Item 2.03 Creation of Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On November 9, 2006, Reliance Steel & Aluminum Co. (Reliance) and its wholly-owned subsidiary RSAC Management Corp. (RSAC), both California corporations (collectively, the Company), entered into a syndicated Credit Agreement with Bank of America, N.A., as Administrative Agent and as a lender, and with fourteen other banks as lenders. The Credit Agreement provides for an unsecured, $1.1 billion revolving credit facility with a five-year term, expiring in 2011. The credit facility may be increased to up to $1.6 billion at the Company's request with approval from the lenders. The credit facility replaces the Company's $700 million syndicated credit facility and the Company's $100 million short-term facility. The Company intends to use the credit facility for working capital and general corporate purposes, including, but not limited to, capital expenditures, dividend payments, repayment of debt, stock repurchases, internal growth initiatives and acquisitions. In addition, the initial loans under the Credit Agreement were used in part to fund the purchase by Earle M. Jorgensen Company, a subsidiary of Reliance, of its 93/4% senior secured notes that were tendered and not withdrawn pursuant to that Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation dated October 12, 2006. See Item 8.01 below.

The foregoing description and the description in the press release are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 10, 2006, Reliance Steel & Aluminum Co. (Reliance) announced that it used funds under its new credit facility to fund the purchase by Earle M. Jorgensen Company (EMJ), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Reliance, of those 93/4% Senior Secured Notes due 2012 (CUSIP No. 480829AE0) (Notes) that were tendered and not withdrawn pursuant to the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement dated October 12, 2006 (the Offer to Purchase), in the aggregate principal amount of approximately $249.7 million, or 99.9% of the total amount outstanding. See Item 2.03 above. Notes in the aggregate principal amount of $320,000 remain outstanding.

On October 26, 2006, Reliance had announced that, as of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on October 25, 2006 (the Consent Date), holders of approximately $249.7 million in aggregate principal amount of Notes had tendered their Notes pursuant to the tender offer. No additional Notes were tendered prior to the expiration on November 8, 2006. This participation represents approximately 99.9% of the total principal amount of Notes outstanding and, since no Notes tendered prior to the Consent Date were withdrawn, EMJ received the requisite consents to adopt the proposed amendments pursuant to the consent solicitation. Tendered Notes were accepted by EMJ and purchased on November 9, 2006. The purchased Notes have been cancelled by the Trustee.

On October 26, 2006, the Company and The Bank of New York Trust Company, as Trustee, entered into a supplemental indenture (the Second Supplemental Indenture) to the Indenture, Amendment No. 1 to the Security Agreement dated May 22, 2002 with respect to the Notes (Amendment No. 1 to Security Agreement) and Amendment No. 1 to the Intercreditor Agreement dated May 22, 2002 with respect to the Notes (Amendment No. 1 to Intercreditor Agreement). The provisions of the Second Supplemental Indenture, Amendment No. 1 to Security Agreement and Amendment No. 1 to Intercreditor Agreement became effective upon the acceptance and settlement of the Notes tendered in the tender offer and eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained in the Indenture and the Notes (other than the covenants related to asset sales and change of control offers), certain events of default and the security interest that holders of the Notes have in the Company's assets, all as described in the Offer to Purchase.

A copy of the Company's press release dated November 10, 2006 is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Reliance's press release issued on November 10, 2006, the Second Supplemental Indenture, Amendment No. 1 to Security Agreement and Amendment No.
