Does Ceridian have to reach certain financial benchmarks before the sale is complete? As an example, will we have to reduce operating expenses by a certain percentage?

There are no such conditions in the merger agreement.

What [complementary skills] do THL Partners and Fidelity National Financial offer that will help Ceridian enhance value to our customers?

THL Partners and FNF have invested in many large business-to-business companies and as a result bring a great deal of experience in the financing and operating of companies such as Ceridian. Both firms also have a number of potential customer relationships that Ceridian could leverage.

Will we still have Sarbanes-Oxley compliance requirements once we are a private company?

As a private company, we will not be subject to some of the regulatory and administrative requirements, including some related to Sarbanes-Oxley, that are associated with being a public company.

Will we continue to operate under the Ceridian name in both Canada and the U.S.?

We do not have plans to change our name at this time.
