NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Unaudited)

A. GENERAL

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of Gibraltar Packaging Group, Inc. (Gibraltar or the Company) have been prepared in accordance with Rule 10-01 of Regulation S-X for interim financial statements required to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and do not include all information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. However, in the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary to present fairly the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2003, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the periods presented herein. Results of operations for the three and six months ended December 31, 2003 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full fiscal year. The financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements for the year ended June 28, 2003 and the notes thereto contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

B. INVENTORIES

Inventories consisted of the following (In thousands):

Pre-tax stock-based employee compensation expense related to the 1998 Stock Appreciation Rights Plan of $15,000 for the second quarter and six months ended December 31, 2002 is reflected in net income for fiscal 2003. The expense reported in net income under APB Opinion No. 25 is the same as under FASB Statement No. 123. In accordance with APB Opinion No. 25, there is no stock-based employee compensation cost associated with any option plan as of December 31, 2003, as all options granted under those plans had an exercise price equal to the market value of the underlying common stock on the date of the grant. Additionally, all outstanding options became fully vested prior to the periods presented. At December 31, 2003, the stock option exercise prices for all options outstanding under the 1992 Plan and Directors Plan exceeded the market value of the Company's common stock and, therefore, the options are considered anti-dilutive and are excluded from the Company's earnings per share calculation.

D. RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In January 2003, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (FIN 46). FIN 46 requires a variable interest entity to be consolidated by a company if that company is subject to a majority of the risk of loss from the variable interest entity's activities or entitled to receive a majority of the entity's residual returns or both. FIN 46 also requires disclosures about variable interest entities that a company is not required to consolidate but in which it has a significant variable interest. The consolidation requirements of FIN 46 apply immediately to variable interest entities created after January 31, 2003. The consolidation requirements apply to existing entities in the first fiscal year or interim period beginning after December 15, 2003. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this interpretation will have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations, as the Company has no variable interest entities.

GIBRALTAR PACKAGING GROUP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Unaudited)

In December 2003, the FASB revised Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 132, Employers' Disclosures About Pensions and Other Postretirement Benefits, amending FASB Statements No. 87, 88 and 106. FASB Statement No. 132 requires additional disclosures regarding the assets, obligations, cash flows and net periodic benefit costs of defined benefit pension plans and other defined benefit post-retirement plans. FASB Statement No. 132 is effective for interim periods beginning after December 15, 2003 and fiscal years ending after December 15, 2003.

E. COMPREHENSIVE INCOME

Comprehensive income for the three and six months ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 was the same as net income.

F. RECLASSIFICATION

Certain amounts in the fiscal 2003 financial statements have been reclassified to conform with the fiscal 2004 presentation.

GIBALTAR PACKAGING GROUP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIESItem 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations*Results of Operations

Three Months Ended December 31, 2003 Compared to Three Months Ended December 31, 2002

In the second quarter of fiscal 2004, the Company had net sales of $14.6 million compared with $17.5 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2003, a decrease of $2.9 million or 16.5%. As discussed in previous filings, business from two major customers was lost in the latter part of fiscal 2003. $1.5 million of the decrease in sales represents the loss of a substantial part of the business from these two customers for this time period. The remaining decrease is attributed to additional losses experienced in other accounts, partially offset by additional business from new and existing customers.

Gross profit for the second quarter of fiscal 2004 decreased to 16.4% of net sales from 19.8% in the corresponding period of fiscal 2003. Cost reductions of $0.4 million from reducing labor costs were offset by spreading fixed costs over a smaller revenue base and higher material costs from changes in customer mix. Fixed costs remained level, as slightly higher lease costs associated with equipment acquired during the last twelve months were offset by reductions in various other costs.

Income from operations for the second quarter of fiscal 2004 was $1.0 million compared with $1.5 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2003, a decrease of $0.5 million or 34.6%. This decrease is primarily the result of lower sales, partially offset by $0.5 million in insurance proceeds related to the embezzlement discovered in fiscal 2003, as previously disclosed in the fiscal 2003 Form 10-K. During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2003, the Company determined that approximately $0.5 million had been embezzled over a period of seven years. The insurance claim was settled in full, net of the Company's deductible.

Total interest expense decreased $0.1 million or 29.5% to $0.2 million in the second quarter of fiscal 2004 from $0.3 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2003. This decrease is the result of $4.4 million in lower average borrowings and a reduction in average interest rates to 4.4% from 5.0%.

The income tax provision as a percentage of pre-tax income for the second quarter of fiscal 2004 was 37.9%, compared with an income tax provision of 40.0% for the corresponding period in fiscal 2003.

