The Reporting Persons have engaged in communications, and intend to engage in further communications, with one or more officers of the Company and/or one or more members of the board of directors of the Company, and may also engage in communications with one or more shareholders of the Company, regarding a potential acquisition by the Reporting Persons of substantially all of the assets of the Company, excluding the assets of the Company's property and casualty holding company, NLASCO, Inc., for approximately $1.84 billion in cash (the Transaction). The Company has also agreed in the Exclusivity Agreement that, during the Exclusivity Period, it will not, among other things, solicit any proposal for, or (subject to certain exemptions) participate in discussions relating to, an alternative transaction. A termination fee of $2,500,000, and expense reimbursement of up to $1,250,000, is payable by the Company to Farallon (or its designee) if the Company violates in any material respect its obligations under the Exclusivity Agreement or if (A) either (x) the Company terminates the Exclusivity Period in accordance with its fiduciary termination right (and prior to such termination Farallon was in compliance with its obligation under the Exclusivity Agreement to work in good faith to negotiate the Transaction) or (y) within 48 hours after the end of the Exclusivity Period, Farallon has executed and tendered an acquisition agreement to the Company that is on terms no less favorable than the Transaction and the Company fails to execute such agreement within 24 hours after receipt of that agreement and (B) within four months following expiration of the Exclusivity Period, the Company consummates, or enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, and thereafter consummates, an alternative transaction.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Farallon Capital Management, L.L.C. and certain funds and accounts managed by Farallon Capital Management, L.L.C. (Farallon) and Affordable Residential Communities Inc. (the Company) are currently exploring the feasibility of a business acquisition transaction involving Farallon and the Company on economic and other material terms which the parties have discussed (the Transaction). As an inducement to each party continuing to pursue the Transaction, the Company and Farallon agree to work in good faith to negotiate the Transaction with each other on an exclusive basis during the period commencing on the date hereof and extending through the date that is the earliest of (i) 11:59 p.m. (New York City time) on April 16, 2007, or such later date as Farallon and the Company may agree in writing, (ii) the date on which the parties execute a definitive agreement for a Transaction and (iii) the date the Exclusivity Period is terminated by the Company in accordance with the fifth paragraph hereof (such period, the Exclusivity Period).

The Company further agrees that, during the Exclusivity Period, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries nor any of its and their respective directors or officers shall, and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and its subsidiaries' employees, agents and representatives, including any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other advisor, agent, representative or controlled affiliate (collectively, Representatives) not to, directly or indirectly through another person, (i) solicit, initiate, encourage or facilitate any Takeover Proposal (as defined below) or the making or consummation thereof from any person or entity other than Farallon and its affiliates and representatives, (ii) enter into, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any information in connection with, or otherwise cooperate in any way with, any Takeover Proposal or (iii) waive, terminate, modify or fail to enforce any provision of any standstill or similar obligation of any person other than Farallon. Without limiting the foregoing, it is agreed that any material violation of the restrictions set forth in the preceding sentence with respect to any Representative of the Company or any of its subsidiaries shall be a breach of this letter agreement by the Company. The Company shall, and shall cause its subsidiaries and its and their directors and officers to, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and their Representatives to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated all existing discussions or negotiations with any person conducted heretofore with respect to any Takeover Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in response to a bona fide written Takeover Proposal that the Board of Directors of the Company reasonably determines (after consultation with its legal advisors and its financial advisors) is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, and which Takeover Proposal was made after the date hereof and did not result from a breach of this letter agreement, the Company may, subject to compliance with this letter agreement, (x) furnish information with respect to the Company and its subsidiaries to the person making such Takeover Proposal (and its Representatives) pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement, provided that all such information has previously been provided to Farallon or is provided to Farallon prior to or substantially concurrent with the time it is provided to such person, and (y) participate in discussions or negotiations with the person making such Takeover Proposal (and its Representatives) regarding such Takeover Proposal.

The term "Takeover Proposal" means any inquiry, proposal or offer from any person relating to, or that would reasonably be likely to lead to, (i) any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase, in one transaction or a series of related transactions, of assets (including equity securities of any subsidiary of the Company) or businesses of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or any equity securities of the Company (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, in connection with the issuance or exercise of employee options), (ii) any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 10% or more of any class of equity securities of the Company, or (iii) any merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, joint venture, share exchange or similar transaction involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, in connection with the issuance or exercise of employee options or an internal reorganization), in each case other than the Transaction contemplated by this letter agreement.

The term "Superior Proposal" means any bona fide offer made by a third party that if consummated would result in such person (or its stockholders) owning, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of the common stock of the Company then outstanding (or of the shares of the surviving entity in a merger or the ultimate parent of the surviving entity in a merger) or all or substantially all Sale Assets which the Board of Directors of the Company reasonably determines (after consultation with its legal advisors and its financial advisors), taking into account all financial, legal, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal and the person making the proposal, (i) to be (A) more favorable to the stockholders of the Company from a financial point of view than the Transaction contemplated by this letter agreement after taking into account the then outstanding proposal of Farallon (including any modifications made by Farallon pursuant to the next paragraph or otherwise) and (B) reasonably capable of being completed on the terms set forth in the proposal and (ii) for which financing, to the extent required, is reasonably likely to be obtained.

