Nuveen Closed-End Exchange-Traded Funds (NTC, NFC, NPG, NMT, NMB, NOM)

Portfolio Managers' Comments

Portfolio managers Paul Brennan, Tom Futrell, Tom O'Shaughnessy and Mike Davern examine national and state economic conditions, key investment strategies, and the performance of the Nuveen Closed-End Exchange-Traded Funds. Paul, who has nine years experience as an investment professional, has managed NTC since 1999. Tom Futrell, an 15-year Nuveen veteran, assumed responsibility for NMT in 1998. An 18-year veteran of Nuveen, Tom O'Shaughnessy assumed portfolio management responsibilities for NPG in 1998. Mike, who has served as a portfolio manager since 1992, assumed responsibility for NOM in 1998 as well. In March 2001, Paul and Tom Futrell also added the new Nuveen Dividend Advantage Funds for Connecticut (NFC) and Massachusetts (NMB), respectively.

WHAT FACTORS HAD THE GREATEST INFLUENCE ON THE U.S. ECONOMY AND THE MUNICIPAL MARKET DURING THIS REPORTING PERIOD?

The first part of this reporting period saw market participants worried about economic growth at too rapid a pace and worry this might lead to a rise in future inflation. However, by the end of 2000 the focus had shifted toward concerns about a slower rate of economic growth. This was one reason the Federal Reserve Board governors cited as they announced five interest rate cuts of 50 basis points each over the first five months of 2001. (The Fed also cut the fed funds rate by another 25 basis points in late June, after the close of the reporting period.) The consensus among many market observers is that the Fed remains ready to continue easing as long as signs of a significant economic slowdown remain.

In the municipal market, new issue supply has started to pick up in 2001. During the first five months of this calendar year, new municipal issuance nationwide totaled $102.6 billion, an increase of 41% over January-May 2000. On the demand side, municipal bonds continued to be highly sought after by individual investors looking for diversification, income, and an alternative to a volatile stock market. For the most part, improving supply and continued strong demand has helped keep municipal bond prices higher than they were at this time last year. As a result, municipal bond yields are correspondingly lower. Nevertheless, we believe the municipal market continues to represent good value. As of May 31, 2001, long-term municipal yields were 98% of 30-year Treasury yields, compared with 103% in May 2000.

WHAT WERE THE MARKET ENVIRONMENTS LIKE IN CONNECTICUT, GEORGIA, MASSACHUSETTS AND MISSOURI?

PAUL: The increase in new supply in Connecticut has been about on par with that of the broader municipal market. During the first five months of 2001, state issuance totaled $1.2 billion, up 39% over the same period in 2000. Connecticut's economy continued to transition from a reliance on defense manufacturing to higher-skilled industries such as financial services, information technology, and biotechnology, which is rapidly becoming one of the state's primary economic drivers. The Connecticut economy also continued to benefit from the increased presence of gaming, with Foxwoods Casino serving as the state's largest employer. As of May 2001, the unemployment rate in Connecticut was 2.4%, down from 2.5% a year ago and well below the current national average of 4.5%. Over the near term, this tight labor market could have a limiting effect on growth in the state. In February 2001, Connecticut's general obligation debt was upgraded to Aa2 from Aa3 by Moody's, which cited the state's well-established trend of financial performance and generally favorable economic conditions.

TOM O'SHAUGHNESSY: Mirroring events at the national level, job growth in Georgia began to show signs of slowing, with a significant drop-off in the services sector, declining construction activity, and manufacturing layoffs throughout the state. Despite the diversification of Georgia's economy into new industries - including technology and tourism - in recent years, a significant portion of the state economy remains reliant on resource-related products such as paper and wood.

The overall slowdown in the Georgia economy was reflected in the state's lower level of personal income tax collections. In contrast to the general increase in national municipal supply, during the first five months of 2001 new issue supply in Georgia was $841 million, down 56% from the same period in 2000. This was partially due to the fact that 2000's issuance figures included more than $1 billion in transportation bonds for Hartsfield International Airport.

TOM FUTRELL: The Massachusetts economy continued to perform well over the past year, helped by its diversification away from manufacturing and a greater emphasis on sectors such as financial services and technology. Although the state's unemployment rate of 3.2% in May 2001 was higher than the 2.4% seen a year ago, it remained significantly lower than the 4.5% national average. Some of the slowdown in employment growth was due to the loss of jobs in the state's high-tech sector, which mirrored events at the national level. However, job growth in financial services, which is less cyclical than many other industries, is expected to fare better. In terms of issuance, new supply in Massachusetts for the first five months of 2001 totaled $3.5 billion, up 24% over 2000, but still trailing the 41% increase seen nationwide.

