sales, excluding precious metal content, increased by 6.2% in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to the first quarter of 2016. The increase in net sales, excluding precious metal content, reflects sales of $14.1 million as a result of the consolidation of two additional months of Sirona in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to the same period in 2016.

For the three month period ended March 31, 2017, sales of the Combined Businesses grew 2.8% on a constant currency basis. This includes a benefit of approximately 40 basis points from acquisitions, which results in internal growth of 2.4%. Net sales, excluding precious metal content, were negatively impacted by approximately 1.3% due to the strengthening of the U.S. dollar over the prior year period.

The operating income increased 4.4% for the three months ended March 31, 2017 as compared to 2016, which reflects increased demand primarily in Europe.

Technologies

Reported net sales, excluding precious metal content, increased 37.2% in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to the first quarter of 2016. The increase in net sales, excluding precious metal content, reflects sales of $98.6 million as a result of the consolidation of two additional months of Sirona in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to the same period in 2016.

For the three month period ended March 31, 2017, sales of our Combined Businesses declined 8.1% on a constant currency basis. This includes a benefit of 4.6% from acquisitions, which results in a negative internal sales growth rate of 12.7%. Net sales, excluding precious metal content, were negatively impacted by approximately 1.3% due to the strengthening of the U.S.

dollar over the prior year period. Net sales, excluding precious metal content, was unfavorably impacted by approximately $40 million as a result of quarter-over-quarter net changes in equipment inventory levels at certain distributors in North America and Europe related to the transition in distribution strategy in North America (see “Business Drivers” under this section for further detail).

The operating income increased 40 basis points for the three months ended March 31, 2017 as compared to 2016, which reflects the consolidation of two additional months of Sirona partially offset by the impact related to a change in net equipment inventory as previously discussed

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Except as noted below, there have been no other significant material changes to the critical accounting policies as disclosed in the Company’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Annual Goodwill Impairment Testing

Goodwill

Goodwill is not amortized; instead, it is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if indicators of impairment exist or if a decision is made to sell a business. The valuation date for annual impairment testing is April 30.

At March 31, 2017, the Company updated its goodwill impairment testing for one reporting unit in the Technologies segment based on forecasted current year financial performance. The review did not result in any impairment of the reporting units’ goodwill balance. Assumptions used in the calculations of fair value were substantially consistent with those at April 30, 2016. Had the WACC rate of this reporting unit had been hypothetically increased by 100 basis points at March 31, 2017, the fair value of this reporting unit would still exceed net book value. If the fair value of this reporting unit had been hypothetically reduced by 5%, the fair value of would still exceed book value. If the fair value of the reporting unit had been hypothetically reduced by 10% at March 31, 2017, the reporting unit fair value would approximate net book value. At March 31, 2017, the goodwill balance for this reporting unit was $52.8 million. Additionally, three reporting units, all components of the Technologies operating segment, and one reporting unit, a component of the Dental and Healthcare Consumables operating segment, were created as a result of the Merger on February 29, 2016. At the date of the Merger, the fair value of the businesses equaled book value with goodwill for the reporting units totaling $3,758.1 million. Given the limited time since the Merger date, the reporting units’ fair values approximate the book values of the reporting units. Slower net sales growth rates in the dental industry, an increase in discount rates, unfavorable changes in earnings multiples or a decline in future cash flow projections, among other factors, may cause a change in circumstances indicating that the carrying value of the Company’s goodwill may not be recoverable.

Should the Company’s analysis in the future indicate an increase in discount rates or a degradation in the overall markets served by these reporting units, it could result in impairment of the carrying value of goodwill to its implied fair value. There can be no assurance that the Company’s future goodwill impairment testing will not result in a charge to earnings.

Indefinite-Lived Assets

Indefinite-lived intangible assets consist of tradenames and are not subject to amortization; instead, they are tested for impairment annually or more frequently if indicators of impairment exist or if a decision is made to sell a business. The valuation date for annual impairment testing is April 30.

Indefinite-lived assets recorded on three reporting units, all within the Technologies operating segment, and indefinite-lived assets recorded on one reporting unit within the Dental and Healthcare Consumables operating segment, were identified and fair valued as a result of the Merger. At March 31, 2017, the fair value of the indefinite-lived assets approximate book value. Given the limited time since the Merger date, the indefinite-lived asset's fair values approximate the book values. Slower net sales growth rates in the dental industry, an increase in discount rates, unfavorable changes in earnings multiples or a decline in future cash flow projections, among other factors, may cause a change in circumstances indicating that the carrying value of the Company's indefinite-lived assets may not be recoverable.

Should the Company's analysis in the future indicate an increase in discount rates or a degradation in the use of the tradenames, it could result in impairment of the carrying value of the indefinite-lived assets to its implied fair value. There can be no assurance that the Company's future indefinite-lived asset impairment testing will not result in a charge to earnings.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Three months ended March 31, 2017

Net income decreased $65.6 million compared to the March 31, 2016 period, primarily due to a tax benefit of approximately $76 million recorded in the 2016 period. Cash flow from operating activities during the three months ended March 31, 2017 was $82.5 million compared to $0.7 million during the three months ended March 31, 2016. Cash from operations increased $81.8 million for the first three months of 2017 as compared to the same period in 2016 and was primarily related to a decrease in accounts receivables partially offset by increased inventory levels. During the same three month period in 2016, the Company had approximately $40 million of merger transaction related fees and integration costs. The Company's cash and cash equivalents decreased by $20.6 million to $363.3 million during the three months ended March 31, 2017.

