cellcom israel announces israeli law for the promotion of competition and the mitigation of concentration enacted

Netanya, Israel – December 16, 2013 – Cellcom Israel Ltd. (NYSE: CEL) (TASE: CEL) (hereinafter: the "Company"), announced that in December 2013 the previously reported bill for the promotion of competition and the mitigation of concentration was enacted by the Israeli parliament. The law includes the following main changes to the provisions included in the bill: (1) imposing a limitation on the total number of public corporations (layers) in pyramidal structures to two (for existing pyramidal structures of two layers - after a transition period of six years and of three layers – after a transition period of four years); and (2) require that within six months and during the said transition period in companies that are third layer and up in a pyramidal structure - the majority of the board of directors shall be independent directors, as defined in the Israeli Companies Law, and that the number of external directors shall be half the number of the company's directors less one (rounded upwards) but not less than two (such external directors to be nominated by a shareholders meeting that shall take place within three months). Currently, we are a fourth layer company in the pyramidal structure of the IDB group.

For additional details see the Company's most recent annual report on form 20-F for the year ended on December 31, 2012, filed on March 4, 2013 under "Item 3. Key Information – D. Risk Factors – Pending legislation in Israel affecting corporate conglomerates, if enacted, could adversely affect us".