MIKE: New municipal issuance was up in Missouri during the January-May period, as approximately $2.3 billion of new bonds were issued in the state, an increase of 53% over the same period in 2000. Missouri's economic base is diversified, which helps the state remain relatively stable during economic cycles. However, with a manufacturing sector that concentrates on old-economy industries such as textiles, agricultural equipment, and machine tools, the state's economy slowed significantly last year as manufacturing contracted, and other sectors - including trade, transportation, and services - weakened. The auto industry, which had supported Missouri's expansion over the past few years, suffered from stalled sales, inventory buildup, and temporary plant shutdowns. Despite these facts, unemployment was 3.6% as of May 2001, below the national average, although it increased from last May's 3.2%.

HOW DID THESE NUVEEN FUNDS PERFORM OVER THE PAST TWELVE MONTHS?

For the year ended May 31, 2001, the four older Nuveen Closed-End

Edgar Filing: NUVEEN MASSACHUSETTS DIVIDEND ADVANTAGE MUNICIPAL FUND - Form N-30D

Exchange-Traded Funds covered in this report - NTC, NMT, NPG and NOM - produced total returns on net asset value (NAV) as shown in the accompanying table. The annual returns for the Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index¹ and the Funds' Lipper Peer Group² are also presented.

	5/31/01	TAXABLE- EQUIVALENT ³	1 YEAR ENDED 5/31/01	1 YEAR ENDED 5/31/01
NTC	5.07%	7.68%	16.57%	12.14%
NPG	5.00%	7.69%	16.98%	12.14%
NMT	5.32%	8.18%	14.72%	12.14%

Past performance is not predictive of future results.

For additional information, see the individual Performance Overview for your Fund in this report.

In mid-2000, the combination of tight municipal supply, an end to the Fed's tightening cycle, and generally favorable technicals prompted a shift in the outlook for municipal bonds and rallied the municipal market. This boosted many bond prices that had declined during the Fed's prior round of rate hikes. The Funds' participation in this recovery is reflected in the total returns on NAV listed in the previous table.

During the 12 months ended May 31, 2001, the yield on the Bond Buyer 25 Revenue Bond Index fell from 6.20% to 5.62%. In this environment of falling yields (and rising bond values), funds with longer durations⁴ would generally be expected to perform well. As of May 31, 2001, the four older funds' portfolio durations ranged from 9.31 to 11.07, compared with 7.68 for the unleveraged Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index.

- 1 The Funds' performances are compared with that of the Lehman Brothers Municipal Bond Index, an unleveraged index comprising a broad range of investment-grade municipal bonds. Results for the Lehman index do not reflect any expenses.
- 2 The Funds' total returns are compared with the average annualized return of the 19 funds in the Lipper Other States Municipal Debt Funds category. Fund and Lipper returns assume reinvestment of dividends.
- 3 The taxable-equivalent yield represents the yield that must be earned on a taxable investment in order to equal the yield of the Nuveen Fund on an after-tax basis. The taxable-equivalent yield is based on the Fund's market yield on the indicated date and a federal income tax rate of 31% plus the applicable state income tax rate. The combined federal and state tax rates used in this report are as follows: Connecticut 34%, Massachusetts 35%, Georgia 35% and Missouri 35%.

- 4 Duration is a measure of a Fund's NAV volatility in reaction to interest rate movements. Fund duration, also known as leverage-adjusted duration, takes into account the leveraging process for a Fund and therefore is generally longer than the duration of the actual portfolio of individual bonds that make up the Fund. Unless otherwise noted, references to duration in this commentary are intended to indicate Fund duration.

HOW WERE THE FUNDS' DIVIDENDS AND SHARE PRICES AFFECTED BY THIS ENVIRONMENT?

All of these Funds use leverage as a way to potentially enhance the dividends paid to common shareholders. This benefit is tied in part to the short-term rates the Funds pay their MuniPreferred(R) shareholders. In a falling rate environment, this can produce benefits for common shareholders. During the past year, steady or falling short-term rates and good levels of call protection helped to maintain the dividends of NTC, NMT, and NOM. In addition, the lower short-term rates enabled us to increase the dividend of NOM in March 2001. As of May 31, 2001, NTC and NOM had offered shareholders 76 and 12 consecutive months, respectively, of steady or increasing dividends, while NMT had provided 12 consecutive months of steady income.

