ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

On April 25, 2002, Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), issued a press release announcing that the Company's drilling rig the Ocean Baroness had experienced a parting of its marine riser during operations offshore Malaysia on April 22, 2002. The drilling unit is undamaged, and currently known damage is limited to subsurface elements of the riser. The Company is currently in consultation with the riser manufacturer, its customer and several contractors in order to develop a recovery and repair plan. At this time, the Company cannot be definitive about the duration of its recovery and remediation efforts. Filed herewith is such press release.

Statements in this report that contain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, may include, but are not limited to, statements regarding the current term, operating dates and periods of inactivity of the Company's drilling rigs and comments concerning future contracts and availability, insurance, actual or potential damage, recovery and remediation efforts and other aspects of the Company's drilling rigs. Such statements are inherently subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated or projected. A discussion of the risk factors that could impact these areas and the Company's overall business and financial performance can be found in the Company's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These factors include, among others, general economic and business conditions, casualty losses, industry fleet capacity, changes in foreign and domestic oil and gas exploration and production activity, competition, changes in foreign, political, social and economic conditions, regulatory initiatives and compliance with governmental regulations, customer preferences and various other matters, many of which are beyond the Company's control. Given these concerns, investors and analysts should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Each forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of this report, and the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements.
