Introduction

On June 26, 2003, United Energy Corp. ("United Energy" or the "Company"), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended March 31, 2002 (the "2002 Form 10-K"). The information called for by items 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14 of Part III of Form 10-K was not included in the body of the 2002 Form 10-K as filed, but was incorporated by reference to the Company's Proxy Statement which was expected to be filed with the Commission within the 120-day period. Because the Company is not in fact filing its Proxy Statement within such 120 day period, this Form 10-K/A amends the 2002 Form 10-K by deleting therefrom the caption and first paragraph and substituting therefore the following replacements for Items 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14.

Item 10 - Directors and Executive Officers of the Registrant

The following table shows the positions held by the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") and executive officers during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003. Directors are elected annually and serve until the next annual meeting of the Company's stockholders, and until their successors have been elected and have qualified. Officers are appointed to their positions, and continue in such positions, at the discretion of the Directors.

* Resigned from the Company as President and a Director on April 14, 2003.

 Resigned from the Company as a Director on February 5, 2003.

 Term as a Director was not renewed effective with the annual meeting held on November 6, 2002.

Resigned from the Company as a Director and President of the Energy Division on December 31, 2002.

There are no family relationships among Officers and/or Directors.

Ronald Wilen. Since October 1995 Mr. Wilen has been primarily engaged as the Chief Executive Officer of United Energy Corp., serving as its President and as a Director. Mr. Wilen has also served during the period as the President of Nor Industries, Inc., the principal subsidiary of United Energy. In the period from April 1995 through October 1995, Mr. Wilen was primarily responsible for overseeing the development of the assets which are now part of United Energy, assembling the team of administrative and technical personnel to run United Energy and in arranging for the acquisition of the Company which took place in October 1995. In August 2001, Mr. Wilen resigned as President of the Company and became Chairman of the Board and CEO and a Director of the Company in order to make available the position of President for an experienced marketing executive.

Rodney I. Woods. Mr. Woods has served as President and a Director of the Company since July 2002. Before his present appointment with the Company, Mr. Woods was the Chief Executive Officer of McCormack Advisors International, LLC, a joint venture between Merrill Lynch and International Management Group. Prior to the formation of this investment advisory company, Mr. Woods was First Vice President and National Marketing Manager for the Eastern Sales Division of Merrill Lynch for five years. From 1998 to 1992, Mr. Woods was President and Chief Executive Officer of the Merrill Lynch Trust Company. Before rejoining Merrill Lynch in 1987, Mr. Woods was Senior Vice President and Marketing Director of the United States Trust Company of New York. Mr. Woods resigned from the Company as President and Director on April 14, 2003.

Martin Rappaport. Mr. Rappaport was elected to the Board in June 2001. Mr. Rappaport is self-employed, and develops and manages commercial and residential real estate interests (including office space leased to United Energy), having done so for the past 30 years. He is active with, and a contributor to Blythedale Children's Hospital in Valhalla, New York.

Edgar Filing: UNITED ENERGY CORP /NV/ - Form 10-K/A

Andrea Pampanini. Mr. Pampanini has served as a Director since December 2001. Mr. Pampanini is an organizational advisor with extensive restructuring, marketing and strategic planning experience serving, among other industries, the chemical, petroleum, pharmaceutical, basic metals, electrical equipment, power generation and heavy industrial goods sectors. In 1989, Mr. Pampanini founded Turnaround Associates Inc., a consulting firm specializing in the financial and operational organization of medium to large-sized companies. Since 1998, Mr. Pampanini has been a member of Leadership Strategies LLC, a group of professionals specializing in strategic planning and personal leadership coaching. Mr. Pampanini has devoted a major portion of his career to the Middle East, including serving as Executive Vice President of Development Resources Corporation from 1971 to 1977, during which time he supervised the final phases of the Dez hydroelectric power and irrigation project in Iran.

Sanford M. Kimmel. In May 2002, Mr. Kimmel joined the Company as its Chief Financial Officer. From April 2001 until May 2002, Mr. Kimmel served as Chief Financial Officer of CTB Consulting, Inc., a technology consulting and service company. From July 2000 to March 2001, Mr. Kimmel was Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of QV Trading Systems, Inc., a software development and financial outsource services company. During 1994 to 2000, Mr. Kimmel was Senior Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer of PXRE Group, Ltd., formerly PXRE Corporation.