For NPG, however, the relatively higher short-term interest rate environment of the last half of 2000 ultimately led to a dividend cut. In 1999 and 2000, the Federal Reserve's series of short-term rate hikes increased the cost of payouts to MuniPreferred shareholders. This was sufficient to cause a decrease in the common share dividend of NPG in December 2000.

The two new Connecticut and Massachusetts Dividend Advantage Funds, NFC and NMB, were launched in January 2001 and began paying monthly dividends in April. All are now providing very attractive levels of monthly tax-free income to their shareholders.

In coming months, the lower rates offered by municipal securities with shorter maturities could potentially further benefit the dividends of these Funds by reducing the amount the Funds pay their MuniPreferred shareholders. In turn, this could leave more Fund earnings to support common share dividends. However, this trend could be offset by the effect of bond calls on the higher-yielding bonds held by these portfolios. The level of short-term rates, the number of bond calls, and the interest rates at which we can reinvest the proceeds of any calls will all influence the dividends of these Nuveen Funds over the next twelve months.

As the stock market remained volatile and the bond market continued to perform well, many investors turned to tax-free fixed-income alternatives as a way to add balance to their portfolios and reduce overall risk. As a result, the share prices of the four older Nuveen Funds improved substantially (see the charts on the individual Performance Overview pages). The share prices of the two newer Funds also performed well since their inception in late January of this year. As investors recognized the opportunity offered by these Funds, robust demand helped maintain the premium prices (share price above NAV) on all six Funds.

WHAT KEY STRATEGIES WERE USED TO MANAGE THE NUVEEN FUNDS DURING THE YEAR ENDED MAY 31, 2001?

As evidenced by their strong twelve-month total returns on NAV, the three older Nuveen Funds were well structured going into this period. Despite the tight supply of new municipal issuance during 2000, the Funds continued to meet their goal of keeping assets fully invested and working for shareholders. However, lower supply also meant relatively fewer opportunities to make trades that would substantially enhance the Funds' holdings. As issuance did become available in the market, we focused on strengthening long-term dividend-payment capabilities, enhancing call protection, and purchasing bonds with the potential to add value and diversification to the Funds' portfolios.

NTC's portfolio turnover was very low, especially over the past six months, due to the Fund's excellent structure as well as the limited supply of the longer-maturity Connecticut bonds that Nuveen typically buys. We did find some opportunities to diversify the Fund with the purchase of bonds from an infrequent issuer, Bradley International Airport, where a major expansion is planned to accommodate passenger growth. In the education sector, we also purchased bonds issued by Greenwich Academy and added to our holdings of Trinity College and The Loomis Chaffee School bonds. In keeping with our strategy of replacing territorial bonds with in-state issues, we sold some of the Fund's Puerto Rico general obligation bonds, as well as some bonds approaching likely calls. This helped us upgrade NTC's call protection.

In NPG, our management strategies over the past 12 months were heavily focused on income, and the majority of our purchases for the Fund were concentrated in sectors that offered higher yields. While it is unusual to find bonds rated BBB in a high-quality market such as Georgia, we were able to take advantage of increased issuance in this quality sector during the past year to diversify the Fund and raise its BBB allocation from zero to 7%. Our purchase of these bonds ranged across several sectors, from transportation to hospitals to multifamily housing and industrial development bonds. To finance these purchases, we sold bonds at attractive prices into high demand by individual investors and reduced our exposure to Puerto Rico issues. The market of the past twelve months represented a good time to sell bonds with short calls as well as pre-refunded bonds. All of this also helped us upgrade NPG's call protection.

In Massachusetts, the multifamily housing sector offered several interesting opportunities to purchase bonds with the potential to enhance NMT's income stream. One such credit, which was issued by the Massachusetts Development Finance Agency with an AAA rating, carried GNMA collateral and provided a 6.5% yield. Another GNMA-collateralized issue added in the past year was the Haskell House, an assisted living facility in Boston. Additions such as these increased the Fund's multifamily housing allocation to 17% from 12% in May 2000. We also found value in the health care sector, where change has created opportunities in selected hospital issues. One of our purchases in this sector involved bonds issued by the Massachusetts Health and Educational Facilities Authority for Partners Healthcare, an AA- credit with very attractive yields. This is an area where the expertise of Nuveen research analysts has been instrumental in helping us find and understand the credits offering the best upside potential for our Funds.

