Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 8, 2010, Infogroup Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Omaha Holdco Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), and Omaha Acquisition Inc., a Delaware corporation (Acquisition Sub), providing for the merger of Acquisition Sub with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. Parent and Acquisition Sub are affiliates of CCMP Capital Advisors, LLC (CCMP).

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each share of Company common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than shares of common stock owned by Parent, Acquisition Sub or the Company and by stockholders who have perfected and not withdrawn a demand for appraisal rights under Delaware law) will be automatically canceled and converted into the right to receive $8.00 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax. At the effective time of the Merger, each option to purchase Company common stock, and each stock-based award issued and outstanding pursuant to one of the Company's equity incentive plans will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive, in the case of options, a cash payment equal to the excess, if any, of $8.00 over the exercise price per share of common stock issuable upon exercise of such option or, in the case of stock-based awards, a cash payment equal to $8.00 multiplied by the number of shares of common stock represented by such stock-based award, in each case, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax.

The Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and recommends that the Company's stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The M&A Committee of the Board engaged Evercore Group L.L.C. (Evercore) to serve as financial advisor to the M&A Committee and the Board.

The Merger Agreement contains a provision under which the Company may solicit alternative acquisition proposals for the next twenty-one (21) calendar days, concluding March 29, 2010. After such period, the Company is subject to customary no-shop restrictions on its ability to solicit alternative acquisition proposals from third parties. The Merger Agreement also contains a fiduciary-out provision which allows the Company to provide information to and participate in discussions with third parties with respect to unsolicited alternative acquisition proposals, if, in each case, the Board determines in good faith that such unsolicited acquisition proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal.

Concurrent with the execution of the Merger Agreement, certain stockholders (including certain directors and executive officers of the Company) have each entered into a voting agreement with Parent and the Company (each a Voting Agreement and collectively the Voting Agreements). Pursuant to the Voting Agreements, stockholders who collectively own an aggregate of approximately 36% of the outstanding shares of the Company have agreed to vote their respective shares of Company common stock in favor of the Merger and have granted a representative of Parent a proxy to vote such shares in the event the stockholders do not act in accordance with their obligations thereunder. Parent and Acquisition Sub have obtained equity and debt financing commitments for the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the aggregate proceeds of which will be used by Parent for payment of the aggregate merger consideration, payment of fees and expenses related to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, repayment of existing indebtedness of the Company and the ongoing working capital and other general corporate purposes of the surviving company. Two investment funds affiliated with CCMP have committed to purchase equity interests in Parent on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in an equity financing letter dated March 8, 2010 (the Equity Financing Letter) and have provided a limited guarantee in favor of the Company, dated March 8, 2010 (the Guarantee), guaranteeing the payment of certain monetary obligations that may be owed by Parent pursuant to the Merger Agreement, including any termination fee or reimbursement of the Company's fees and expenses incurred in connection with the proposed Merger that may become payable by Parent upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances set forth in the Merger Agreement.

on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in a financing letter dated March 8, 2010 (the Debt Financing Letter). The obligations of BOA to provide debt financing under the Debt Financing Letter are subject to a number of customary conditions, including, among others, (i) negotiation, execution and delivery of definitive loan documents consistent with the terms set forth in the Debt Financing Letter and otherwise reasonably satisfactory to the Parent and BOA; (ii) since December 31, 2009 there not having occurred an event that has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement), (iii) receipt by the lenders of evidence that, after giving effect to the Merger and the borrowing under the Debt Financing Letter, the surviving company will be solvent; and (iv) that the ratio of consolidated debt of the Company and its subsidiaries to consolidated EBITDA (as defined in the Merger Agreement) for the four quarter period ending not less than 45 days prior to the closing of the Merger (after giving pro forma effect to the Merger, the equity financing and the borrowings under the senior secured credit facility) not exceed certain limits.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for the Company and Parent. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, the Company may be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $15,847,000 (the Company Termination Fee). The Company may also be obligated to reimburse transaction expenses incurred by Parent, Acquisition Sub and their affiliates up to $2 million upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances. The Merger Agreement also provides that Parent may be required to pay the Company a reverse termination fee of $25,356,000 and reimburse the Company for transaction expenses up to $2 million under certain specified circumstances.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
