PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

VERITAS Software Corporation (the Registrant) files this report for a 15-day extension, from March 16 to March 31, 2005, for filing its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2004 (Form 10-K). The Registrant will not be in position to file its Form 10-K by March 16, 2005 without unreasonable effort or expense because the Registrant is still in the process of providing information necessary for its auditor to complete their documentation and related audit procedures in connection with the assessment of the Registrant's internal control over financial reporting in accordance with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is the statement of the Registrant's auditor, KPMG LLP, pursuant to Rule 12b-25. The Registrant anticipates that it will be able to file its Form 10-K by March 31, 2005.

As of the date of this filing, management of the Registrant has not identified any material weakness (as defined in Public Company Accounting Oversight Board Auditing Standard No. 2) in its internal control over financial reporting and does not expect any adjustments to its previously announced financial results for the fourth quarter and fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. The Registrant does not expect the delay in filing its Form 10-K to impact its pending merger with Symantec Corporation.

This Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including statements relating to the Registrant's expectation that it will file its Form 10-K on or before March 31, 2005; and the Registrant's expected results of operations for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. These forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties, including uncertainties related to the completion of the audits of the Registrant's financial statements and assessment of its internal control over financial reporting. These and other factors could cause the Registrant's actual results to differ materially from what it projects in its forward-looking statements. For more information regarding other potential risks and uncertainties, see the "Factors That May Affect Future Results" section of the Registrant's most recent periodic reports on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 and Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, which are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
