Voting

Each director shall be elected by a majority of the votes cast "for" his or her election.

Interpublic's by-laws provide that the election of each director requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the matter, except that in a contested election where the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected, directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast. Accordingly, at the 2008 Annual Meeting, a nominee will be elected as a director only if the holders of a majority of the shares present and entitled to vote cast votes "for" his or her election. In accordance with Interpublic's by-laws, any incumbent nominee who fails to receive the necessary vote "for" his or her election is required to resign from the Board no later than 120 days after the date of the certification of the election results.

Approval of Items 2 through 4 will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the matter. Interpublic's transfer agent tabulates the votes. Abstentions and broker non-votes are each tabulated separately and are counted as shares present for the purpose of determining whether there is a quorum present for the conduct of business at the Annual Meeting. For Items 2 through 4, shares that are the subject of an abstention are included as shares entitled to vote on the matter and, therefore, have the same effect as a vote against the matter, and shares, if any, that are the subject of a broker non-vote with respect to a particular matter are not included as shares entitled to vote on that matter.

Shareholder Proposals To Be Presented At 2009 Annual Meeting

Proposals of shareholders intended to be presented at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders scheduled to be held on May 21, 2009, must be received by Interpublic by December 29, 2008, and must comply with applicable SEC regulations, in order to be considered for inclusion in Interpublic's Proxy Statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting. If notice of a proposal intended to be presented at the Annual Meeting is not received by Interpublic before March 21, 2009, the persons named as proxies in Interpublic's 2009 proxy material will have the discretionary authority to vote on the matter in accordance with their best judgment without disclosure in the proxy statement of such matter or of how the proxy holders intend to exercise their discretionary authority to vote on the matter.

1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors, on the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee, has nominated the individuals listed below as its candidates for election as directors at the Annual Meeting. Persons elected as directors at the Annual Meeting will hold office until the 2009 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their successors are elected and qualify or until their earlier death, resignation or removal. Certain biographical information concerning each of the nominees is provided below. All of the nominees are currently serving as directors of Interpublic. The Board of Directors believes that each of the nominees will be available and able to serve as a director. However, if for any reason any of the nominees is unable to serve, all proxies will be voted for the remainder of the nominees and, unless the size of the Board of Directors is reduced, for a replacement nominee designated by the Board of Directors having due regard for any recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

Corporate Governance Guidelines

Interpublic has a strong commitment to sustaining sound corporate governance practices. Interpublic's Corporate Governance Guidelines are available free of charge on Interpublic's website at <http://www.interpublic.com> or by writing to The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc., 1114 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10036, Attention: Secretary.

Director Independence

In accordance with New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") listing standards (the "NYSE Listing Standards"), the Board annually evaluates the independence of each member of the Board of Directors under the independence standards set forth in Interpublic's Corporate Governance Guidelines, and under the applicable rules of the NYSE Listing Standards. Interpublic's Director Independence Standards are included in Interpublic's "Corporate Governance Guidelines" available at the website noted above.

Interpublic has eleven directors, one of whom, Michael I. Roth, is an employee of Interpublic (who is referred to in this Proxy Statement as the "Management Director") and ten of whom are not employees of Interpublic or its subsidiaries (those non-employee directors are referred to in this Proxy Statement as "Non-Management Directors" or "Outside Directors"). Of the ten Non-Management Directors, the Corporate Governance Committee has determined, at its meeting held on February 28, 2007, that Mss. Carter-Miller, Considine and Guilfoile and Messrs. Brack, Goldstein, Greeniaus, Kerr, Samper and Thomas are each independent directors under its Corporate Governance Guidelines and the NYSE Listing Standard. Under the NYSE Listing Standards, Mr. Borelli is deemed not to be independent because his son is a principal of Deloitte & Touche, a firm Interpublic has used to support a number of internal audit functions. Mr. Borelli's son is not a certified public accountant and is not engaged in providing services to Interpublic. All of the members of the Compensation Committee, the Corporate Governance Committee and the Audit Committee are independent directors.

