

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Further Information Regarding MPC Matter

As disclosed in our most recently filed Form 10-Q, and in response to certain inquiries, MPC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Woodward, and the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois have reached a settlement in principle related to the previously disclosed Department of Justice matter, and we are still in the process of obtaining final approvals from the DOJ. Pending this final approval, MPC has been temporarily suspended by the Department of Defense from participating in new federal procurements and grants. The suspension does not relate to HRT, Woodward, or any of its other businesses. While the temporary suspension remains in place, MPC will not be solicited by the DOD or certain government contractors for, or awarded, new contracts or contract extensions without special written exceptions. It does not apply to any MPC existing business.

This suspension relates to certain MPC government contract pricing practices prior to June 2005. MPC's pricing after June 2005 is not in question. MPC's current accounting system has been in place for over four years and is approved by the Defense Contract Audit Agency.

We do not believe the timing of the DOD's notice of suspension is related to any new concerns of misconduct, and we continue to work with the DOD in an effort to remove the suspension as soon as possible. We believe that effort will be successful. Similarly, we do not believe the DOD's notice of suspension provides any indication as to the potential outcome of the DOJ matter. The DOD suspension is temporary pending completion of the DOJ matter. We expect the DOJ will give final approval to the settlement agreed to in principle by the end of the Company's fiscal year, although we can provide no definitive assurance. Based upon our current information and analysis, we do not believe the suspension or the ultimate resolution of these matters will have a material financial impact to Woodward as a whole beyond the amount previously recorded and disclosed.
