Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

As described in response to Item 4, the Shareholder Support Agreements (defined below) to which this Schedule 13D relates have not been purchased by United Fire, and thus no funds were used for such purpose. As an inducement for United Fire to enter into the Merger Agreement described in Item 4, each of the Signing Shareholders (as defined below) entered into a Shareholder Support Agreement, dated as of November 30, 2010, with United Fire with respect to the Subject Shares (as defined below). United Fire did not pay additional consideration to the Signing Shareholders in connection with the execution and delivery of the Shareholder Support Agreements. For a description of the Shareholder Support Agreement, see Item 4 below, which description is incorporated herein by reference in response to this Item 3.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

As an inducement for United Fire to enter into the Merger Agreement (as defined below) each of the Signing Shareholders entered into a Shareholder Support Agreement. The purpose of the Shareholder Support Agreements is to facilitate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On November 30, 2010, United Fire, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ) with Mercer and Red Oak Acquisition Corp., a Pennsylvania corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of United Fire (Acquisition Corp. ). The Merger Agreement provides, among other things, that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Acquisition Corp. will merge with and into Mercer, with Mercer surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of United Fire (the Merger ).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, which has been unanimously approved and adopted by the boards of directors of each of United Fire and Mercer, at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time ), each share of Mercer Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares of Mercer Common Stock held in the treasury of Mercer or by any subsidiary of Mercer and any shares of Mercer Common Stock owned by United Fire or any wholly owned subsidiary of United Fire), including any allocated and unallocated shares held by the Mercer Employee Stock Ownership Plan, and any shares of restricted stock, will be automatically cancelled and converted into the right to receive $28.25 in cash (the Cash Consideration ), without interest.

In connection with the Merger, each outstanding option to purchase Mercer Common Stock (Mercer Stock Option ), whether or not vested and exercisable, will, at the Effective Time, be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the product of (i) the number of shares of Mercer Common Stock that would have been acquired upon the exercise of such Mercer Stock Option, multiplied by (ii) the excess, if any, of the Cash Consideration over the exercise price to acquire a share of Mercer Common Stock under such Mercer Stock Option (the Option Consideration ), subject to any applicable withholding taxes.

The closing of the Merger is subject to certain conditions, including, among others, (i) approval and adoption by Mercer shareholders of the Merger Agreement, (ii) applicable insurance regulatory approvals, (iii) the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act, (iv) the absence of any law or court or governmental order or injunction prohibiting, restraining or enjoining consummation of the Merger, (v) subject to materiality exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties made by United Fire and Mercer, and compliance by United Fire and Mercer with their respective obligations under the Merger Agreement, and (vi) no event, occurrence, fact, condition, effect, change or development shall have occurred that, individually or in the aggregate, has, or would reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on Mercer and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or on the ability of Mercer to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Each of United Fire and Mercer has made representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement. Mercer has agreed to certain covenants and agreements, including, among others, (i) to conduct its business in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice, during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the Merger, (ii) not to solicit alternate transactions, enter into discussions, or enter into any agreement concerning, or provide confidential information in connection with, any proposals for alternative transactions, subject to a customary fiduciary-out provision which allows Mercer under certain circumstances to provide information to and participate in discussions with third parties prior to the approval of the Merger by Mercer's shareholders, with respect to unsolicited alternative acquisition proposals that Mercer's Board of Directors has determined, in its reasonable good faith judgment, if consummated would be more favorable, from a financial point of view, to Mercer's shareholders than the Merger and that such proposal is reasonably capable of being completed within a substantially similar period of time as the Merger (a Superior Proposal), and (iii) to call and hold a special shareholders' meeting and recommend adoption of the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement contains specified termination rights for both United Fire and Mercer. Among other termination rights, Mercer may terminate the Merger Agreement prior to the date on which the shareholders of Mercer approve the Merger if the Board of Directors of Mercer determines that it would, in the reasonable good faith judgment of Mercer's Board of Directors, violate its fiduciary duties under applicable law to recommend approval of the Merger or the Merger Agreement (or if such recommendation is withdrawn) as a result of the receipt of a Superior Proposal. In connection with such termination, Mercer must pay United Fire a $6,685,000 fee. In addition, Mercer may also be obligated to pay a fee of $6,685,000 or to reimburse United Fire for its expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement, up to $500,000, if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain other specified circumstances.