Meeting of Independent Directors

The NYSE Listing Standards require that if the group of Non-Management Directors includes one or more directors that are not independent, then at least once annually, the Non-Management Directors should hold an executive session that includes only independent directors. The Board held an executive session of its independent directors on March 27, 2008. Mr. Goldstein served as the Chairperson of the executive session.

Director Selection Process

The Corporate Governance Committee is charged with the responsibilities described in this Proxy Statement below under the heading "Principal Committees of the Board of Directors Corporate Governance Committee."

One of the Committee's responsibilities is to identify and recommend to the Board candidates for election as directors. The Committee considers candidates suggested by its members, other directors, senior management and shareholders as necessary in anticipation of upcoming director elections or due to Board vacancies. The Committee is given broad authorization to retain, at the expense of Interpublic, external legal, accounting or other advisers including search firms to identify candidates and to perform "background reviews" of potential candidates. The Committee is expected to provide guidance to search firms it retains about the particular qualifications the Board is then seeking.

In 2007 Mss. Jocelyn Carter-Miller and Mary J. Steele Guilfoile were each elected by the Board to become members of the Board of Directors of Interpublic. Interpublic paid a fee to professional search firm Spencer Stuart & Associates to identify and assist the Committee in identifying, evaluating and conducting due diligence on potential nominees, and such firm identified Mss. Carter-Miller and Guilfoile.

All director candidates, including those recommended by shareholders, are evaluated on the same basis. Candidates are considered in light of the entirety of their credentials, including:

their business and professional achievements, knowledge, experience and background, particularly in light of the principal current and prospective businesses of Interpublic and the strategic challenges facing Interpublic and its industry as a whole;

their integrity and independence of judgment;

their ability and willingness to devote sufficient time to Board duties;

their qualifications for membership on one or more of the committees of the Board;

their potential contribution to the diversity and culture of the Board;

their educational background;

their independence from management under NYSE Listing Standards and Interpublic's Corporate Governance Guidelines;

the needs of the Board and Interpublic; and the Board's policies regarding the number of boards on which a director may sit, director tenure, retirement and succession as set out in Interpublic's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

In determining the needs of the Board and Interpublic, the Committee considers the qualifications of sitting directors and consults with other members of the Board (including as part of the Board's annual self-evaluation), the CEO and other members of senior management and, where appropriate, external advisers. All directors are expected to exemplify the highest standards of personal and professional integrity and to assume the responsibility of challenging management through their active and constructive participation and questioning in meetings of the Board and its various committees, as well as in less formal contacts with management.

Director candidates, other than sitting directors, are interviewed by members of the Committee and by other directors, the CEO and other key management personnel, and the results of those interviews are considered by the Committee in its deliberations. The Committee also reviews sitting directors who are considered potential candidates for re-election, in light of the above considerations and their past contributions to the Board.

Shareholders wishing to recommend a director candidate to the Committee for its consideration should write to the Committee, in care of its Chairperson, at The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc., 1114 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10036. Any recommendations will be considered for the next annual election of directors in 2008. A recommendation should include the proposed candidate's name, biographical data and a description of his or her qualifications in light of the criteria listed above. If Interpublic receives in a timely manner, in accordance with the SEC requirements, any recommendation of a director candidate from a shareholder, or group of shareholders, that beneficially owns more than 5% of Interpublic's Common Stock for at least one year as of the date of recommendation, as determined under SEC rules, Interpublic will disclose in its proxy statement the names of the recommending shareholder(s) and the proposed candidate if the shareholder (or each member of the group) and the candidate consent in writing to that disclosure.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Interpublic has adopted a code of ethics, known as the Code of Conduct, which applies to all employees of Interpublic and its subsidiaries and affiliates. Interpublic's Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that members of the Board of Directors and officers (which includes Interpublic's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Controller and other persons performing similar functions) must comply with the Code of Conduct. In addition, the Corporate Governance Guidelines state that the Board will not waive any provision of the Code of Conduct for any Director or executive officer. The Code of Conduct, including future amendments, is available free of charge on Interpublic's website at <http://www.interpublic.com> or by writing to The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc., 1114 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10036, Attention: Secretary.

MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD

Board Structure and Committees

Interpublic has eleven members of the Board of Directors consisting of one Management Director and ten Non-Management Directors. The standing committees of the Board consist of the Executive Committee, the Compensation Committee, the Corporate Governance Committee and the Audit Committee. The activities of the Compensation Committee, the Corporate Governance Committee and the Audit Committee are each governed by a charter that is available free of charge on Interpublic's website at <http://www.interpublic.com> or by writing to The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc., 1114 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10036, Attention: Secretary. A description of the responsibilities of each standing Committee of the Board is provided in this Proxy Statement below under the heading "Principal Committees of the Board of Directors."

Attendance at Board of Directors and Committee Meetings

The Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that each director is expected to prepare for, attend and participate in, at least 75% of all regularly scheduled and special meetings of the Board, absent special circumstances. The Board of Directors of Interpublic held 6 meetings in 2007 and committees of the Board held a total of 18 meetings. During 2007, each director attended 75% or more of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and committees on which he or she served.

Attendance at Annual Meeting of Shareholders

Interpublic does not have a specific policy for attendance by directors at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. However, each current director who was a director at the time of the 2007 Annual Meeting attended the meeting.

Presiding Director

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee is authorized, when the Board of Directors is not in session, to exercise all powers of the Board of Directors which, under Delaware law and the by-laws of Interpublic, may properly be delegated to a committee, except certain powers that have been delegated to other committees of the Board of Directors or reserved for the Board of Directors itself. Due to the frequency in number of meetings of the Board and other committees of the Board, the Executive Committee did not hold any meetings in 2007.

Corporate Governance Committee

The Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for recommending to the Board of Directors the persons to be nominated for election to the Board of Directors and the membership and chairman of each Board committee. The other responsibilities of the Corporate Governance Committee include the establishment of criteria for membership on the Board and its committees, the review and recommendation to the Board as to the independence of Non-Management Directors under the standards set forth in Interpublic's Corporate Governance Guidelines and the NYSE Listing Standards, the evaluation on an annual basis of the collective performance of the Board and the Board's committees, the recommendation to the Board of compensation and benefits for Non-Management Directors, and the review, the continual assessment and the recommendation to the Board of the best practices in corporate governance matters generally. The Corporate Governance Committee held five meetings in 2007.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with respect to (i) the annual financial information to be provided to shareholders and the SEC; (ii) the system of internal controls that management has established; and (iii) the internal and external audit processes. In addition, the Audit Committee provides an avenue for communication among internal audit, the independent auditors, financial management and the Board. The Audit Committee also is responsible for the selection and retention of Interpublic's independent auditors and the review of their compensation, subject to approval of the Board of Directors. Specific activities of the Committee are described in the Audit Committee Report below. Each member of the Audit Committee is a Non-Management Director and is independent in accordance with the standards set forth in Interpublic's Corporate Governance Guidelines and the NYSE Listing Standards. The Board has determined that each member of the Audit Committee qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert" within the meaning of applicable SEC rules. The Audit Committee held eight meetings in 2007.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is responsible for the adoption and periodic review of a remuneration strategy for Interpublic and its subsidiaries, which ensures that executive compensation for key senior executives is designed to incentivize and reward long-term growth, profitability and return to shareholders.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for approving the compensation paid to senior executives of Interpublic and its subsidiaries. For these purposes, compensation includes but is not limited to: (1) salary, (2) deferred compensation, (3) bonuses and other extra compensation of all types, including annual and long-term performance incentive awards under Interpublic's 2006 Performance Incentive Plan, (4) insurance paid for by Interpublic or any of its subsidiaries other than group plans, (5) annuities and individual retirement arrangements, (6) Executive Special Benefit Agreements, (7) Interpublic's Senior Executive Retirement Income Plan ("SERIP"), and (8) Interpublic's Capital Accumulation Plan ("CAP"). The Compensation Committee also administers the 2006 Performance Incentive Plan (and its predecessors, the 2004 Performance Incentive Plan, the 2002 Performance Incentive Plan, the 1997 Performance Incentive Plan, the Long-Term Performance Incentive Plan, the Management Incentive Compensation Plan and the 1996 Stock Incentive Plan) and the Employee Stock Purchase Plan (2006).

