Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountants

With effect on August 22, 2008, the Company engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers ("PwC") to serve as its new principal independent accountant in connection with the audit of its financial statements for the financial year ended December 31, 2008. The removal of Ernst & Young LLP and the engagement of PwC as the Company's principal independent accountants was recommended by the Company's Audit Committee to the Board of Directors on July 14, 2008, based on a more competitive fee quote having been received from PwC, as compared with Ernst & Young LLP's fee quote. The Board of Directors at their meeting on July 14, 2008 agreed with the Audit Committee's recommendation, and decided to convene a special general meeting of the shareholders to consider and approve the proposed change in the Company's principal independent accountants. At the special general meeting of the shareholders held on August 22, 2008, the shareholders of the Company approved the removal of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's principal independent accountants, effective August 22, 2008, and the appointment of PwC as the Company's new principal independent accountants for the financial year ending December 31, 2008, effective August 22, 2008 until the next annual general meeting of the Company.

During its financial year ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 and in the subsequent interim periods prior to the removal of Ernst & Young LLP with effect on August 22, 2008, neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries consulted with PwC concerning (i) the application of accounting principles to a specific completed or contemplated transaction, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements and no written or oral advice was provided by PwC that was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to any accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue, or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement or event, as set forth in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K.
