(Throughout this press release, results from the Las Vegas Hilton are treated as "discontinued operations" for the current and comparative year-ago periods. That means Las Vegas Hilton results are excluded from such financial measures as net revenue, EBITDA, operating income, interest expense and other items.)

FIRST HALF 2004 RESULTS

For the first half of 2004, Caesars Entertainment reported net income of $219 million - or $0.70 per diluted share. That compares to net income of $82 million - or $0.27 per diluted share - for the six month period that ended on June 30, 2003.

Adjusted net income for the first half of 2004 was $130 million, or $0.42 per diluted share, compared to adjusted net income of $84 million, or $0.28 per diluted share, for the first half of 2003.

Adjusted net income for the first half of 2004 excludes the $87 million gain from the sale of the Las Vegas Hilton and $11 million of the hotel's operating results; the $3 million investment gain associated with the sale of the company's interest in the Las Vegas office building; the $3 million in pre-opening expense; the $2 million related to contract terminations; and $7 million related to prior-year corporate income tax expense in Indiana. Adjusted net income for the first half of 2003 excludes $1 million in operating results from the Las Vegas Hilton and $1 million in pre-opening expense associated with the premier of "A New Day...." starring Celine Dion at Caesars Palace.

Net revenue for the first half of 2004 was $2.357 billion, up from $2.222 billion for the first half of 2003. EBITDA for the first half of 2004 was $604 million, up from $542 million for the first half of 2003.

STRONG EBITDA GROWTH, SIGNIFICANT MARGIN IMPROVEMENT

"We had a strong second quarter, reporting record net income before gains, six percent growth in EBITDA and significant margin improvement," said Caesars President and Chief Executive Officer Wallace R. Barr. "Continuing strength in the Las Vegas market drove an overall increase of 35 percent in our income from continuing operations."

SECOND QUARTER FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

- o The Western Region reported EBITDA of $124 million, an increase of 39 percent from $89 million in EBITDA in the second quarter of 2003. The company's four Las Vegas Strip resorts reported a 39 percent increase in EBITDA, driven by strong room rates, higher occupancy and increased slot win.
- o In the Eastern Region, EBITDA was $102 million, down 16 percent from the $122 million reported for the second quarter of 2003. Despite a

- o The company completed the sale of the Las Vegas Hilton for $286 million to an affiliate of Colony Capital, LLC of Los Angeles. The sale resulted in an after-tax gain of $87 million, which is included in discontinued operations. - o The company closed a new $2-billion, five-year, senior credit facility. The proceeds from the facility were used to replace commitments under the company's existing credit facilities and refinance borrowings outstanding under those credit facilities.
- o The company sold $375 million in Floating Rate Contingent Convertible Senior Notes due 2024 and used the proceeds to repay a portion of the amounts outstanding under its existing credit facilities. ### WESTERN REGION

EBITDA for the Western Region's seven casino resorts was $124 million in the second quarter of 2004, up 39 percent from $89 million in the year-ago quarter. The increase was driven by strong room rates, higher occupancy and increased slot win on the Las Vegas Strip. Revenue Per Available Room (RevPAR) for Strip resorts rose 12 percent and slot win on the Strip increased 22 percent in the quarter.

At Caesars Palace, net revenue in the quarter rose to $139 million from $132 million in the second quarter of 2003. EBITDA was $30 million, even with results for the second quarter of 2003. Overall gaming volumes at Caesars Palace rose eight percent, while gaming win declined six percent because of lower baccarat volume and hold. RevPAR rose six percent, due to improved occupancy and a four percent increase in the average cash room rate.

In early July, Caesars Palace opened its new Roman Plaza, which provides a direct entrance to the property from the pedestrian bridges that span Flamingo Road and Las Vegas Boulevard. The 175,000 square-foot expansion of The Forum Shops at Caesars is scheduled to open in late October, and the resort's new 949-room, luxury hotel tower is on schedule for completion in the summer of 2005.

At Paris Las Vegas, second quarter net revenue rose 15 percent, to $105 million, from the year-ago quarter. Second quarter EBITDA was $35 million, up 75 percent from $20 million reported in the second quarter of 2003. The increase was due largely to higher gaming win and room revenues. RevPAR increased 12 percent, driven by higher cash room rates.

At Bally's, net revenue in the second quarter rose 12 percent, to $74 million, from the second quarter of 2003. EBITDA was $19 million, up 73 percent from the second quarter of 2003. Gaming win rose 10 percent due to higher slot win. RevPAR rose 13 percent, driven by higher occupancy and room rates.

At the Flamingo Las Vegas, net revenue for the second quarter was $97 million, up 26 percent from the year-ago quarter. EBITDA rose 43 percent, to $33 million, from the second quarter of 2003. The results were driven by a 23 percent increase in slot win, a 17 percent increase in RevPAR and the inclusion of results from the new Margaritaville cafe, which held its grand opening in January of this year.

Other Nevada properties - the Reno Hilton, Caesars Tahoe and Flamingo Laughlin - recorded combined EBITDA of $7 million in the second quarter, up from $5 million in the second quarter of 2003. (Because financial results of the Las Vegas Hilton are classified as "discontinued operations," they are not included in either year's figures.)

EASTERN REGION

Second quarter EBITDA from Caesars' three Atlantic City casino resorts and management fees from its Dover Downs slot operation was $102 million, down 16 percent from the $122 million reported for the second quarter of 2003, reflecting competition from The Borgata Hotel Casino and Spa.

At Caesars Atlantic City, second quarter net revenue declined nine percent, to $122 million. EBITDA was $38 million, compared to $48 million in the second quarter of 2003. The decline was due largely to a 25 percent reduction in table win, attributable to decreases in volume and hold.

At Bally's Atlantic City, net revenue was $163 million, compared to $177 million for the second quarter of 2003. EBITDA for the second quarter was $47 million, down from $54 million in the year-ago quarter. The declines were due to lower gaming volumes. Table game win declined 15 percent, primarily as a result of an 11 percent drop in volume. Slot win declined five percent because of a six percent drop in volume. RevPAR rose six percent, due to an 18 percent increase in the average cash room rate.

At the Atlantic City Hilton, second quarter net revenue was $71 million, down from $79 million in the second quarter of 2003. Second quarter EBITDA was $15 million, down from $19 million in the second quarter of 2003. Table and slot win declined 10 percent and eight percent, respectively, primarily because of lower gaming volumes.

MID-SOUTH REGION

Caesars Entertainment's seven casino resorts in Indiana, Mississippi and Louisiana reported second quarter EBITDA of $63 million, even with results for the second quarter of 2003.

Caesars Indiana reported second quarter net revenue of $78 million, up from $75 million in the second quarter of 2003. EBITDA was $19 million, even with results for the second quarter of 2003. Gaming win rose three percent, while higher room rates and improved occupancy drove a 17 percent increase in RevPAR.

EBITDA was $6 million, down 50 percent from $12 million in the second quarter of 2003. Gaming win declined 15 percent as a result of lower table game hold and lower slot volume.