As a material inducement to United Fire entering into the Merger Agreement, Andrew R. Speaker, President and Chief Executive Officer, David B. Merclean, Senior Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer, Paul D. Ehrhardt, Senior Vice President, Chief Underwriting Officer and Corporate Secretary and Paul R. Corkery, Senior Vice President and Chief Information Officer (collectively, the Executives) have entered into agreements to terminate their existing employment agreements with Mercer and certain of its subsidiaries at the Effective Time (the Employment Termination Agreements) substantially in the form attached to the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Mercer will make a cash payment to each such Executive in an amount equal to 100% of the change in control payments due to each such Executive under their current employment agreements in the event such executive terminated his employment with Good Reason (as defined in the applicable existing employment agreement) at the Effective Time. In addition, Mercer has adopted a retention plan in the form attached to the Merger Agreement (the Senior Management Retention Plan) pursuant to which Messrs. Speaker, Merclean, Ehrhardt and Corkery will provide services to the surviving company on a transition basis following the Merger in exchange for payments on each of the three, six and nine month anniversaries of the Effective Time.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement, the Employment Termination Agreements, the Senior Management Retention Plan and the transactions contemplated thereby contained in this Item 4 does not purport to be a complete description and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, the form of Employment Termination Agreement, and the Senior Management Retention Plan, copies of which are attached as Exhibit 1, and incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement has been included in this communication to provide investors and shareholders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about United Fire, Acquisition Corp. or Mercer. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement (i) have been made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement, (ii) are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors, (iii) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement, and (iv) may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the parties or their respective businesses. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of United Fire, Acquisition Corp. or Mercer or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in United Fire's or Mercer's public disclosures.

Shareholder Support Agreements

Concurrently, and as a material inducement to United Fire entering into the Merger Agreement, Mercer's directors and certain of its officers (collectively, the Signing Shareholders), each solely in his or her capacity as shareholder of Mercer, entered into Shareholder Support Agreements with United Fire (the Shareholder Support Agreements) with respect to their respective shares of Mercer Common Stock (the Subject Shares) and Mercer Stock Options. Based on Mercer's representation in the Merger Agreement that 6,493,842 shares of Mercer Common Stock were issued and outstanding as of November 30, 2010, the Subject Shares constituted approximately 13.1% of the total issued and outstanding shares of Mercer Common Stock as of November 30, 2010. Pursuant to the Shareholder Support Agreements, the Signing Shareholders have agreed to appear or otherwise cause to be cast and to vote, or cause to be voted, the Subject Shares in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and against any merger agreement or merger (other than the Merger Agreement and the Merger), consolidation, combination, sale of substantial assets, reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation or winding up of or by Mercer or any of its subsidiaries or any other Acquisition Proposal as defined in the Merger Agreement, or any amendment of Mercer's Charter or Bylaws or other proposal that would in any manner impede, frustrate, prevent or nullify the Merger, the Merger Agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or change in any manner the voting rights of any class of capital stock of Mercer.

In the Shareholder Support Agreements, the Signing Shareholders have agreed not to, on or after the date of the Shareholder Support Agreements, among other things, (i) sell, transfer, pledge, assign, otherwise dispose of or otherwise encumber any of the Subject Securities (as defined in the Shareholder Support Agreements), or (ii) enter into any voting arrangement, whether by proxy, voting agreement or otherwise, in relation to any of the Subject Securities, other than the Shareholder Support Agreements (subject to certain limited exceptions and provided that the transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of the Shareholder Support Agreement). The Signing Shareholders also have agreed not to take any action that Mercer is prohibited from taking under the Merger Agreement with respect to the solicitation of alternative transaction proposals. The Shareholder Support Agreements will terminate upon the earliest to occur of (a) the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, and (b) the approval of the Merger and the Merger Agreement by the requisite vote of the shareholders of Mercer at the Mercer shareholder meeting.

The foregoing summary of the Shareholder Support Agreements and the transactions contemplated thereby contained in this Item 4 does not purport to be a complete description and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms and conditions of the form of Shareholder Support Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 2, and incorporated herein by reference.

Except as set forth in this Schedule 13D, the Merger Agreement and the Shareholder Support Agreements, neither United Fire, nor to United Fire's knowledge, any person named on Schedule I has any present plans which relate to or would result in any of the actions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D, except for (i) the delisting of the Mercer Common Stock from The NASDAQ Global Market, (ii) the Mercer Common Stock becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Act, and (iii) a change to the present dividend policy of Mercer.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a) Pursuant to the Shareholder Support Agreements, United Fire may be deemed to have beneficial ownership of 849,999 shares of Mercer Common Stock. Based on Mercer's representation in the Merger Agreement that 6,493,842 shares of Mercer Common Stock were issued and outstanding as of November 30, 2010, United Fire may be deemed to have beneficial ownership of 13.1% of the Mercer Common Stock if the record date were November 30, 2010. To United Fire's knowledge, no shares of Mercer Common Stock are beneficially owned by any of the persons named on Schedule I.

(b) Pursuant to the Shareholder Support Agreements, United Fire may be deemed to have shared power to vote or direct the vote of 849,999 shares of Mercer Common Stock held by the Signing Shareholders.

(c) Neither United Fire nor, to its knowledge, any person named on Schedule I, has effected any transaction in Mercer Common Stock during the past 60 days.

(d) Not applicable.

(e) Not applicable.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships With Respect to Securities of the Issuer.