The Company agrees that, during the Exclusivity Period, neither the Board of Directors of the Company nor any committee thereof shall approve, adopt or recommend, or publicly propose to approve, adopt or recommend, or allow the Company or any of its subsidiaries to execute or enter into, any binding letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement, or other similar contract with respect to a Takeover Proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement referred to above) or any tender offer constituting or related to, any Takeover Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors of the Company may, in response to a Takeover Proposal that the Board reasonably determines (after consultation with its legal advisors and its financial advisors) is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal and that was made after the date hereof and that did not otherwise result from a breach of this letter agreement, terminate the Exclusivity Period; provided, that the Company shall not be entitled to exercise its right to terminate the Exclusivity Period as provided under this sentence unless the Company has: (A) complied in all material respects with this letter agreement, (B) provided to Farallon three business days prior written notice (such notice, a Notice of Superior Proposal) advising Farallon that the Board of Directors of the Company intends to take such action and specifying the reasons therefor, including the terms and conditions of any Superior Proposal that is the basis of the proposed action by the Board of Directors (it being understood and agreed that any material amendment to the financial terms or any other material term of any such Superior Proposal shall require a new Notice of Superior Proposal and an additional two business day period), (C) provided to Farallon all materials and information delivered or made available to the person or group of persons making any Superior Proposal in connection with such Superior Proposal, (D) during such three business day period (or two business day period in the case of an amendment), if requested by Farallon, engaged in good faith negotiations with Farallon to propose terms of a potential Transaction such that any Takeover Proposal which was determined to constitute a Superior Proposal no longer is a Superior Proposal, and (E) at the end of such three business day period (or two business day period in the case of an amendment), such Takeover Proposal has not been withdrawn and continues to constitute a Superior Proposal (after giving effect to any terms of a proposed Transaction that may be proposed by Farallon following a Notice of Superior Proposal, as a result of the negotiations required by clause (D) or otherwise).

In addition to the obligations of the Company set above, the Company shall as promptly as practicable (and in any event within 24 hours after receipt) advise Farallon orally and in writing of any Takeover Proposal and the material terms and conditions of any such Takeover Proposal (including any changes thereto). The Company shall keep Farallon informed on a reasonably current basis of material developments with respect to any such Takeover Proposal.

If prior to the end of the Exclusivity Period, the Company violates in any material respect its obligations set forth above, then the Company shall promptly (and in any event, within 48 hours of such breach) pay to Farallon (or its designees) a fee of $2,500,000 (the Termination Fee) and the Farallon Expenses (as defined below), each by wire transfer of immediately available funds. If (A) either (x) the Exclusivity Period is terminated by the Company in accordance with the fifth paragraph hereof (and prior to such termination Farallon was in compliance with its obligation hereunder to work in good faith to negotiate the Transaction) or (y) within 48 hours after the end of the Exclusivity Period, Farallon has executed and tendered an acquisition agreement to the Company that is on terms no less favorable than the Transaction and the Company fails to execute such agreement within 24 hours after receipt of that agreement and (B) within four months after the end of the Exclusivity Period, the Company or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, a Qualifying Transaction, then concurrently with such execution or consummation, the Company shall pay to Farallon (or its designees) the Termination Fee and the Farallon Expenses, each by wire transfer of immediately available funds. In no event shall the Company be required under this letter agreement to pay the Termination Fee or the Farallon Expenses more than once. Payment of the Termination Fee and the Farallon Expenses shall constitute liquidated damages and will constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of Farallon for any and all damages arising under or in connection with any breach of this letter agreement. As used herein, Farallon Expenses means all reasonable and documented expenses (including all fees and expenses of financing sources, counsel, accountants, investment bankers, experts and consultants) incurred by or on behalf of Farallon or its affiliates or potential co-investors in connection with the consideration, negotiation or documentation of, or otherwise in connection with, a potential Transaction, up to a maximum of $1,250,000 in the aggregate.

The term Qualifying Transaction means (i) any direct or indirect acquisition or purchase, in one transaction or a series of related transactions, of more than 50% of the assets of the Company (including equity securities of any subsidiary of the Company) other than NLASCO (the "Sale Assets") or more than 50% of the equity securities of the Company (excluding for the avoidance of doubt in connection with the issuance or exercise of employee options), (ii) any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 50% or more of any class of equity securities of the Company, (iii) any merger, consolidation, business combination, liquidation, dissolution, share exchange or similar transaction involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, in connection with the issuance or exercise of employee options or an internal reorganization) or (iv) any joint venture involving 50% or more of the Sale Assets or recapitalization resulting in gross proceeds of $280 million or more, in each case other than the Transaction contemplated by this letter agreement.

This letter agreement may not be assigned by any party hereto by operation of law or otherwise without the express prior written consent of the other parties hereto; provided that Farallon may assign its rights under this letter agreement to any person formed for the purpose of effecting a Transaction or to any of its joint venture partners. This letter agreement may not be amended or modified except by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties hereto. This letter agreement may be executed in counterparts and shall be governed by the internal laws of the State of New York. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event any provision of this letter agreement was not performed in accordance with the terms hereof, that the parties hereto shall be entitled to specific performance of the terms hereof, in addition to any other remedy at law or equity and that any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy is hereby waived.
