KeyBank Secured Bridge Loan

In connection with the acquisition of the properties from Human Genome Sciences, Inc. ( HGSI ) described below in Item 2.01, on May 24, 2006, BioMed Realty, L.P. (the Operating Partnership ), the operating partnership subsidiary of BioMed Realty Trust, Inc. ( BioMed ), entered into a secured bridge loan with KeyBank National Association ( KeyBank ), as administrative agent, and certain other lenders, under which it borrowed $150.0 million.

The bridge loan has a term of three months and bears interest at a floating rate equal to, at BioMed s option, either (1) LIBOR plus 140 basis points or (2) the higher of (a) the prime rate then in effect and (b) the federal funds rate then in effect plus a spread of 50 basis points. The bridge loan is secured by the HGSI headquarters facility and any related collateral. BioMed, at its sole discretion, may extend the maturity date of the bridge loan for an additional three months after satisfying certain conditions.

The terms of the bridge loan include certain restrictions and covenants, which limit, among other things, the incurrence of additional indebtedness and liens. The terms also require compliance with financial covenants relating to the minimum amounts of net worth, fixed charge coverage, leverage ratio, interest coverage, the maximum amount of variable-rate, secured and recourse indebtedness, and certain investment limitations. The bridge loan specifies a number of events of default (some of which are subject to applicable cure periods), including, among others, the failure to make payments when due, noncompliance with covenants and defaults under other agreements or instruments of indebtedness. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, the lenders may terminate the bridge loan and declare all amounts outstanding to be immediately due and payable.

The foregoing description of the KeyBank secured bridge loan does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the secured bridge loan agreement and the related note, which are filed as exhibits to this report and incorporated herein by reference.

Human Genome Sciences Leases

In connection with the acquisition of the HGSI properties, BioMed entered into two 20-year triple-net leases with HGSI with respect to the headquarters facility and the large-scale manufacturing facility. The leases provide HGSI with the right to extend each lease for two 10-year terms and require HGSI to provide a security deposit of $19.75 million under each lease, which is equal to one-year s rent.

HGSI has the right to repurchase the large-scale manufacturing facility from BioMed within the first four years after lease commencement, upon giving one year s prior written notice, at a purchase price that provides BioMed with a 15% unleveraged internal rate of return on the original purchase price of the property (net of all base rent received). HGSI has the right to repurchase the headquarters facility from BioMed approximately 10 years after lease commencement, upon giving at least one year s prior written notice, at a purchase price of approximately $300.0 million in cash.

Table of Contents

The foregoing description of the HGSI leases does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the leases, which are filed as exhibits to this report and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On May 24, 2006, BioMed, through its Operating Partnership, completed the acquisition of HGSI's large-scale manufacturing and headquarters office and laboratory facilities located in Rockville, Maryland. The portfolio includes a total of approximately 925,000 rentable square feet of existing laboratory, office and manufacturing space, with the headquarters facility consisting of three recently constructed buildings and a parking structure, as well as undeveloped land that BioMed's management estimates can support over 500,000 rentable square feet of additional laboratory and office space. The purchase price, which was determined through negotiations between the Operating Partnership and HGSI, was $425.0 million, excluding closing costs. The Operating Partnership funded the purchase price using the proceeds of BioMed's recently completed common stock offering, which generated net proceeds of approximately $249.1 million, and borrowings under its existing $250.0 million revolving credit facility and the secured bridge loan with KeyBank described above in Item 1.01.

In connection with the closing of the acquisition, BioMed issued a press release, which is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The information set forth under Item 1.01 above is incorporated herein by reference.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements of BioMed Realty Trust, Inc., as of March 31, 2006, and for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and the year ended December 31, 2005, are presented as if BioMed's common stock offering, the HGSI properties acquisition and related transactions had occurred on March 31, 2006 for the unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet, and on the first day of the period presented for the unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with BioMed's consolidated historical financial statements and the notes thereto, included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2006 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain adjustments have been made to give effect to the operating properties acquired or that are probable to be acquired subsequent to March 31, 2006.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements do not purport to represent BioMed's financial position or the results of operations that would actually have occurred assuming the completion of the common stock offering and other transactions, nor do they purport to project BioMed's financial position or results of operations as of any future date or any future period.