As of March 31, 2003, there were no persons other than Mr. Wilen that could be deemed either "promoters" or "controlling persons" with respect to United Energy Corp., although all Directors would be deemed to be "affiliates" by virtue of their Board positions.

Significant Employee

Jeffery Langberg. Mr. Langberg has served as the Director of Marketing for the Company since June 2002. Since 1995, Mr. Langberg has been self-employed as a consultant and investment banker, assisting companies in the development and execution of marketing plans, finding key management and specialty consultants and raising early stage equity or debt financing. Mr. Langberg has a Juris Doctor from Fordham Law School and a BS in Economics from the Wharton School of Finance.

-3-

Section 16(A) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires that the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, file reports of ownership on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"). Officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders are required by the Commission's regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Forms 3, 4 and 5 they file.

Based solely on the Company's review of the copies of such forms it has received and written representations from certain reporting persons that they were not required to file reports on Form 5 for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003, the Company believes that all its officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners complied with all filing requirements applicable to them with respect to transactions during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003, except for the following late Form 4 filings: Ronald Wilen (November 2002) and Martin Rappaport (May 2002, November 2002).

Item 11 - Executive Compensation

During the three fiscal years ended March 31, 2003 the Company had no arrangements for the remuneration of its Officers and Directors, except that they were entitled to receive reimbursement for actual, demonstrable out-of-pocket expenses, including travel expenses, if any, made on the Company's behalf. Non-employee directors receive options on 10,000 shares of common stock each year. The Company will pay compensation to the Officers and Directors elected in 2003, if at all, at a rate yet to be determined by the Board.

The following table sets forth the compensation, if any, and the nature of such compensation, received from the Company.

consideration of any director's service, or payment issued to a director for any service, except that Reginald Babcock received $26,851 for the performance of Corporate Secretarial services during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2002.

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2003, the Company entered into the following employment agreements:

Mr. Rodney I. Woods entered into a two year employment agreement with the Company on April 9, 2002. Mr. Woods was elected as a Director and appointed President of the Company at the July 11, 2002 Board meeting. Under the agreement, Mr. Woods has a base salary of $250,000 and is entitled to a bonus of $100,000 payable on April 9, 2003. Mr. Woods was granted 500,000 options to purchase common stock at an exercise price of $1.15 per share, which vests immediately. Mr. Woods has also entered into a Confidentiality, Non-Compete and Ownership and Intellectual Property Agreement with the Company pursuant to which the Company and its assigns shall be the sole owner of all copyrights, patents, patent applications, inventions and other forms of intellectual property or property-related rights developed, conceived or created by, or with the involvement of, Mr. Woods in his performance of services for the Company under the agreement. Mr. Woods will not, while performing services for the Company and for a period of one year following the termination of his employment: (1) render services to compete with the Company in any way, (2) solicit customers of the Company, or (3) induce any person engaged with the Company to limit its relationship in any way.

Mr. Jeffery Langberg entered into a one year employment agreement with the Company dated June 1, 2002 and was appointed Director of Marketing of the Company at the May 29, 2002 Board Meeting. The agreement calls for Mr. Langberg to receive a base salary of $175,000 per year. Mr. Langberg was granted 300,000 options to purchase common stock of the Company at a strike price of $2.00 per share, 100,000 options vests immediately, and the remaining 200,000 options that vest upon the extension of his employment agreement at the end of one year or at such time that the Company earns $0.25 per share in one year. On November 6, 2002 the Compensation Committee of the Board agreed to pay a bonus of $100,001 to Mr. Langberg, which has been paid, reflecting his increased responsibilities and contributions to the Company. On June 11, 2003 it was determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board that future bonuses would be suspended and that any future bonuses would be discretionary based upon individual and Company wide performance and the achievement of certain sales and cash flow objectives. The Company and Mr. Langberg are currently in discussions regarding the terms of conditions of his continuing employment with the Company.

