SECTION 3 SECURITIES AND TRADING MARKETS

Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On November 14, 2008, Visteon Corporation (the Company) was notified by the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) that the Company had fallen below the NYSE's continued listing standard relating to minimum share price. Rule 802.01C of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual requires that the Company's common stock have a minimum average closing price of not less than $1.00 during a consecutive 30 trading-day period.

The Company will notify the NYSE that it intends to cure the deficiency. The Company must bring its share price and average share price back above $1.00 within six months from the receipt of the NYSE notice to regain compliance with the NYSE's price condition, or it will be subject to suspension and delisting procedures. Under the NYSE rules, the Company's common stock will continue to be listed on the NYSE during the cure period, subject to the Company's compliance with other NYSE continued listing requirements.
