Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On November 17, 2016, Ciber, Inc. (the “Company”) received a written notice (the “Notice”) from the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) that it is not in compliance with the continued listing standard set forth in Section 802.01C of the NYSE Listed Company Manual, which requires that the average closing price of a listed company’s common stock be above $1.00 per share over a consecutive 30-day trading period. The Company intends to respond to the NYSE within 10 business days of receipt of the Notice, stating its intention to regain compliance with the minimum share price rule and cure this deficiency.

Under applicable NYSE rules, the Company has six months from its receipt of the Notice to cure the deficiency and regain compliance by, if it can do so, having (i) a closing price of at least $1.00 per share on the last trading day of any calendar month during the six-month cure period and (ii) an average closing share price of at least $1.00 over the 30 trading-day period ending on the last trading day of that same month. During the six-month period, the Company’s common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE, subject to compliance with the other applicable NYSE listing standards.

On November 23, 2016, the Company issued a press release announcing its receipt of the Notice. A copy of the press release is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
