RE: Update on Acquisition
DATE: October 28, 2004

In my memo to you last Friday I indicated that once we had any new information on the status of our filings we would inform you. In that regard, because the SEC staff did not formally review our preliminary proxy statement, we were able to mail a final proxy statement to our shareholders yesterday and thereby enabling us to set November 23 as the date for our Shareholder Meeting. At this meeting, we will ask our shareholders to adopt the merger agreement with Computer Associates. With an approval from the shareholders we will have met a major milestone in moving forward with the closing.

We expect that the additional foreign tax and antitrust filings will be completed by the end of this week. Once the waiting periods associated with these filings have passed, we believe at this time that we will be on track for a late November or early December closing. We will provide further information on the timing as we receive it.

Many of you have asked if we expect any integration activities to begin before the closing. Based on the legal requirements, it is expected that integration activities will not begin until after the closing. I assure you that if this changes or if we hear any further information on the status of the remaining filings that we will communicate it to you as soon as possible.

Regards,
Barry