Net income for the second quarter of fiscal 2004 was $0.5 million or $0.10 per share, compared to $0.8 million or $0.15 per share in the second quarter of fiscal 2003.

Six Months Ended December 31, 2003 Compared to Six Months Ended December 31, 2002

In the first six months of fiscal 2004, the Company had net sales of $31.6 million compared with $34.8 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2003, a decrease of $3.2 million or 9.2%. As discussed in previous filings, business from two major customers was lost in the latter part of fiscal 2003. $1.3

Edgar Filing: GIBALTAR PACKAGING GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

Gross profit for the first six months of fiscal 2004 decreased to 17.6% of net sales from 19.8% in the corresponding period of fiscal 2003. Cost reductions of $0.6 million from reducing labor costs were offset by spreading slightly higher fixed costs over a smaller revenue base and higher material costs from changes in customer mix. Fixed costs were slightly higher, as additional lease costs of $0.1 million associated with equipment acquired during the last twelve months were partially offset by reductions in various other costs.

Income from operations for the first six months of fiscal 2004 was $2.3 million compared with $3.0 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2003, a decrease of $0.6 million or 21.1%. This decrease is primarily the result of lower sales, partially offset by lower outside services and compensation costs in selling, general and administrative and $0.5 million in insurance proceeds related to the embezzlement discovered in fiscal 2003, as previously disclosed in the fiscal 2003 Form 10-K. During the fourth quarter of fiscal 2003, the Company determined that approximately $0.5 million had been embezzled over a period of seven years. The insurance claim was settled in full, net of the Company's deductible.

Total interest expense decreased $0.1 million or 28.1% to $0.4 million in the first six months of fiscal 2004 from $0.5 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2003. This decrease is the result of $3.7 million in lower average borrowings and a reduction in average interest rates to 4.5% from 5.2%.

The income tax provision as a percentage of pre-tax income for the first six months of fiscal 2004 was 38.0%, compared with an income tax provision of 40.0% for the corresponding period in fiscal 2003.

Net income for the first six months of fiscal 2004 was $1.2 million or $0.24 per share, compared to $1.4 million or $0.29 per share in the first quarter of fiscal 2003.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of December 31, 2003, the Company's credit facility is scheduled to mature within the next twelve months, and thus has been classified as current in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The Company is currently in negotiations with the current lender, and expects to secure a new credit facility in the near term. The Company's financial condition remains strong and has an unused borrowing capacity of $4.2 million on its revolving credit facility, as of December 31, 2003.

Historically, the Company's liquidity requirements have been met by a combination of funds provided by operations and its revolving credit agreements. As a result of the credit facility being classified as current, the Company's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by $6.0 million, as of December 31, 2003, as compared to its current assets exceeding its current liabilities by $5.4 million, as of June 28 2003. Funds provided by operations during the six months ended December 31, 2003 were $2.8 million compared with funds provided of $2.3 million in the corresponding period of fiscal 2003.

GIBALTAR PACKAGING GROUP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

During the six months ended December 31, 2003, capital expenditures totaled $0.3 million compared with $0.8 in the corresponding period of fiscal 2003. The Company makes capital improvements to increase efficiency and product quality, and periodically upgrades its equipment by purchasing or leasing new or previously used equipment. The Company anticipates that it will incur approximately $0.7 million in capital expenditures during the remainder of fiscal 2004, and that these expenditures will be funded by operations and its revolving credit facility.

The Company's on-going strategy is to continue to focus its efforts on its core business of folding cartons, as well as the supporting product lines of flexible, litho-laminated, and corrugated products. The Company intends to expand these product lines by utilizing the maximum capacity at each facility, while continually identifying, researching, and, when applicable, implementing new technologies and equipment that will enable the Company to continue to improve performance, productivity, and profitability. As part of this process, the Company has added, and has made commitments on, new equipment that adds capacity and lowers production costs, as well as enables the Company to enter into new markets.

Under the current strategy, management believes that future funds generated by operations and borrowings available under its credit facility will be sufficient to meet working capital and capital expenditure requirements in the near term.

Edgar Filing: GIBRALTAR PACKAGING GROUP INC - Form 10-Q

On December 20, 2001, the Company entered into a three-year renewable credit facility with LaSalle Business Credit, Inc (LaSalle). This facility provides for an $11.6 million Term Loan, a $4.0 million Special Advance Loan, and a $12.0 million working capital revolving line-of-credit (Revolver). The Term Loan and Special Advance Loan are to be repaid over seven years, but are callable after three years. The Special Advance Loan was repaid in April 2003. Until the Special Advance Loan was repaid, only monthly interest payments were applied against the Term Loan. Since repayment of the Special Advance Loan, monthly principal payments of $169,897 plus interest are applied against the Term Loan. The credit facility is secured by a first priority perfected security interest in and lien on all assets (real and personal, tangible and intangible) of the Company, excluding its Burlington, North Carolina property.

