vacation days, life insurance and medical/dental insurance.

The term of employment for Mr. Colella is month to month with termination upon death or at the election of MKS if he fails or refuses to perform his duties or commits any acts not in MKS's best interest. Mr. Colella is obligated to disclose inventions to MKS and maintain the confidentiality of trade secrets and other confidential information. Pursuant to the agreement, during the term of employment and for a period of one year after termination of employment, Mr. Colella may not (except in his capacity as an employee of MKS) (i) engage in any competitive business or activity, (ii) work for, employ, become a partner with, or cause to be employed, any employee, officer or agent of MKS, (iii) give, sell or lease any competitive services or goods to any customer of MKS, or (iv) have any financial interest in or be a director, officer, 5% shareholder, partner, employee or consultant to any competitor of MKS.

The agreement provides for supplemental retirement benefits. The benefits are forfeited in the event of termination for cause. Upon retirement in accordance with the terms of the plan, Mr. Colella will receive annual payments equal to 50% of his final average pay (as defined in the agreement) for life, with 50% of such amount payable to his spouse for life after his death, or a lump sum payment of such aggregate amount, in accordance with actuarial tables.
