On December 9, 2010, Edison International announced the retirement of Alan J. Fohrer from his position as the principal executive officer of Edison International's Southern California Edison Company ("SCE") subsidiary. Edison International also announced that Ronald L. Litzinger will succeed Mr. Fohrer as SCE's principal executive officer. In connection with this transition, Mr. Litzinger will resign his current position as Chairman of the Board, President and CEO of Edison Mission Group Inc. and Edison Mission Energy, which are also subsidiaries of Edison International. Mr. Fohrer's retirement and Mr. Litzinger's change in roles will become effective January 1, 2011.

In connection with Mr. Fohrer's retirement, he will receive benefits pursuant to Edison International's Executive Retirement Plan, Executive Severance Plan, and terms and conditions applicable to the Edison International long-term incentive award grants.