The Committee approves any newly adopted or major changes made to these plans and makes recommendations to the Board with respect to incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans. The Committee also reviews initiatives of Interpublic and its subsidiaries to retain and develop key employees on an ongoing basis and coordinates, manages and reports to the Board on the annual performance evaluation of key executives of Interpublic. In addition, the Committee is authorized, if appropriate, to hire experts or other independent advisers or legal counsel, at Interpublic's expense, to assist the Committee in the discharge of its duties. The Compensation Committee held five meetings in 2007.

The Committee's primary processes for establishing and overseeing executive compensation can be found below in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis under the heading "Setting Compensation for the Named Executive Officers."

Presiding Director

Interpublic created the position of Presiding Director of the Board in November 2002. The Presiding Director of the Board helps to coordinate communications between the Board and management of Interpublic. Specifically, the Presiding Director convenes and chairs meetings of the Non-Management Directors, coordinates and develops the agenda for, and chairs executive sessions of, the Non-Management Directors, coordinates feedback to the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer on behalf of the Non-Management Directors regarding business issues and management, and coordinates and develops with the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer the agendas and presentations for meetings of the Board together with the informational needs associated with those agendas and presentations. Mr. Goldstein currently serves as the Presiding Director.

Review and Approval of Transactions with Related Persons

Interpublic's Code of Conduct requires directors and employees to avoid activities that could conflict with the interests of Interpublic, except for transactions that are disclosed and approved in advance. Interpublic has adopted a written policy (the "Related Person Transaction Policy") for approval of any transaction, agreement or relationship between Interpublic or any of its consolidated subsidiaries on the one hand, and a Related Person (a "Related Person Transaction").

Under the Related Person Transaction Policy, a "Related Person" is defined as any (i) director, nominee for election as a director, or executive officer of Interpublic or a nominee for director or any of their immediate family members (as defined by the Related Person Transaction Policy); (ii) any entity, including not-for-profit and charitable organizations, controlled by or in which any of the foregoing persons have a substantial beneficial ownership interest; or (iii) any person who is known to be, at the time of the transaction, the beneficial owner of more than 5% of the voting securities of Interpublic or an immediate family member of such person.

Under the policy, Related Person Transactions do not include any employee benefit plan, program, agreement or arrangement that has been approved by the Compensation Committee or recommended by the Compensation Committee for approval by the Board.

To facilitate compliance with the policy, the Code of Conduct requires that employees, including directors and executive officers, report circumstances that may create or appear to create a conflict between the personal interests of the individual and the interests of Interpublic, regardless of the amount involved, to Interpublic's Chief Risk Officer using Interpublic's Compliance Report Form. Each director and executive officer annually confirms to the Company certain information about related person transactions as part of the preparation of Interpublic's Annual Report on Form 10-K and its annual proxy statement. Director nominees and persons promoted to executive officer positions must also confirm such information. Management also reviews its records and makes additional inquiries of management personnel and, as appropriate, third parties and other resources for purposes of identifying related person transactions, including related person transactions involving beneficial owners of more than 5% of Interpublic's voting securities.

