Item 8.01.

Other Events.

On July 22, 2014, Forward Industries, Inc. (“Forward” or the “Company”) issued a press release announcing that it has filed a lawsuit against Terence Bernard Wise, a director of the Company, and his long-time business partner, Jenny P. Yu, alleging multiple violations of federal securities laws, including the filing of deceptive and deficient Schedules 13D and proxy solicitation materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The press release also discusses the lawsuit filed by Mr. Wise in a New York State Court against the five members of the Board comprising the Special Committee, seeking a temporary restraining order and an injunction that would prevent a majority of the Board from voting on proposals to raise capital or engage in any extraordinary transactions. The Court declined to issue a restraining order, did not schedule a hearing on Mr. Wise’s proposed preliminary injunction, and expressed strong skepticism about the relief requested by Mr. Wise.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the above-referenced press release, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains certain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that reflect the Company’s current expectations and projections about its future results, performance, prospects and opportunities. The Company has tried to identify these forward-looking statements by using words such as “may,” “should,” “expect,” “hope,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “intend,” “plan,” “estimate” and similar expressions. These forward-looking statements are based on information currently available to the Company and are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause its actual results, performance, prospects or opportunities to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements. No assurance can be given that the actual results will be consistent with the forward-looking statements. Investors should read carefully the factors described in the “Risk Factors” section of the Company’s filings with the SEC, including the Company’s Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2013 for information regarding risk factors that could affect the Company’s results. Except as otherwise required by Federal securities laws, the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, changed circumstances or any other reason.
