Privacy Principles of the Trusts

The Trusts are committed to maintaining the privacy of shareholders and to safeguarding their non-public personal information. The following information is provided to help you understand what personal information the Trusts collect, how we protect that information and why, in certain cases, we may share information with select other parties.

Generally, the Trusts do not receive any non-public personal information relating to their shareholders, although certain non-public personal information of shareholders may become available to the Trusts. The Trusts do not disclose any non-public personal information about their shareholders or former shareholders to anyone, except as permitted by law or as is necessary in order to service shareholder accounts (for example, to a transfer agent or third party administrator).

The Trusts restrict access to non-public personal information about their shareholders to BlackRock employees with a legitimate business need for the information. The Trusts maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards designed to protect the non-public personal information of their shareholders.

BlackRock, Inc. (BlackRock), a world leader in asset management, is recognized for its emphasis on risk management and proprietary analytics, and for its reputation for managing money for the world's largest institutional investors. As of September 30, 2005, BlackRock's assets under management totaled approximately $428 billion across various investment strategies. BlackRock is also a significant provider of risk management and advisory services that combine our capital markets expertise with our proprietarily developed risk management systems and technology. As of September 30, 2005, BlackRock provided risk management services to portfolios with aggregate assets of over $3 trillion. BlackRock Advisors, Inc. and its affiliate, BlackRock Financial Management, Inc., which manage the Trusts, are wholly owned subsidiaries of BlackRock.

On behalf of BlackRock, we thank you for your continued confidence and assure you that we remain committed to excellence in managing your assets.

Sincerely,

Laurence D. Fink
Chief Executive Officer
