None of the Named Executive Officers deferred any compensation under this plan in fiscal 2004.

Director Compensation

Messrs. Robert A. Whitman, Brian A. Krisak, Donald J. McNamara, Hyrum W. Smith and Stephen R. Covey do not currently receive compensation for Board or committee meetings. The remaining directors are paid as follows:

- Each Board member is paid an annual retainer of $30,000 paid quarterly for service on the Board and attending Board meetings;
- Each Board member is paid an additional annual retainer of $7,000 for service on each committee they serve in lieu of committee meeting fees;
- Committee chairpersons are paid an additional annual retainer of $5,000 for the Audit and Compensation committees and $3,000 for all other committees;
- Each Board member will be annually granted a restricted stock award equivalent to $27,500 which vests over a three-year term if Proposal III is approved by the shareholders;
- Directors are reimbursed by the Company for their out-of-pocket travel and related expenses incurred in attending all Board and committee meetings.

Employment Agreements

The Company does not have an employment agreement with any of its Named Executive Officers, including Robert A. Whitman, the President, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board. The Company had previously entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Whitman (the Employment Agreement). Although the Employment Agreement's term extended through August 31, 2007, Mr. Whitman requested that the Employment Agreement be cancelled in order to create parity between himself and other executive officers and to enhance his working partnership with the Board. The Board agreed to Mr. Whitman's request and the Employment Agreement was cancelled effective December 8, 2004. Mr. Whitman continues to serve as Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company at the will and pleasure of the Board, on such terms and conditions as the Board and Mr. Whitman from time-to-time agree, consistent with the Company's Bylaws.

As previously reported by the Compensation Committee, Mr. Whitman had elected to forgo receipt of any cash compensation from the Company from May 1, 2001 through August 31, 2003 (the Forgone Compensation) despite having performed all of his duties and responsibilities contemplated for such period under the terms of the Employment Agreement. In connection with his cancellation of the Employment Agreement, Mr. Whitman has confirmed in writing that he unconditionally forever waives, and releases the Company from, any and all claims, rights or demands he has or may have to the Forgone Compensation.

The Compensation Committee noted that Mr. Whitman gave up valuable rights under the Employment Agreement, including severance, compensation in the event of a change in control, and life insurance and disability benefits. Having evaluated the significant cost of these benefits to the Company, the Compensation Committee believed that it was in the shareholders' interest to accept Mr. Whitman's voluntary cancellation of the Employment Agreement. In consideration of the Company's substantially improved financial performance under Mr. Whitman's leadership, Mr. Whitman's Forgone Compensation, and the cancellation of the Employment Agreement, the Compensation Committee determined the following compensation program for Mr. Whitman:

Cash Compensation. For fiscal year 2005, the Compensation Committee agreed to continue Mr. Whitman's base salary at $500,000. His target annual incentive for achieving predetermined Company financial and operational goals will also remain at $500,000.

Stock Awards. Pursuant to the Incentive Plan, the Compensation Committee awarded Mr. Whitman 187,000 shares of Company stock that are immediately vested. In addition, the Compensation Committee granted Mr. Whitman 225,000 shares of restricted stock that vest over five years, subject to earlier vesting, if certain financial goals are met by the Company.

Option Acceleration. On September 1, 2000, the Company granted Mr. Whitman the option to purchase 1,602,000 shares of Company stock at an exercise price of $14.00. The option vests over seven years unless specified stock price hurdles were achieved that accelerated the vesting. At the time the grant, there was no compensation expense recorded in the income statement. However, the Company disclosed in its footnotes to the financial statements, pro forma compensation expense of approximately $700,000 per year with three years' of pro forma expense (fiscal 2005 through 2007) still to be recognized. Accelerating the vesting of the option will accelerate the recognition of the remaining pro forma expense that will be disclosed in the footnotes. In December 2004 the FASB issued statement No. 123R which changes the accounting for stock-based awards to require that compensation expense be recorded in the income statement beginning in interim or annual periods beginning after June 15, 2005. The Compensation Committee evaluated the minimal benefit to Mr. Whitman of accelerating the remaining three years of vesting on a significantly underwater option against the value to shareholders of not having earnings materially distorted. In addition to accelerating the option, it will remain exercisable for its full ten-year term regardless of Mr. Whitman's earlier termination of employment, death or disability.

Life Insurance and Long Term Disability Benefits. Mr. Whitman's Employment Agreement provided for the Company to pay $2,500,000 in the event of his death or disability. The Compensation Committee determined that it would be more cost effective for the Company and tax-effective for Mr. Whitman to restructure the Company's obligation. Therefore, the Compensation Committee agreed that the Company would procure, at its expense, a portable 20 year level term life insurance policy on Mr. Whitman's life with a death benefit of $2,500,000. The Company will also provide Mr. Whitman with sufficient funds to enable him to procure long term disability insurance which, combined with the Company's current group policy, provides, in the aggregate, monthly long term disability benefits equal to 75% of his fiscal 2005 target cash compensation.