The Revolver provides for a revolving line of credit under a borrowing base commitment subject to certain loan availability requirements. Loan availability under the Revolver may not exceed the lesser of: (1) $12.0 million; or (2) the sum of (a) 85% of the Company's eligible accounts receivable plus (b) a percentage of the Company's eligible inventory which ranges from 35% to 70%. At no time may the sum of aggregated loan advances outstanding under the Revolver plus the aggregate amount of extended letter of credit guarantees exceed loan availability.

The Revolver bears interest at LaSalle's prime rate plus 0.50% or the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 2.75%. The Term Loan bears interest at LaSalle's prime rate plus 0.75% or LIBOR plus 3.00%. The Company also pays a commitment fee of 0.50% on the unused portion of the Revolver. The interest rates at December 31, 2003 were a combination of prime and LIBOR. LaSalle's prime and LIBOR rates were 4.00% and 1.16%, respectively, at December 31, 2003.

As of December 31, 2003, all outstanding letters of credit were guaranteed by LaSalle. The Company pays an annual letter of credit fee of 2.00% on the outstanding balance to guarantee availability under the Revolver. Outstanding letters of credit at December 31, 2003 amounted to $147,500 and related to workman's compensation insurance policies.

The LaSalle credit facility contains certain restrictive covenants including financial covenants related to net worth, debt service coverage, interest coverage and capital expenditures. As of December 31, 2003, the Company was in compliance with all financial covenants. In addition, the Company's credit facility restricts the ability of the Company to pay dividends.

Contractual Obligations and Commercial Commitments

The Company has contractual obligations and commercial commitments that may affect its financial condition. Based on management's assessment of the underlying provisions and circumstances of the material contractual obligations and commercial commitments of the Company, including material off-balance sheet and structured finance arrangements, there is no known trend, demand, commitment, event or uncertainty that is reasonably likely to occur which would have a material effect on the Company's financial condition or results of operations. The following tables identify material obligations and commitments as of December 31, 2003:

Critical Accounting Policies

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) requires the Company to select and apply accounting policies that best provide the framework to report the Company's results of operations and financial position. The selection and application of those policies require management to make difficult subjective or complex judgments concerning reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. The judgments and uncertainties inherent in this process affect the application of those policies. As a result, there exists the likelihood that materially different amounts would be reported under different conditions or using different assumptions. Management has identified the following accounting policies that it deems critical to the portrayal of the Company's financial condition and results of operations and that involve significant subjectivity. Management believes that its selection and application of these policies best represent the operating results and financial position of the Company. The following discussion provides information on the processes utilized by management in making judgments and assumptions as they apply to its critical accounting policies.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

The allowance for doubtful accounts is based on management's assessment of the collectibility of specific customer accounts and the aging of the accounts receivable. If there is a deterioration of a customer's credit worthiness or actual defaults are higher than historical experience, estimates of the recoverability of amounts due the Company could be adversely affected.

Income Taxes

The Company records deferred tax assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates for the effect of temporary differences between the book and tax basis of assets and liabilities. If enacted tax rates changed, the Company would adjust the deferred tax assets and liabilities, through the provision for income taxes in the period of change, to reflect the enacted tax rate expected to be in effect when the deferred tax items reverse. The Company records a valuation allowance on deferred tax assets to reflect the expected future tax benefits to be realized. In determining the appropriate valuation allowance, the Company takes into account the level of expected future taxable income and available tax planning strategies. If future taxable income was lower than expected or if expected tax planning strategies were not available as anticipated, the Company may record additional valuation allowance through income tax expense in the period such determination was made.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company's long-lived assets consist primarily of property, plant and equipment. Management believes the useful lives assigned to these assets, which range from 2 to 40 years, are reasonable. Management evaluates the long-lived assets for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate, in management's judgment, that the carrying value of such assets may not be recoverable. If management's assumptions about these assets change as a result of events or circumstances, and management believes the assets may have declined in value, then the Company may record impairment charges, resulting in lower profits.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets

The Company is required to make certain assumptions and estimates regarding the fair value of intangible assets, namely goodwill, when assessing such assets for impairment. Changes in the fact patterns underlying such assumptions and estimates could ultimately result in the recognition of impairment losses on intangible assets.

Pension Assets and Liabilities

In order to measure pension expense as well as the related assets and liabilities, management must make a variety of estimates including discount rates used to measure the present value of certain liabilities, assumed rates of return on assets set aside to fund the expenses, employee turnover rates, and anticipated mortality rates. The estimates used by management are based on the Company's historical experience as well as current facts and circumstances. The Company uses third-party specialists to assist management in appropriately measuring the expense associated with the plan. Different estimates used by management could result in the Company recognizing different amounts of expense over different periods of time.