The Audit Committee reviews transactions subject to the Related Person Transaction Policy and determines whether or not to approve or disapprove those transactions, by examining whether or not the transactions are fair, reasonable and within Interpublic policy. The Audit Committee makes its determination, by taking into account all relevant factors and the controls implemented to protect the interests of Interpublic and its shareholders. Among the factors that the Audit Committee takes into account in determining whether a transaction is fair and reasonable, as applicable, are the following:

the benefits of the transaction to Interpublic;

the terms of the transaction and whether they are arm's-length and in the ordinary course of Interpublic's business;

the direct or indirect nature of the related person's interest in the transaction;

the size and expected term of the transaction; and other facts and circumstances that bear on the materiality of the related person transaction under applicable law and listing standards.

No director may participate in any consideration or approval of a Related Person Transaction with respect to which he or she or any of his or her immediate family members is the Related Person. Related Person Transactions entered into, but not approved or ratified as required by the Related Person Transaction Policy, are subject to termination by Interpublic. If the transaction has been completed, the Audit Committee will consider if rescission of the transaction is appropriate and whether disciplinary action is warranted.

Share Ownership Guidelines

Director Share Ownership Guidelines. The Compensation Committee has adopted stock ownership guidelines for Non-Management Directors. These guidelines set the minimum ownership expectations for Non-Management Directors at a value of $240,000, which represents three times the Directors' current annual cash retainer of $80,000. Non-Management Directors have 5 years from their initial election to meet this guideline (or, for incumbent directors, until October 2012). Annual grants to Directors of shares of restricted stock are included in the determination of the ownership guideline amount, but stock underlying unexercised stock options held by Non-Management Directors is not included. In addition, Non-Management Directors will be required to hold all shares awarded to them (net of shares sold to meet tax requirements upon vesting) until they resign or retire from the Board. We believe that the equity component of director compensation serves to further align the Non-Management Directors with the interests of our shareholders. For information about share ownership of our Non-Management Directors, see "Non-Management Director Compensation" on page 15 and "Share Ownership of Management" on page 4.

Executive and Senior Management Share Ownership Guidelines. In 2007, the Compensation Committee adopted formal share ownership guidelines that set minimum expectations for ownership of stock by executive and senior management of Interpublic and its subsidiaries. Currently, 39 executives and members of senior management are covered under this share ownership policy. The ownership guidelines state that executives and members of senior management are expected to reach certain levels of stock ownership stated as a multiple of an executive's base salary within five years of becoming subject to the guidelines and are advised to reach the applicable level earlier. The expected level of stock ownership is as follows:

	Value of Shares Owned
Chief Executive Officer	5.0 × Base Salary
Executive officers and members of senior management	2.0 × Base Salary
Officers and members of senior management	0.75 × Base Salary

For purposes of these guidelines, stock ownership includes shares over which the executive has direct or indirect ownership or control, including shares of restricted stock and shares purchased under the 2006 Employee Stock Purchase Plan. Executive and senior management are expected to meet their ownership guidelines within five years of becoming subject to the guidelines. Shares underlying unexercised stock options held by executives and senior management are not considered in determining whether these guidelines have been met. Executive and senior management are advised to hold all compensatory shares (net of taxes) until the applicable stock ownership level is reached. For information about executive stock ownership, see "Share Ownership of Management" on page 4.

NON-MANAGEMENT DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Annual Board/Committee Retainer Fees

During 2007, each Non-Management Director received as cash compensation for services rendered an annual retainer of $80,000, and no additional compensation for attendance at Board or committee meetings.

The Chairperson of the Compensation Committee and the Chairperson of the Corporate Governance Committee each receives an additional retainer of $7,500 per year and the Chairperson of the Audit Committee receives an additional retainer of $10,000 per year.

Presiding Director Retainer Fees

As Presiding Director of the Board, Mr. Goldstein received an annual retainer of $50,000 in addition to his retainer as (i) a Non-Management Director and (ii) Chairperson of the Audit Committee.

