FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Eaton Vance Corp. Reaches Agreement with A.G. Edwards to Terminate Additional Compensation Agreements

Boston, MA -- Eaton Vance Corp. (Eaton Vance) today announced that it has agreed with A.G. Edwards & Sons, Inc. (A.G. Edwards) to terminate the additional compensation agreements entered into in connection with all six of the closed-end funds for which these agreements are in place. Under the additional compensation agreements, Eaton Vance was required to make recurring payments over time based on the assets of the respective closed-end funds.

In exchange for the termination of these agreements, Eaton Vance will make a lump sum payment to A.G. Edwards in the amount of $6.5 million or approximately $0.03 per diluted share. The payment will be recorded as a distribution expense in the first fiscal quarter of 2007.

As reported in December 2006, Eaton Vance made a similar payment to Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith Incorporated (Merrill Lynch) in the amount of $45.7 million. As a result of the payments to Merrill Lynch and A.G. Edwards, Eaton Vance will recognize total distribution expense related to the termination of the additional compensation agreements of $52.2 million, or approximately $0.24 per diluted share in the first fiscal quarter of 2007. The termination of these agreements is expected to result in annualized accretion of approximately $0.03 per diluted share.

Eaton Vance Corp., through its subsidiaries, is the investment adviser and distributor of over 160 mutual funds and also manages investments for individual and institutional clients. Eaton Vance had $133.1 billion in assets under management on December 31, 2006.