Contingent Liabilities

From time to time, there are various claims and lawsuits pending against the Company. The Company records a liability when the effect of litigation can be estimated and when an outcome is considered probable. Management's estimates are based on its knowledge of the relevant facts at the time of the issuance of the Company's consolidated financial statements. Subsequent developments could materially alter management's assessment of a matter's probable outcome and the estimate of the Company's liability.

Environmental Issues

The Company records its environmental liabilities when site assessments or remedial actions are probable and a range of reasonably likely cleanup costs can be estimated. The Company reviews its sites and assesses the liability quarterly, by assessing a range of reasonably likely costs for each identified site using currently available information, including existing technology, current laws and regulations and the probable level of involvement and financial condition of other potentially responsible parties. These estimates include costs for site investigations, remediation, operations and maintenance, monitoring and site closure.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (FIN 46). FIN 46 requires a variable interest entity to be consolidated by a company if that company is subject to a majority of the risk of loss from the variable interest entity's activities or entitled to receive a majority of the entity's residual returns or both. FIN 46 also requires disclosures about variable interest entities that a company is not required to consolidate but in which it has a significant variable interest. The consolidation requirements of FIN 46 apply immediately to variable interest entities created after January 31, 2003. The consolidation requirements apply to existing entities in the first fiscal year or interim period beginning after December 15, 2003. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this interpretation will have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations, as the Company has no variable interest entities.

In December 2003, the FASB revised Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 132, Employers' Disclosures About Pensions and Other Postretirement Benefits, amending FASB Statements No. 87, 88 and 106. FASB Statement No. 132 requires additional disclosures regarding the assets, obligations, cash flows and net periodic benefit costs of defined benefit pension plans and other defined benefit post-retirement plans. FASB Statement No. 132 is effective for interim periods beginning after December 15, 2003 and fiscal years ending after December 15, 2003.

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about our confidence in the Company's prospects and strategies and our expectations about the Company's sales expansion, are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: (1) softened demand for the Company's products due to overall economic conditions; (2) the Company's ability to obtain new business to replace lost business; (3) the Company's ability to execute its business plan; (4) market acceptance risks, including whether or not the Company will be able to successfully gain market share against competitors, many of which have greater financial and other resources than the Company, and the continuing trend of customers to increase their buying power by consolidating the number of vendors they maintain; (5) the Company's ability to refinance its debt; (6) manufacturing capacity constraints, including whether or not, as the Company increases its sales, it will be able to successfully integrate its new customers into its existing manufacturing and distribution system; (7) the introduction of competing products by other firms; (8) pressure on pricing from competition or purchasers of the Company's products; (9) whether the Company will be able to pass on to its customers price increases for paper and paperboard products; (10) continued stability in other raw material prices, including oil-based resin and plastic film; (11) the impact of government regulation on the Company's manufacturing processes, including whether or not additional capital expenditures will be needed to comply with applicable environmental laws and regulations as the Company's production increases; (12) the Company's ability to continue to comply with the restrictive covenants in its credit facility or to obtain waivers if it is not in compliance in the future; (13) the Company's ability to upgrade its existing equipment when necessary; and (14) the Company's ability to recover from any potential terrorist attack. Investors and potential investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which reflect the Company's analysis only as of the date of this report. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly revise these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that arise after the date of this report. These risks and others that are detailed in this Form 10-Q and other documents that the Company files from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including annual reports on Form 10-K and any current reports on Form 8-K, must be considered by any investor or potential investor in the Company.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

The Company's primary market risk is fluctuation in interest rates. The vast majority of the Company's debt at December 31, 2003 was at variable interest rates. A hypothetical 10% change in interest rates would have had a $14,000 impact on interest expense and cash flows for the three months ended December 31, 2003.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

The Company's Chief Executive Officer, Walter E. Rose, and Vice President Finance, Brett E. Moller, have reviewed the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of December 31, 2003. Based upon this review, these officers believe that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective in ensuring that material information related to the Company is made known to them by others responsible for reporting such material information within the Company.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

From time to time, the Company is a party to certain lawsuits and administrative proceedings that arise in the conduct of its business. While the outcome of these lawsuits and proceedings cannot be predicted with certainty, management believes that, if adversely determined, the lawsuits and proceedings, either singularly or in the aggregate, would not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition, results of operations or net cash flows of the Company.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

At the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders on November 12, 2003 a total of 4,842,084 shares, or 96.04%, of outstanding shares were represented and entitled to vote.
