TAT Technologies Ltd. Announces That its Board of Directors has Approved the Formation of a New Subsidiary That Will Hold all of the Assets of its Aviation Equipment Manufacturing and Repair Businesses

Tuesday March 18, 10:31 am ET

GEDERA, Israel, March 18 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- TAT Technologies Limited (NASDAQ: TATTF - News) today announced that on March 16, 2008, the Board of Directors of the Company approved the formation of a new wholly-owned subsidiary that will focus on the manufacture and repair of aviation related equipment and aircraft accessories. The Company will transfer all of its assets, rights, equipment, intangible assets, operations, liabilities and goodwill relating to this business activity to the new subsidiary. The completion of the transfer of assets will be contingent upon the transfer and assignment of key permits used by the Company in connection with its operations, as well as the procurement of certain approvals and permits from Israeli authorities with respect to the transfer of employees, and the transfer to the new subsidiary of the Company's existing tax benefits. The company expects that such transfer will be exempt from tax under the Israeli Tax Ordinance. as long as the Company and its new subsidiary will comply with the following requirements in connection with dispositions of the assets and issuances of the subsidiary's shares to third parties:

(a) For two years from the consummation of the transfer the Company will not dispose of more than 10% of its holdings in the new subsidiary (subject to dilution of Company's holdings in the the subsidiary of up to 51% as a result of a public offering of the subsidiary taking into account dilution under sub-section (c) below));

(b) For two years from the consummation of the transfer, the new subsidiary will not dispose of the assets transferred to it;

(c) For two years from the consummation of the transfer the subsidiary will not issue shares to any third party such that such third party's holdings will exceed 25% of its outstanding share capital.

Mr. Israel Ofen, the Company's Chief Financial Officer stated in connection with the formation of the new subsidiary that:" we believe that the establishment of the new subsidiary is important to the Company as it will enable the Company in
