HILLENBRAND ANNOUNCES MAILING OF PROXY
REGARDING CHANGING OF COMPANY NAME IN CONJUNCTION WITH PLANNED SEPARATION

Name change will keep Hillenbrand name as part of new parent company for Batesville Casket Company.
Stand alone medical technology company will emerge as Hill-Rom Holdings doing business under well-known Hill-Rom brand.

BATESVILLE, Ind. (February 15, 2008) Hillenbrand Industries, Inc. (NYSE: HB) announced today that it has begun mailing a notice regarding a special shareholder meeting and proxy statement related to a name change contingent upon the company's completion of separation of its two operating companies, Hill-Rom, the company's medical technology business, and Batesville Casket, the company's death care business.

The special meeting has the sole purpose to vote on a proposal to amend the Company's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation to change the name of the company from Hillenbrand Industries, Inc., to Hill-Rom Holdings, Inc. in conjunction with the previously announced proposed separation. In the plan, the current Batesville Holdings, Inc., a subsidiary of the current Hillenbrand Industries, Inc., would then change its name to become Hillenbrand, Inc. and would continue to be the parent company of Batesville Casket Company following successful completion of the separation.

The Hillenbrand name is very recognizable in the funeral services industry; therefore we have chosen to keep that name linked to the Batesville Casket Company, said Peter Soderberg, president and CEO of Hillenbrand Industries and of Hill-Rom. At the same time, Hill-Rom has an extremely valuable brand identity within the health care industry. This proposal keeps each brand with the company where it adds the most value.

The amendment is the only component of Hillenbrand's separation plan that requires a shareholder vote. The name change is intended to become effective when the separation is completed and is subject to a number of conditions which are listed within the proxy statement.

As announced in previous disclosures, the newly renamed Hill-Rom intends to trade on the New York Stock Exchange using the trading symbol HRC and Batesville Holdings, Inc., has applied to list its common stock on the New York Stock Exchange under the trading symbol HI.

The separation continues to be expected to be completed at the end of the company's second fiscal-year quarter ending March 31, 2008, as announced previously.

The proxy statement is available at www.hillenbrand.com.

The following diagram depicts the pre- and post-distribution structures:

Disclosure Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this press release contain forward-looking statements, within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, regarding the Company's future plans, objectives, beliefs, expectations, representations and projections. The Company has tried, wherever possible, to identify these forward-looking statements using words such as intend, anticipate, believe, plan, encourage, expect, may, goal, become, estimate, strategy, will, projection, forecast, continue, accelerate, promise, increase, higher, lower, expand, progress, potential or the negative of those terms or other variations of them or by comparable terminology.

The absence of such terms, however, does not mean that the statement is not forward-looking. It is important to note that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, and the Company's actual results could differ materially from those set forth in any forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ from forward-looking statements include but are not limited to: the Company's dependence on its relationships with several large national providers and group purchasing organizations, changes in death rates, whether the Company's new products are successful in the marketplace, changes in customers' Medicare reimbursements, collections of accounts receivable, compliance with FDA regulations, antitrust litigation, potential exposure to product liability or other claims, failure of the Company's announced strategic initiatives and restructuring and realignment activities to achieve expected growth, efficiencies or cost reductions, disruptions in the Company's business or other adverse consequences resulting from the planned separation of the Company's two operating companies, failure of the Company to execute its acquisition and business alliance strategy through the consummation and successful integration of acquisitions or entry into joint ventures or other business alliances, competition from nontraditional sources in the funeral services business, volatility of the Company's investment portfolio, increased costs or unavailability of raw materials, labor disruptions, the ability to retain executive officers and other key personnel, and certain tax-related matters. For a more in depth discussion of these and other factors that could cause actual results to differ from those contained in forward-looking statements, see the discussions under the heading "Risk Factors" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended September 30, 2007 and in Amendment 1 to the Batesville Holdings, Inc., Form 10. The Company assumes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements.