1. Adjustments to the Pro Forma Consolidated Balance Sheet

Presentation

The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet of BioMed Realty Trust, Inc. (the Company) reflects adjustments for completed and probable acquisitions, the Company's public offering of common shares, which was completed on May 16, 2006, and related transactions as if all of the following occurred on March 31, 2006:

The acquisition of the 58 Charles Street property for approximately $13,175,000, which occurred on April 7, 2006;

The acquisition of the HGSI properties for approximately $428,000,000, including closing costs and an advisory fee to Raymond James & Associates, Inc. of $1,000,000, which occurred on May 24, 2006;

The probable acquisition of the Road to the Cure property for approximately $23,328,000. In addition to cash paid, consideration also includes the estimated assumption of $15,800,000 of mortgage notes payable;

The probable acquisition of the One Research Way property for approximately $8,206,000;

Borrowings of $150,000,000 on a secured bridge loan facility and approximately $27,595,000 on the Company's unsecured line of credit. This debt was incurred to partially fund the acquisition of the HGSI properties; and Public offering of 9,075,000 common shares at $28.65 per share, with net proceeds of approximately $249,099,000.

In the opinion of the Company's management, all material adjustments necessary to reflect the effects of the preceding transactions have been made. The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet is presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of what the actual financial position would have been had the common share offering and other transactions described above occurred on March 31, 2006, nor does it purport to represent the future financial position of the Company.

Adjustments

The adjustments to the pro forma consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2006 are as follows:

(A) Reflects the acquisition of the HGSI properties from HGSI, a third party, which occurred on May 24, 2006, for approximately $428,000,000, including closing costs, consisting of cash payments of $428,000,000 (see Note C for discussion of funding):

The Company closed on its acquisition of the HGSI properties on May 24, 2006, and used the net proceeds from the offering of its common stock and borrowings on a secured bridge loan facility and its unsecured line of credit to fund the purchase price of this acquisition. The HGSI properties were acquired through a sale leaseback transaction whereby the HGSI properties have been leased on a long-term basis immediately after acquisition to a single tenant (HGSI, the seller lessee) under net leases that transfer all of the properties' nonfinancial operating and holding costs to HGSI. The purchase price for this acquisition exceeded 20% of the Company's total assets at December 31, 2005.

Set forth below is certain condensed financial information of HGSI which is taken from its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the Exchange Act). The information and financial data contained herein concerning HGSI was obtained and has been condensed from its public filings under the Exchange Act. The Company can make no representation as to the accuracy and completeness of the public filings of HGSI. It should be noted that HGSI has no duty, contractual or otherwise, to advise us of any events which might have occurred subsequent to the date of such publicly available information which could affect the significance or accuracy of such information.

HGSI is subject to the information filing requirements of the Exchange Act, and, in accordance herewith, is obligated to file periodic reports, proxy statements and other information with the Securities and Exchange Commission relating to its business, financial condition and other matters. Such reports, proxy statements and other information may be inspected at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission at 100 F Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549.

The following table summarizes the cash, cash equivalents, short-term investments, marketable securities and restricted investments, total assets, total debt and capital lease, less current portion, revenue research and development contracts, total costs and expenses, income (loss) from operations and net income(loss) for HGSI as of or for the most recent fiscal year end and quarter end (dollars in thousands):

2. Pro Forma Consolidated Statements of Income

The adjustments to the pro forma consolidated statements of income for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and for the year ended December 31, 2005 are as follows:

Adjustments (AA) through (GG) inclusive relate to the pro forma adjustments made to give effect to the acquired properties in accordance with Regulation S-X Rule 11-02. Specifically the financial statements of properties acquired should exclude items not comparable to the proposed future operations of the properties including corporate expenses. Prior to the acquisition, the properties were either self-managed or managed by third party management companies. Following the acquisitions, the properties will continue to be managed internally by us or managed by third-party managers under new management contracts. The related management fee revenues and expenses have either been included or excluded from the historical financial statements. For properties that will be managed internally by us, the property management revenues and costs are excluded in the historical financial statements of the acquired properties. For properties that will be managed by third-parties, property management revenues and expenses are included in the historical financial statements of the acquired properties. Pro forma revenue and expense adjustments were made for properties that will be managed internally by us.