For the three months ended March 31, 2017, the number of days of sales outstanding in accounts receivable increased by 1 day to 59 days as compared to 58 days at December 31, 2016. On a constant currency basis, the number of days of sales in inventory increased by 9 days to 122 days at March 31, 2017 as compared to 113 days at December 31, 2016.

Cash used in investing activities during the first three months of 2017 included capital expenditures of $31.1 million as well as capital deployment of $13.9 million related to a deposit on acquisition and purchased intellectual property. The Company expects capital expenditures to be in the range of approximately $120 million to $140 million for the full year 2017.

Cash used in financing activities for the three months ended March 31, 2017 was primarily related to share repurchase activity and dividend payments, partially offset by proceeds from stock option exercises. The Company increased its dividend by 12.9% as compared to the prior year.

At March 31, 2017, the Company had authorization to maintain up to 39.0 million shares of treasury stock under its stock repurchase program as approved by the Board of Directors. Under this program, the Company repurchased 1.4 million shares during the first three months of 2017 for $84.6 million. As of March 31, 2017, the Company held 34.6 million shares of treasury stock. The Company received proceeds of $29.4 million as a result of the exercise of 0.8 million of stock options during the three months ended March 31, 2017.

The Company's total borrowings increased by a net $18.6 million during the three months ended March 31, 2017, which includes an increase of $19.7 million due to exchange rate fluctuations on debt denominated in foreign currencies. At March 31, 2017, the Company's ratio of total net debt to total capitalization was 12.7% compared to 12.4% at December 31, 2016. The Company defines net debt as total debt, including current and long-term portions, less cash and cash equivalents and total capitalization as the sum of net debt plus equity.

The Company is obligated to pay annual principal amortization of $8.8 million representing a 5% mandatory principal amortization due in each of the first nine years under the terms of the PNC Term Loan with a final maturity of August 25, 2020. The fourth annual installment in the amount of $8.8 million will be due in August 2017 and has been classified as current in the Consolidated Balance Sheet.

Effective June 30, 2016, the Company exercised its option to amend and extend its $500.0 million five-year multi-currency revolving credit agreement to replace certain lenders and extend the maturity date by one year to July 23, 2021. Under its five-year multi-currency revolving credit agreement, the Company is able to borrow up to $500.0 million through July 23, 2021. The facility is unsecured and contains certain affirmative and negative covenants relating to the operations and financial condition of the Company. The most restrictive of these covenants pertain to asset dispositions and prescribed ratios of indebtedness to total capital and operating income plus depreciation and amortization to interest expense. At March 31, 2017, the Company was in compliance with these covenants. The Company also has available an aggregate $500.0 million under a U.S. dollar commercial paper facility. The five-year revolver serves as a back-up to the commercial paper facility, thus the total available credit under the commercial paper facility and the multi-currency revolving credit facilities in the aggregate is $500.0 million. At March 31, 2017, there were no outstanding borrowings under the current $500.0 million multi-currency revolving credit facility.

The Company also has access to $52.0 million in uncommitted short-term financing under lines of credit from various financial institutions. The lines of credit have no major restrictions and are provided under demand notes between the Company and the lending institutions. At March 31, 2017, the Company had $11.5 million outstanding under these short-term lines of credit. At March 31, 2017, the Company had total unused lines of credit related to the revolving credit agreement and the uncommitted short-term lines of credit of $541.0 million.

At March 31, 2017, the Company held $40.5 million of precious metals on consignment from several financial institutions. The consignment agreements allow the Company to acquire the precious metal at market rates at a point in time which is approximately the same time and for the same price as alloys are sold to the Company's customers. In the event that the financial institutions would discontinue offering these consignment arrangements, and if the Company could not obtain other comparable arrangements, the Company may be required to obtain third party financing to fund an ownership position in the required precious metal inventory levels.

At March 31, 2017, approximately $278.5 million of the Company's cash and cash equivalents were held outside of the United States. Most of these balances could be repatriated to the United States, however, under current law, would potentially be subject to U.S. federal income tax, less applicable foreign tax credits. Historically, the Company has generated more than sufficient operating cash flows in the United States to fund domestic operations. Further, the Company expects on an ongoing basis, to be able to finance domestic and international cash requirements, including capital expenditures, stock repurchases, debt service, operating leases and potential future acquisitions, from the funds generated from operations and amounts available under its existing credit facilities. The Company intends to finance the current portion of long-term debt due within the next twelve months utilizing the available commercial paper and the revolving credit facilities as well as other sources of credit.

Except as stated above, there have been no material changes to the Company's scheduled contractual cash obligations disclosed in its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

The Company continues to review its debt portfolio and may refinance additional debt in the near-term as interest rates remain at historically low levels.
