Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

From October 21, 2009 to October 22, 2009, Regal Beloit Corporation (the “Company”) issued an aggregate of 500,536 shares of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and accompanying common share purchase rights (together, the “Common Stock”), upon conversion of $27.5 million principal amount (the “Converted Notes”) of the Company’s 2.75% Convertible Senior Subordinated Notes Due 2024 (the “Convertible Notes”). As permitted by the Indenture, dated as of April 5, 2004, between the Company and U.S. Bank National Association, as supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture, dated as of December 9, 2004, relating to the Convertible Notes (the “Indenture”), the Company settled the principal amount of the Converted Notes in cash and the premium in shares of Common Stock. Based on the Conversion Rate (as defined in the Indenture) in effect at the time of the applicable conversions, the premium owing on the Converted Notes equaled 500,536 shares of Common Stock in aggregate. The issuance of such shares qualified for the exemption provided by Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The Company received no additional consideration for the shares.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 23, 2009, the Board of Directors of the Company decided to end the program by which Henry W. Knueppel, the Company’s Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and Mark J. Gliebe, the Company’s President and Chief Operating Officer, had voluntarily waived 20% and 10% of their 2009 base salaries, respectively. The base salaries of Messrs. Knueppel and Gliebe did not increase from 2008 to 2009, so under this voluntary waiver program, the 2009 salary for Mr. Knueppel was reduced from $754,000 to $594,000 and the 2009 salary for Mr. Gliebe was reduced from $478,000 to $430,200. As previously reported, these officers offered to waive those portions of their base salaries, which offer was accepted by the Board of Directors in April 2009, in an effort to lead the Company by example in challenging economic times and to further align their compensation with efforts to address the Company’s cost structure. In light of the Company’s improved performance, the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of its Compensation Committee, ended the waiver program effective October 1, 2009. As a result, effective October 1, 2009, the salary for Mr. Knueppel returned to $754,000 and the salary for Mr. Gliebe returned to $478,000.