(AA) Reflects the acquisitions of the Fairview Avenue property for approximately $2,700,000, which occurred on January 12, 2006, and the 900 Uniqema Boulevard property for approximately $4,800,000, which occurred on January 13, 2006:

(1) The pro forma adjustment to rental revenue is directly attributable to the acquisition of the operating property and consists of amounts related to above market leases, which are being amortized over the remaining initial lease term and any fixed rate renewal periods of the respective leases in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, Business Combinations ( SFAS 141 ).

(2) The pro forma adjustment to depreciation and amortization is due to depreciation of the acquired buildings and improvements using the straight-line method and an estimated life of 40 years. In addition, the value of in-place leases (exclusive of the value of above and below market leases) and the value of management agreements are amortized to depreciation and amortization expense over the remaining initial lease term and any fixed rate renewal periods of the respective leases and management agreements.

Edgar Filing: BioMed Realty Trust Inc - Form 8-K

The pro forma adjustment to interest expense is due to the amortization of debt premiums that were recorded upon assumption of the mortgage notes to account for above-market interest rates. This adjustment reduces interest expense over the remaining terms of the respective mortgages using the effective interest method.

- (4) The Fairview Avenue property acquisition consists of land under development, which was nonoperating on the date of acquisition.

- (1) The pro forma adjustment to rental revenue is directly attributable to the acquisition of the property and consists of amounts related to above and below market leases, which are being amortized over the remaining initial lease term and any fixed rate renewal periods of the respective leases in accordance with SFAS 141.
- (2) The pro forma tenant recovery revenue adjustment is based upon amounts to be received from tenants related to the pro forma adjustment to real estate taxes expense.
- (3) The pro forma adjustment to real estate taxes expense relates to the increase in property taxes due to the Company's acquisition of the properties by the Company that may result in a reassessment by the taxing authorities based on the purchase price of the properties.

- (4) The pro forma adjustment to depreciation and amortization is due to depreciation of the acquired buildings and improvements using the straight-line method and an estimated life of 40 years. In addition, the value of in-place leases (exclusive of the value of above and below market leases) and the value of management agreements are amortized to depreciation and amortization expense over the remaining initial lease term and any fixed rate renewal periods of the respective leases and management agreements.
- (5) The pro forma adjustment to interest expense is due to the amortization of debt premiums that were recorded upon assumption of the mortgage notes to account for above-market interest rates. This adjustment reduces interest expense over the remaining terms of the respective mortgages using the effective interest method. Also includes amortization of deferred loan fees, including loan assumption fees, incurred in obtaining long-term financing, which are capitalized and amortized to interest expense over the terms of the related loans using the effective-interest method.

(1) Borrowings consist of $14,689,000 for the acquisition of the HGSI properties and $12,906,000 for the acquisition of the 58 Charles Street and One Research Way properties. Borrowings under the unsecured line of credit bear interest at a rate of LIBOR (assumed one month LIBOR on May 3, 2006) plus a margin, which can vary between 120 basis points and 200 basis points depending on the overall leverage of the Company. A margin of 135 basis points was assumed based upon the pro forma leverage of the Company. If LIBOR increased or decreased by 0.125%, the estimated interest expense could increase or decrease by approximately $34,000 annually.

(2) Borrowings under the secured bridge loan bear interest at a rate of LIBOR (assumed three month LIBOR on May 3, 2006) plus 140 basis points. If LIBOR increased or decreased by 0.125%, the estimated interest expense could increase or decrease by approximately $187,500 annually.
