Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

(1) Basis of Presentation

In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-QSB. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation of the

Edgar Filing: ARMITEC INC - Form 10QSB

Company's financial position as of September 30, 2002 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2002. Operating results for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2002 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ended December 31, 2002.

These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Company's Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2001.

(2) Acquisition of Pocono Knits, Inc.

On May 2, 2002, the Company acquired Pocono Knits, Inc. (Pocono) through its wholly-owned subsidiary Jack Young Associates, Inc. The acquired company manufactures uniforms and knitwear products. Pocono has been in business for over forty years and has the same customer base the Company plans on serving. The Company acquired the assets and certain liabilities of Pocono in exchange for $102,158. As a result of the transaction, the Company recorded goodwill totaling $247,048, which was primarily the result of the Pocono's stockholders' deficit after consideration of adjustments to net assets to reflect their fair values at the acquisition date.

The consolidated results of the Company include the results of the operations of Pocono since the acquisition date. The following table details the significant assets and liabilities acquired as a result of the acquisition:

Assets:
Inventories	$ 400,402
Accounts receivable	208,432
Property and equipment	746,000
Liabilities:
Accounts payable	$ 273,333
Accrued expenses	486,463
Notes payable	623,141

(3) Issuance of Convertible Notes

The Company entered into convertible debt financing agreements with Stonestreet Limited Partnership and Filter International, Ltd. for an aggregate of $750,000. The stated interest rate on the notes is 7% per annum and the unpaid principal and interest balance is due in full April 23, 2004. As defined by the note, the conversion price is the lesser of (a) $.07 or (b) an amount equal to 70% of the average per share market price as quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board, The Nasdaq Small-Cap Market, or the Nasdaq National Market for the three days having the lowest per share market value during the thirty trading days prior to the conversion date. In connection with the issuance of the convertible notes, the Company issued 4,500,000 warrants to purchase common stock of the Company with an exercise price equal to 105% of the market price at the date of closing.

(4) Consulting Agreements

Edgar Filing: ARMITEC INC - Form 10QSB

The Company terminated a Consulting Agreement with the former President of Pocono Knits, Inc. which had required the payment of $127,200 per year for consulting services and 2,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The 2,000,000 shares of the Company's stock is subject to a put agreement whereby upon the five year anniversary of the put agreement, the consultant may put the shares back to the Company for the sum of $550,000. If the consultant rejects a call from the Company, the consultant's put option will terminate. The former President kept the 2,000,000 shares of the Company's stock. The Company also entered into an Employment Agreement with the former Vice President of Pocono Knits, Inc. with compensation in the amount of $96,180 per year. In addition, the Company granted the Vice President 250,000 shares of the Company's common stock.

(5) Related Party

The Company received working advances and has accrued consulting fees to Galt, Inc. in the amount of $20,000 per month for a total of $180,000 as of September 30, 2002 for consulting services provided by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Company. Galt, Inc. is owned by the spouse of the CEO.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Plan of Operation

For the near term, the Company continues to pursue its business plan, and the Company is currently seeking additional acquisitions or in the alternative, raising additional funds necessary to expand its retail and manufacturing operations. During the third quarter of 2002, the Company raised $300,000 from the sale of convertible notes; however, additional capital will be needed to continue the Company's operations. The Company expects to obtain additional capital through the private sale of the Company's securities or from borrowings from private lenders and/or financial institutions. There can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in obtaining any additional capital which may be needed.

On May 2, 2002, Jack Young Associates, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, purchased the assets of Pocono Knits, Inc., a New Jersey corporation. Pocono Knits, Inc. is a manufacturer of sweaters for the military, police, postal, fire and security companies. The Company has been in business for over 40 years and services the same customer base as the Company intends to service. This transaction is further discussed in Footnote 2 of the financial statements. The Company will file the required pro forma financial information as soon as is practical.

Financial Condition

The Company ceased to operate as a development stage entity. For the nine months ended September 30, 2002, the Company has funded its operations from the issuance of debt and borrowings from related parties. To date the Company has not generated positive cash flow from operations. During the second quarter of 2002, the Company commenced operations with the acquisition of Pocono Knits, Inc. and in September, 2002 the Company opened its retail/wholesale distribution center in Atlanta, Georgia. The ability of the Company to continue on as a going concern is contingent upon the generation of positive cash flow or additional borrowings. At September 30, 2002, the Company reported total assets of $1,848,603, total liabilities of $2,728,125 and a shareholders' deficit of $879,523. Additionally, the Company reported negative working capital of $93,459.

Results of Operations

The Company commenced operations in the second quarter of 2002 as a result of the purchase of Pocono Knits, Inc. and in September 2002 opened the Atlanta retail/warehouse showroom. Sales for the nine months ended September 2002 totaled $711,122 and the related cost of goods sold were $559,155 generating a gross margin of $151,967. General and administrative expenses for the nine month and three month period of 2002 were $868,195 and $225,557 respectively. The Company incurred developmental stage expenses of $538,685 incurred prior to the beginning of operations. Net loss reported for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2002 was $981,425 and $239,479. The accumulated deficit for the period from inception, being July 24, 2000, through September 30, 2002, was $1,670,996. Jack Young Associates, Inc. a wholly-owned subsidiary, the manufacturer arising from the purchase of the assets of Pocono Knits, Inc. incurred a loss of $27,725 for the quarter, of which $18,200 was depreciation.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At September 30, 2002, the Company reported a bank overdraft of $39,420 with overall negative net working capital of $93,463. To date, liquidity needs have been met with borrowings from the issuance of convertible notes and borrowings from related parties. As noted above, the convertible notes mature on April 23, 2004. There is no stated maturity with regard to amounts owed to related parties. Management does not believe the Company will be able to satisfy its cash requirements for the next 12 months. Fully executing the business plan beyond the present stage will require an increase in the Company's capital and is contingent on raising additional capital or the generation of cash flow through increased sales.

During the second and third quarter of 2002, the Registrant entered into convertible note agreements with the Stonestreet Limited Partnership and Filter International, Ltd. for the issuance of a $350,000 and $100,000, respectively, 7% note maturing April 23, 2004 and June 5, 2004, respectively. As defined by the note, the conversion price is the lesser of (a) $.07 or (b) an amount equal to 70% of the average per share market price as quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board, The Nasdaq Small-Cap Market, or the Nasdaq National Market for the three days having the lowest per share market value during the thirty trading days prior to the conversion date. Under the Convertible Note Purchase Agreement the Registrant covenanted that it would not declare or pay any dividends as long as the Convertible Note remained outstanding. In concert with the issuance of the convertible notes, the Company issued 4,500,000 warrants to purchase the common stock of the Company with an exercise price equal to 105% of the market price at the date of closing.

Item 3. Controls and Procedures
