Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 3, 2011, Ascena Retail Group, Inc. (the Company) and certain of its domestic subsidiaries entered into an amended and restated revolving credit agreement (the Credit Agreement) with the lenders thereunder and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent. The Credit Agreement amends and restates the prior $200 million four-year credit facility entered into on November 25, 2009 by The Dress Barn, Inc., which is now a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and certain of its domestic subsidiaries which was scheduled to expire on November 25, 2013.

The Credit Agreement provides a senior secured revolving credit facility up to $200 million and matures in 5 years. The credit facility may be used for the issuance of letters of credit, to finance the acquisition of working capital assets in the ordinary course of business and capital expenditures, and for general corporate purposes. The Credit Agreement includes a $150 million letter of credit sublimit, of which $25 million can be used for standby letters of credit, and a $20 million swing loan sublimit. The interest rates, pricing and fees under the Credit Agreement fluctuate based on excess availability as defined in the Credit Agreement. There are no borrowings outstanding under the Credit Agreement.

The Credit Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, and affirmative covenants. The Credit Agreement also contains customary negative covenants, subject to negotiated exceptions on (i) liens, (ii) investments, (iii) indebtedness, (iv) significant corporate changes including mergers and acquisitions, (v) dispositions, (vi) restricted payments and certain other restrictive agreements. The Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default, such as payment defaults, cross-defaults to other material indebtedness, bankruptcy and insolvency, the occurrence of a defined change in control, or the failure to observe the negative covenants and other covenants related to the operation of the Company's business.

The Company's obligations under the Credit Agreement are guaranteed by certain of its domestic subsidiaries (the Subsidiary Guarantors). As collateral security under the Credit Agreement and the guarantees thereof, the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors have granted to the administrative agent for the benefit of the lenders, a first priority lien on substantially all of their tangible and intangible assets, including, without limitation, certain domestic inventory, but excluding real estate.

The above description of the Credit Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by the actual terms of the Credit Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.