In NOM, we adapted our management strategies as market conditions changed over the past twelve months. While interest rates were relatively high, we took advantage of opportunities to add higher-yielding paper with the potential to enhance the Fund's income stream. To finance these purchases, we sold some bonds at a loss, enabling us to realize capital losses that can be used to offset any realized gains in future years. As interest rates declined, we became somewhat more defensive, watching for securities that would help us lock in the gains achieved during the market rally, manage the Fund's duration, and enhance call protection. NOM also benefited from selective investments in the healthcare sector, especially among hospitals, as credit spreads tightened during the period. One of the recent additions to our portfolio were Texas County Memorial Hospital bonds, an issue that featured high yields and subsequently rose in price, boosting the Fund's total return.

All four of these older Nuveen Funds continued to offer excellent credit quality, with between 77% and 92% of their portfolios invested in bonds rated AAA/U.S. guaranteed and AA as of May 31, 2001. These Funds also had allocations of BBB and non-rated bonds that ranged from 7% to 18%, which generally provided higher yields during 2000.

In January 2001, we introduced Nuveen Dividend Advantage Municipal Funds for Connecticut (NFC) and Massachusetts (NMB). As of May 31, 2001, both of these Funds were fully invested and paying monthly dividends for shareholders. In structuring NFC's portfolio, our purchases focused on high-grade Connecticut general obligation bonds offering good call protection. While Connecticut supply rose significantly in the first few months of 2001, many of the bonds available in the marketplace offered shorter maturities than we prefer to buy. As a result, we purchased a number of Puerto Rico bonds that we plan to replace with Connecticut issues as we find better opportunities in the market.

In NMB, we concentrated on finding issues that would add to the new Fund's diversification and enhance its yield, focusing primarily on education and tax-backed credits. We also made several purchases of lower-rated investment-grade bonds in the healthcare sector, including BBB bonds issued by the University of Massachusetts Medical Center in Worcester, which offered a 6.63% yield.

WHAT IS YOUR OUTLOOK FOR THE MUNICIPAL MARKET IN GENERAL AND THESE NUVEEN FUNDS IN PARTICULAR?

Overall, our outlook for the fixed-income markets during the next twelve months continues to be positive. Demand for tax-exempt municipal bonds is anticipated to remain strong, as investors look for ways to rebalance their portfolios and reduce potential risk. If interest rates continue to fall and the pace of refundings accelerates, new municipal issuance nationwide in 2001 could exceed $200 billion. Following the relatively small amounts of new municipal supply in both 1999 and 2000, any year-over-year increase in 2001 should still result in supply-and-demand dynamics that support municipal market prices.

Looking specifically at these Nuveen Funds, all four of the older Funds provide good call protection during the remainder of 2001, with between 2% and 9% of the Funds' portfolios subject to calls over the next seven months. In 2002, NOM continues to offer excellent protection, with no scheduled calls. As the Funds approach the 10-year anniversary of their inceptions in 2003, NTC and NMT are already seeing a typical increase in call exposure. During 2002, these two Funds could see 7% to 10% of their portfolios affected by bond calls, depending on market interest rates during this time. In general, these positions are very manageable, and we foresee no problems in working through them.

In NPG specifically, we are beginning to transition from our strategic focus on income to a balanced approach that considers both total return potential and yield, and the Fund should continue to benefit from this.

As newly established funds, NFC and NMB have no scheduled bond calls in 2001 and 2002. While we cannot control the direction of interest rates, we continue to work to reduce the older Funds' call exposure and to actively manage all of the Funds to mitigate the longer-term effects of the bond call process.

