Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On January 7, 2005, the Company and Aventis Pharmaceuticals, Inc. entered into a Second Amendment (the Second Amendment ) to their Collaboration Agreement dated as of September 5, 2003 (the Collaboration Agreement ). The parties excluded from the scope of the Collaboration Agreement the development and commercialization of the VEGF Trap for eye diseases through local delivery systems. Sanofi-aventis agreed to make a one-time payment to the Company of $25 million, of which fifty percent is repayable to sanofi-aventis following commercialization of the VEGF Trap.

The foregoing description of the Second Amendment is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Second Amendment which is included as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On January 10, 2005, the Company announced that sanofi-aventis reaffirmed its commitment to develop the VEGF Trap in oncology in collaboration with the Company. In addition, the Company announced that it would reclaim exclusive rights to develop and commercialize the VEGF Trap for eye diseases through local delivery systems. The Company and sanofi-aventis do not currently intend to pursue development of systemic delivery of the VEGF Trap for eye disease.

The foregoing description of this press release is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the press release dated January 10, 2005 which is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
