Item 5. Other Events and Regulation FD Disclosure.

On July 16, 2004, Hallwood Realty Partners, L.P. (the "Partnership") completed a merger with a wholly-owned subsidiary of HRPT Properties Trust ("HRPT"). In connection with the merger, The Hallwood Group Incorporated ("Hallwood") and affiliates sold 330,432 units of limited partnership interests and the general partner interest in the Partnership and other related interests for a total cash price of approximately $66,000,000. Hallwood agreed to have the amount it received with respect to its units reduced by its pro rata share of the attorneys' fees or other amounts awarded by the Delaware Court of Chancery in connection with litigation in the Court of Chancery, styled I.G. Holdings, Inc., et al., v. Hallwood Realty LLC, et al. (C.A. No. 20283), even though Hallwood and its affiliates are not members of the putative class for whose purported benefit the litigation was commenced. The Court has not yet determined whether any amounts will be withheld or the extent of any such withholding. In addition, the amount paid will be subject to any required income tax withholding. Of the amount received by Hallwood, $18,500,000 has been placed in escrow until the earlier to occur of 12 months from the closing of the transactions, the final determination of any claims by unitholders relating to the tender offer by High River Limited Partnership or the merger, or release from escrow under other specified circumstances.

The escrow agreement relating to the escrowed amount is attached to this report as Exhibit 2.1.
