(4) The Company's shareholders selected three (3) years as the rate of frequency of the holding of an advisory vote on named executive officer compensation by the following vote:

Number of Votes Cast In Favor of Three Years	Number of Votes Cast In Favor of Two Years	Number of Votes Cast In Favor of One Year	Number of Votes Cast Abstained
1,809,405	161,781	616,597	82,075

Item 8.01 Other Events

As previously disclosed in the Company's Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2013 and filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 14, 2013, the Company had increased its allowance for doubtful accounts by $622,000 due to the decline in credit quality of a major customer. In addition, the Company removed from its backlog the remaining orders from this customer which totaled $2,578,000. On November 20, 2013, the Company received notice that this customer had made an assignment for the benefit of creditors under California state law. The Company is presently evaluating what, if any affect, this action will have on its future results of operations.
