ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

On August 9, 2006, ProQuest Business Solutions Inc., a subsidiary of ProQuest Company (PQBS), entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Agreement) with Dealer Computer Services, Inc. (Seller) under which PQBS acquired the CPD electronic parts catalog assets of Seller. These assets generally consist of contracts with dealers of Ford Motor Company (Ford) automotive products to provide electronic parts catalogs and related services (the Dealer Contracts). The assets also include publishing technology and other assets necessary to service the Dealer Contracts.

As consideration for the assets, PQBS has agreed to pay Seller 74.0% of the net amount paid by a dealer under a Dealer Contract for the products and services provided by PQBS to the dealer. The net amount excludes the cost of any fees payable by Buyer to Ford for the manufacturing data published in such products and services and any amounts payable for add-on products or other products that do not act as a replacement for the products currently offered by Seller to the dealers. The payment term is a five year period that commences on closing. No cash will be paid on the closing date.

Seller also agreed generally not to compete with the business that it sold to PQBS for an eight year period commencing on closing.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is a summary of the material terms of the Agreement and does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1 which is incorporated herein by reference.
