Pinnacle West Facility

On February 12, 2010, Pinnacle West Capital Corporation (Pinnacle West or the Company) entered into an unsecured revolving credit facility with Bank of America, N.A., as Agent and Issuing Bank, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Co-Syndication Agent and Issuing Bank, Barclays Capital and Credit Suisse, Cayman Islands Branch, as Co-Syndication Agents, the lender parties thereto, and certain other parties, allowing Pinnacle West to borrow, repay and reborrow, from time to time, up to $200 million on or prior to February 12, 2013. The facility replaces Pinnacle West's prior $283 million revolver with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, which would have expired on December 9, 2010. Pinnacle West will use the facility for general corporate purposes, including as a standby facility to support commercial paper issuances. The facility can also be used for letters of credit.

Borrowings under the facility will bear interest based on Pinnacle West's then-current senior unsecured debt credit ratings.

Borrowings under the facility are conditioned on Pinnacle West's ability to make certain representations at the time each borrowing is made, except for representations concerning no material adverse effect and certain litigation matters, which were made only at the time the facility was entered into. The facility includes customary covenants, including requirements that Pinnacle West maintain ownership of a specified percentage of the outstanding capital stock of Arizona Public Service Company (APS), maintain a maximum consolidated debt-to-capitalization ratio and comply with a negative lien provision. The facility also includes customary events of default, including a cross default provision and a change of control provision. If an event of default occurs, lenders holding a specified percentage of the commitments, or the administrative agent with such lenders' consent, may terminate the obligations of the lenders to make loans under the facility and the obligations of the issuing banks to issue letters of credit and may declare the obligations outstanding under the facility to be due and payable.

Pinnacle West and its affiliates maintain normal banking and other relationships with the agents and other lenders in the facility.

APS Facility

Also on February 12, 2010, APS entered into an unsecured revolving credit facility with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Agent and Issuing Bank, Bank of America, N.A., as Co-Syndication Agent and Issuing Bank, Barclays Capital and Credit Suisse, Cayman Islands Branch, as Co-Syndication Agents, the lender parties thereto, and certain other parties, allowing APS to borrow, repay and reborrow, from time to time, up to $500 million on or prior to February 12, 2013. The facility replaces APS' prior $377 million revolver with Citibank, N.A., as administrative agent, which would have expired on December 9, 2010. APS will use the facility for general corporate purposes, including as a standby facility to support commercial paper issuances. The facility can also be used for letters of credit.

Borrowings under the facility will bear interest based on APS then-current senior unsecured debt credit ratings. Borrowings under the facility are conditioned on APS ability to make certain representations except for representations, at the time each borrowing is made, concerning no material adverse effect and certain litigation matters, which were made only at the time the facility was entered into. The facility includes customary covenants, including that APS maintain a maximum consolidated debt-to-capitalization ratio and comply with a negative lien provision. The facility also includes customary events of default, including a cross default provision and a change of control provision relating to Pinnacle West. If an event of default occurs, lenders holding a specified percentage of the commitments, or the administrative agent with such lenders consent, may terminate the obligations of the lenders to make loans under the facility and the obligations of the issuing banks to issue letters of credit and may declare the obligations outstanding under the facility to be due and payable.

APS and its affiliates maintain normal banking and other relationships with the agents and other lenders in the facility.
