SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

To the extent that the information presented in this Quarterly Report on Form-QSB for the quarter ended January 31, 2002 discusses financial projections, information or expectations about our products or markets, or otherwise makes statements about future events, such statements are forward-looking. We are making these forward-looking statements in reliance on the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in these forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, there are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from such forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties are described, among other places in this Quarterly Report, in "Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation."

In addition, we disclaim any obligations to update any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this Quarterly Report. When considering such forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the risks referenced above and the other cautionary statements in this Quarterly Report.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

1. Consolidated Financial Statements

The accompanying financial statements include the accounts of TDT Development, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries Terre di Toscana, Inc and Terres Toscanes, Inc. (The "Company", "TDT"). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of TDT have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and the instructions to Form 10-QSB and the Rule 10-01 of Regulation S-X promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission and do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accounting principles accepted in the United States of America for audited financial statements. In the opinion of management, these interim financial statements include all adjustments necessary in order to make these financial statements not misleading. The results of operations for such interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations for a full year or any other period. The unaudited consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto of the Company included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended October 31, 2001.

The accounting policies followed in the presentation of the interim financial results are the same as those followed on an annual basis. Those policies are presented in Note 3, "Significant Accounting Policies in the consolidated financial statements included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K.

On March 1, 2002, the Board of Directors of TDT Development, Inc. approved a change of the Company's fiscal year to December 31 from October 31, effective March 1, 2002 and a Form 10-Q/T report was filed on April 22, 2002 with the

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

You should read the following discussion and analysis in conjunction with the audited financial statements (and notes thereto) and other financial information of our company appearing elsewhere in this report.

We have focused primarily on capital issues and on expanding our business during the three months ended January 31, 2002.

RESULTS OF OPERATION

Total revenues for the three months ended January 31, 2002 were $11,954 as compared to $34,395 for the three months ended January 31, 2001. Our cost of goods sold for the three months ended January 31, 2002 was $9,281 as compared to $20,707 for the three months ended January 31, 2001. Our gross profit on sales was $11,954 for the three months ended January 31, 2002 as compared to $26,866 for the three months ended January 31, 2001.

Selling and general and administrative expenses for the three months ended January 31, 2002 were $34,774 as compared to $55,334 for the three months ended January 31, 2001.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

For the three months ended January 31, 2002, we had net cash used in operating activities of $29,061 as compared to $39,994 for the three months ended January 31, 2001.

Cash used in investment activities for the three months ended January 31, 2002 was $0 as compared to $3,062 for the three months ended January 31, 2001.

Cash provided by financing activities for the three months ended January 31, 2002 was ($219) as compared to $253,504 for the three months ended January 31, 2001.

At January 31, 2002, we had cash in the amount of $4,604 as compared to $33,884 at November 1, 2001.

We believe that our current cash will be sufficient to meet our anticipated cash

Edgar Filing: TDT DEVELOPMENT INC - Form 10QSB

needs for working capital and capital expenditures for at least the next twelve months. If cash generated from operations is insufficient to satisfy liquidity requirements, we may seek to sell additional equity or debt securities or to obtain a credit facility. If we issue debt securities, fixed obligations will increase and we may have to comply with covenants that might inhibit our operations. Moreover, such financing may not be available in amounts or on terms acceptable to us, if at all.