Severance and Change in Control Benefits. The Compensation Committee decided to evaluate severance and change in control benefits for all executive officers, including Mr. Whitman, as part of its agenda for fiscal year 2005.

Mr. Whitman's Fiscal 2004 Compensation. The Company resumed Mr. Whitman's salary payments effective as of the beginning of the fiscal year at the previous annual rate of $500,000. His annual incentive opportunity was reinstated to be 100% of his salary. The Compensation Committee determined Mr. Whitman's annual cash incentive for fiscal 2004 based upon the success of the desired business model, growth of core top lines, and achievement of certain financial results. As shown in the Summary Compensation Table, Mr. Whitman received a payment equal to 56.25 percent of his targeted annual incentive. No equity awards were made to Mr. Whitman during fiscal year 2004 and as of the end of the fiscal year, none of his options were exercisable. (See the discussion above regarding the subsequent acceleration in early fiscal 2005 of vesting of Mr. Whitman's outstanding stock options.)

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

No member of the Compensation Committee was or is an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. The Company is not aware of any Compensation Committee interlocks.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND TRANSACTIONS

In connection with the merger between the Company and Covey Leadership Center, Stephen R. Covey, who is vice-chairman of the Board of Directors, entered into a Speaker Services Agreement with the Company pursuant to which Dr. Covey receives 80 percent of the proceeds from personal speaking engagements, which resulted in a payment of $1.5 million to Dr. Covey for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2004.

Also in connection with the above referenced transaction, the Company succeeded to a 12-year lease agreement originally entered into by Covey expiring in 2009 on two office buildings (the Property) located in Provo, Utah. The buildings are leased from entities (collectively, the Landlord) in which Dr. Covey has a 35 percent interest. Lease rentals paid in fiscal 2004 were $2.4 million. Subsequent to August 31, 2004, the Company exercised its option under the terms of the lease agreements assumed by it in the merger with Covey to purchase the Property. The exercise of the option was part of a three-way transaction in which the buildings and land were purchased directly from the landlords, and simultaneously sold to the current tenant, an unrelated party. Subsequent to the merger with Covey, the Company consolidated the operations that were previously located in buildings with its existing operations located in Salt Lake City, but remained obligated on the leases through December 2009. The Company was subsequently able to obtain a sublease for the buildings, but at rates less than its obligation to the landlords. Based on the continuing negative cash flow associated with these buildings, and other factors, the Company determined that it was in its best interest to exercise the option and sell the property to the current tenant. The negotiated purchase price with the landlord was $14.0 million and the tenant agreed to purchase the property for $12.5 million.

In fiscal 2002 Hyrum W. Smith, who is vice-chairman of the Board of Directors, entered into a Speaker Services Agreement with the Company pursuant to which Mr. Smith receives 80 percent of the proceeds from personal speaking engagements, which resulted in a payment of $0.1 million for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2004. The Company has also licensed certain intellectual property to a company in which Mr. Smith is a principal shareholder. No license payments were required to be paid to the Company during fiscal 2004.

In fiscal 2002, Brian A. Krisak, a director of the Company as a designee of Knowledge Capital pursuant to its contractual rights described in more detail under Contractual Rights of Knowledge Capital to Designate Nominees , entered into a consulting agreement with the Company to assist it with various projects and transactions, such as the sale of Premier and new product offerings. The consulting agreement expired in December 2002. Mr. Krisak did receive $22,000 in fiscal 2004 for consulting fees received apart from the consulting agreement.

Donald J. McNamara, a director of the Company serving as a designee of Knowledge Capital pursuant to its contractual rights, is a principal of The Hampstead Group, the private investment firm that sponsors Knowledge Capital, the holder of 94.8 percent of the Company s outstanding Series A Preferred Stock, and of Hampstead Interests, LP, a Texas limited partnership. On June 2, 1999, the Company and Hampstead Interests, LP entered into a Monitoring Agreement (the Monitoring Agreement) that provides for payment of a monitoring fee of $0.1 million per quarter to Hampstead Interests, LP for assisting the Company in strategic planning, including acquisitions, divestitures, new development and financing matters. The agreement continues so long as Knowledge Capital owns more than 50 percent of the 750,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock (or Common Stock equivalents) originally purchased. The Company paid $0.4 million to Hampstead Interests, LP during the fiscal year ended August 31, 2004, pursuant to the Monitoring Agreement.

Robert A. Whitman, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, beneficially owns a partnership interest of Knowledge Capital, and Brian A. Krisak worked for the Hampstead Group from January 1999 to September 2002.

Each transaction described above was entered into pursuant to arm s length negotiations with the party involved and was approved by disinterested majorities of the board of directors or the Compensation Committee of the Board.