Mr. Sanford M. Kimmel entered into a three year employment contract with the Company on May 14, 2002 and was appointed Chief Financial Officer of the Company at the May 29, 2002 Board meeting. The agreement calls for Mr. Kimmel to receive a base salary of $125,000 per year and a bonus of $25,000 to be paid on May 14, 2003. Mr. Kimmel was granted 12,500 options to purchase common stock at a strike price of $2.05 per share, that vests immediately, and an additional 12,500 options that vest in one year. At the July 11, 2002 Board meeting, Mr. Kimmel was granted an additional 37,500 options, 12,500 options which will vest immediately and the remaining 25,000 options will vest in one year at a strike price of $1.84 per share. Mr. Kimmel's employment agreement includes a Change of Control provision that would pay Mr. Kimmel's salary for one year if terminated under certain conditions. Mr. Kimmel has also entered into a Confidentiality, Non-Compete and Ownership and Intellectual Property Agreement with the Company pursuant to which the Company and its assigns shall be the sole owner of all copyrights, patents, patent applications, inventions and other forms of intellectual property or property-related rights developed, conceived or created by, or with the involvement of, Mr. Kimmel in the performance of his services for the Company under the agreement. Mr. Kimmel will not while performing services for the Company and for a period of one year following the termination of his employment: (1) render services to compete with the Company in any way, (2) solicit customers of the Company, or (3) induce any person engaged with the Company to limit its relationship in any way. On June 11, 2003 it was determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board that future bonuses would be suspended and that any future bonuses would be discretionary based upon individual and Company wide performance and the achievement of certain sales and cash flow objectives.

All three individuals are entitled to other standard benefits including health insurance and reimbursement of out of pocket expenses and such other future benefits that the Company may implement in the future.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The members of the Compensation Committee are Ronald Wilen, Martin Rappaport and Andrea Pampanini. During the year ended March 31, 2003, Mr. Robert Deak and Mr. Thomas Spencer served on the Compensation Committee until they left the Board. Mr. Ronald Wilen is an executive employee of the Company and was not paid a salary until May 2002 at which time he began drawing a salary paid.

Other than Mr. Wilen, none of the other members of the Compensation Committee is an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. There were no compensation interlocks.

Martin Rappaport, a major shareholder and director of the Company, owns the property from which United Energy leases the 9,600 square foot facility it occupies in Secaucus, New Jersey. The Company pays approximately $100,000 per year under the lease, excluding real estate taxes.

No interlocking relationships exist between the member of the Company's Board or Compensation Committee and the Board or Compensation Committee of any other Company, nor has any such relationship existed in the past.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

As reported in the notes to the summary compensation table, the compensation committee in fiscal year 2002 approved the grant of 400,000 options to Mr. Wilen and Mr. Seaman in recognition of the fact that these executives have forgone cash compensation for the last several years. There were no performance-based criteria upon which the compensation was based for Mr. Wilen and Mr. Seaman. The options issued are subject to terms set forth on the 2001 Equity Plan filed with filed with Form 10-Q for period ended September 30, 2001 and the Amendment thereto filed with this report on Form 10-K.

Item 13 - Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Martin Rappaport, a major shareholder and director of the Company since August 2001, owns the property from which United Energy leases the 9,600 square foot facility it occupies in Secaucus, New Jersey. The Company pays approximately $100,000 per year under the lease, excluding real estate taxes.

The Company has an amount due to Robert L. Seaman, a major shareholder. The balance as of March 31, 2003 was $244,141. This amount is unsecured and non-interest bearing. Such amount is in dispute.

In addition, the Company issued 100,000 shares of restricted stock to the law firm of Seaman and Wehle, of which Mr. Seaman is a partner, in partial consideration for legal services rendered during the last fiscal year. The value of the shares awarded was $111,000 based on a closing price of $1.11 on March 4, 2002, the date of grant.

Item 14 - Controls and Procedures

The Company's CEO and then CFO evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's "disclosure controls and procedures" (as defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 Rules 13a-14(c) and 15d-14(c)) as of a date (the "Evaluation Date") within 90 days before the filing date of this annual report, and have concluded that as of the Evaluation Date, the disclosure controls and procedures were effective and designed to ensure that material information relating to the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries would be made known to them.

There were no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or, to management's knowledge, in other factors that could significantly affect the disclosure controls and procedures subsequent to the Evaluation Date.