In general, we believe that these Nuveen Funds are well positioned for the market environment of the next twelve months. As value-oriented investors, we plan to remain focused on ways we can add value for our shareholders, provide support for the Funds' dividends, and enhance structure. We believe these Nuveen Funds will continue to play an important role in investors' long-range financial programs, providing balance and diversification, dependable tax-free income, and quality investments.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. GENERAL INFORMATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The state Funds (the "Funds") covered in this report and their corresponding stock exchange symbols are Nuveen Connecticut Premium Income Municipal Fund (NTC), Nuveen Connecticut Dividend Advantage Municipal Fund (NFC), Nuveen Georgia Premium Income Municipal Fund (NPG), Nuveen Massachusetts Premium Income Municipal Fund (NMT), Nuveen Massachusetts Dividend Advantage Municipal Fund (NMB) and Nuveen Missouri Premium Income Municipal Fund (NOM). Connecticut Premium Income (NTC) and Massachusetts Premium Income (NMT) are traded on the New York Stock Exchange while Connecticut Dividend Advantage (NFC), Georgia Premium Income (NPG), Massachusetts Dividend Advantage (NMB) and Missouri Premium Income (NOM) are traded on the American Stock Exchange. Prior to the commencement of operations of Connecticut Dividend Advantage (NFC) and Massachusetts Dividend Advantage (NMB), each Fund had no operations other than those related to organizational matters, the initial capital contribution of $100,275 by Nuveen Advisory Corp. (the "Adviser"), a wholly owned subsidiary of The John Nuveen Company and the recording of the organizational expenses ($15,000) and their reimbursement by Nuveen Investments, also a wholly owned subsidiary of The John Nuveen Company.

Each Fund seeks to provide current income exempt from both regular federal and designated state income taxes by investing primarily in a diversified portfolio of municipal obligations issued by state and local government authorities within a single state. The Funds are registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 as closed-end management investment companies.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Funds in the preparation of their financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Securities Valuation

The prices of municipal bonds in each Fund's investment portfolio are provided by a pricing service approved by the Fund's Board of Trustees. When price quotes are not readily available (which is usually the case for municipal securities), the pricing service establishes fair market value based on yields or prices of municipal bonds of comparable quality, type of issue, coupon, maturity and rating, indications of value from securities dealers and general market conditions. Temporary investments in securities that have variable rate and demand features qualifying them as short-term securities are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value.

Securities Transactions

Securities transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. Realized gains and losses from such transactions are determined on the specific identification method. Securities purchased or sold on a when-issued or delayed delivery basis may have extended settlement periods. The securities so purchased are subject to market fluctuation during this period. The Funds have instructed the custodian to segregate assets in a separate account with a current value at least equal to the amount of the when-issued and delayed delivery purchase commitments. At May 31, 2001, Connecticut Premium Income (NTC), Connecticut Dividend Advantage (NFC) and Georgia Premium Income (NPG) had outstanding when-issued and/or delayed delivery purchase commitments of $1,472,162, $5,007,365 and $3,463,577, respectively. There were no such outstanding purchase commitments in any of the other Funds.

Investment Income

Interest income is determined on the basis of interest accrued, adjusted for amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts on long-term debt securities.

Income Taxes

Each Fund is a separate taxpayer for federal income tax purposes. Each Fund intends to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its net investment income to its shareholders. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required. Furthermore, each Fund intends to satisfy conditions which will enable interest from municipal securities, which is exempt from regular federal and designated state income taxes, to retain such tax-exempt status when distributed to shareholders of the Funds. All monthly tax-exempt income dividends paid during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2001, have been designated Exempt Interest Dividends.

Dividends and Distributions to Shareholders

Tax-exempt net investment income is declared monthly as a dividend and payment is made or reinvestment is credited to shareholder accounts on the first business day after month-end. Net realized capital gains and/or market discount from investment transactions, if any, are distributed to shareholders not less frequently than annually. Furthermore, capital gains are distributed only to the extent they exceed available capital loss carryforwards.

Distributions to shareholders of tax-exempt net investment income, net realized capital gains and/or market discount, if any, are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The amount and timing of distributions are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations, which may differ from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Accordingly, temporary over-distributions as a result of these differences may occur and will be classified as either distributions in excess of net investment income, distributions in excess of net realized gains and/or distributions in excess of net ordinary taxable income from investment transactions, where applicable.

Preferred Shares

The Funds have issued and outstanding $25,000 stated value Preferred shares. Each Fund's Preferred shares are issued in one Series. The dividend rate on each Series may change every seven days, as set by the auction agent. The number of shares outstanding for each Fund is as follows:

	CONNECTICUT PREMIUM INCOME (NTC)	CONNECTICUT DIVIDEND ADVANTAGE (NFC)	GEORGIA PREMIUM INCOME (NPG)	MASSACHUSETTS PREMIUM INCOME (NMT)	MASSACHUSETTS DIVIDEND ADVANTAGE (NMB)
Number of Shares:
Series T	--	780	--	--	600
Series Th	1,532	--	1,112	1,360	--

Effective March 16, 2001, Connecticut Dividend Advantage (NFC) and Massachusetts Dividend Advantage (NMB) issued 780 and 600, respectively, Series T $25,000 stated value Preferred shares.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Funds may invest in certain derivative financial instruments including futures, forward, swap and option contracts, and other financial instruments with similar characteristics. Although the Funds are authorized to invest in such financial instruments, and may do so in the future, they did not make any such investments during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2001.

