TSMC Reiterates it Will Not Be Involved
In SMIC's Operations or Join SMIC's Board of Directors

TSMC has repeatedly made clear to the press that speculation that TSMC will use its stake in SMIC to intervene in SMIC's operations or join SMIC's Board of Directors is incorrect. However, as some media outlets continue to issue inaccurate and highly speculative reports, TSMC General Counsel, Dr. Dick Thurston, has the following statement:

Our settlement with SMIC is aimed at the protection of TSMC's intellectual property and trade secrets. SMIC proposed a grant of SMIC shares as part of the compensation package to TSMC under the Settlement Agreement, and both acknowledged and agreed that TSMC would obtain those shares only if permitted by the Taiwan government. The Settlement Agreement clearly provides that TSMC will not be involved in SMIC's operations, and will not be entitled to any position on SMIC's Board of Directors or in the management of SMIC. All reports in the press and other media to the contrary are completely unfounded.