Custodian Fee Credit

Each Fund has an arrangement with the custodian bank whereby certain custodian fees and expenses are reduced by credits earned on each Fund's cash on deposit with the bank. Such deposit arrangements are an alternative to overnight investments.

Offering Costs

Nuveen Investments has agreed to pay all offering costs (other than the sales load) that exceed $.03 per Common share for Connecticut Dividend Advantage (NFC) and Massachusetts Dividend Advantage (NMB). Connecticut Dividend Advantage's (NFC) and Massachusetts Dividend Advantage's (NMB) share of offering costs ($76,005 and $58,050, respectively) were recorded as a reduction of the proceeds from the sale of common shares.

Costs incurred by Connecticut Dividend Advantage (NFC) and Massachusetts Dividend Advantage (NMB) in connection with their offering of Preferred shares ($339,375 and $293,250, respectively) were recorded as a reduction of the proceeds from the sale of the Preferred shares.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Audit Guide

In November 2000, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) issued a revised version of the AICPA Audit and Accounting Guide for Investment Companies (the "Guide"). The Guide is effective for annual financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2000. It is not anticipated that the adoption of the Guide will have a significant effect on the financial statements.

* Annualized.

 Total Investment Return on Market Value is the combination of reinvested dividend income, reinvested capital gains distributions, if any, and changes in stock price per share. Total Return on Net Asset Value is the combination of reinvested dividend income, reinvested capital gains distributions, if any, and changes in net asset value per share. Total returns are not annualized.

 After custodian fee credit and expense reimbursement, where applicable. + The amounts shown are based on Common share equivalents.

++ Ratios do not reflect the effect of dividend payments to Preferred shareholders; income ratios reflect income earned on assets attributable to Preferred shares.

Build Your Wealth Automatically

Sidebar text:

Nuveen makes reinvesting easy. A phone call is all it takes to set up your reinvestment account.

Nuveen Exchange-Traded Funds Dividend Reinvestment Plan

Your Nuveen Exchange-Traded Fund allows you to conveniently reinvest dividends and/or capital gains distributions in additional fund shares. By choosing to reinvest, you'll be able to invest money regularly and automatically, and watch your investment grow through the power of tax-free compounding. Just like dividends or distributions in cash, there may be times when income or capital gains taxes may be payable on dividends or distributions that are reinvested.

It is important to note that an automatic reinvestment plan does not ensure a profit, nor does it protect you against loss in a declining market.

Easy and convenient

To make recordkeeping easy and convenient, each month you'll receive a statement showing your total dividends and distributions, the date of investment, the shares acquired and the price per share, and the total number of shares you own.

How shares are purchased

The shares you acquire by reinvesting will either be purchased on the open market or newly issued by the Fund. If the shares are trading at or above net asset value at the time of valuation, the Fund will issue new shares at the then-current market price. If the shares are trading at less than net asset value, shares for your account will be purchased on the open market. Dividends and distributions received to purchase shares in the open market will normally be invested shortly after the dividend payment date. No interest will be paid on dividends and distributions awaiting reinvestment. Because the market price of shares may increase before purchases are completed, the average purchase price per share may exceed the market price at the time of valuation, resulting in the acquisition of fewer shares than if the dividend or distribution had been paid in shares issued by the Fund. A pro rata portion of any applicable brokerage commissions on open market purchases will be paid by Plan participants. These commissions usually will be lower than those charged on individual transactions.

Flexibility

You may change your distribution option or withdraw from the Plan at any time, should your needs or situation change. Should you withdraw, you can receive a certificate for all whole shares credited to your reinvestment account and cash payment for fractional shares, or cash payment for all reinvestment account shares, less brokerage commissions and a $2.50 service fee.

You can reinvest whether your shares are registered in your name, or in the name of a brokerage firm, bank, or other nominee. Ask your investment advisor if his or her firm will participate on your behalf. Participants whose shares are registered in the name of one firm may not be able to transfer the shares to another firm and continue to participate in the Plan.

The Fund reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time. Although the Fund reserves the right to amend the Plan to include a service charge payable by the participants, there is no direct service charge to participants in the Plan at this time.