Non-Management Directors Plan

Each Non-Management Director also receives, as consideration for services rendered as a member of the Board, stock-based compensation under the Interpublic Non-Management Directors' Stock Incentive Plan, which was approved by the shareholders in 2004 (the "Non-Management Directors' Plan"). The Non-Management Directors' Plan provides for an annual grant to each Non-Management Director of share of Interpublic common stock having a market value of $80,000 on the date of grant (the "Restricted Shares").

A recipient of Restricted Shares has all rights of ownership, including the right to vote and to receive dividends, except that, prior to the expiration of the earlier to occur of (i) the three-year period after the date of grant or (ii) the retirement of the director on or after the first anniversary of the date of grant (the "Restricted Period"), the recipient is prohibited from selling or otherwise transferring the shares.

If the recipient's service as a director terminates for any reason (including death) before the first anniversary of the date of grant of Restricted Shares, all such Restricted Shares will be forfeited.

The Corporate Governance Committee, which is responsible for the administration of the Non-Management Directors' Plan, may in its discretion direct Interpublic to make cash payments to the recipient of any Restricted Shares to assist in satisfying the federal income tax liability with respect to the receipt or vesting of any Restricted Shares awarded under the Non-Management Directors Plan. For 2007, the Corporate Governance Committee did not direct Interpublic to make any such cash payments.

On January 31, 2008, in accordance with the Non-Management Directors' Plan, each of Mss. Carter-Miller, Considine and Guilfoile and Messrs. Borelli, Brack, Goldstein, Greeniaus, Kerr, Samper and Thomas received a grant of 9,024 Restricted Shares.

Deferred Compensation Arrangement

Mr. Goldstein and Ms. Considine each has an agreement with Interpublic under which they have deferred all fees that the individual received as a director or as a member of any committee of the Board of Directors prior to 2007. The amounts deferred earn credits equivalent to 4.829% interest in accordance with the terms of Interpublic's Plan for Credits Equivalent to Interest on Balances of Deferred Compensation Owing under Employment Agreements. Payments of the amounts deferred, together with accrued interest, will be made to the director, or his or her designated beneficiaries, as the case may be, in a lump-sum upon the director's death, disability or retirement from the Board.

Both Ms. Considine and Mr. Goldstein have elected to receive all director fees on a current basis beginning with fees for services performed on and after January 1, 2007.

Outside Directors' Pension Plan

Each Non-Management Director who, as of December 31, 1995, had accumulated at least five years of service is entitled to receive an annual retirement benefit under the Interpublic Outside Directors' Pension Plan (the "Outside Directors' Pension Plan"). In general, the benefit becomes payable in the month following the month the director leaves the Board. The benefit is equal to the amount of the annual retainer paid to the director as a Board member in the year in which he or she ceased to serve as a director and will be paid for the same number of years as the director's years of service, up to a maximum of 15 years. In the event of the death of a director with a vested retirement benefit, the then present value of the director's unpaid retirement benefits will be paid to the surviving spouse or the estate of the director. Effective December 31, 1995, the Outside Directors' Pension Plan was terminated, except to the extent benefits were accrued prior to termination. Any director with fewer than five years of service on the date that the Plan was terminated is not entitled to receive any benefits under the Plan. Mr. Samper, who has over 15 years of service as a director, is the only current director entitled to receive benefits under the Outside Directors' Pension Plan.

The following table shows the compensation paid to Non-Management Directors for 2007.

- (1) Michael Roth, Interpublic's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, is not included in this table because he is an employee of Interpublic and thus receives no compensation for his services as Director. Mr. Roth's compensation as an employee of Interpublic is shown in the Summary Compensation Table on page 3, and the sections that follow the Summary Compensation Table.
- (2) Reflects aggregate dollar amount of all fees earned or paid in cash for services as a director, including annual retainer fees and chairmanship fees and, for Mr. Goldstein, fees for service as the Presiding Director.
- (3) Ms. Carter-Miller began her term as a director on July 26, 2007 following her election by the Board of Directors. Ms. Guilfoile began her term as a director on October 25, 2007 following her election by the Board of Directors.
- (4) Reflects the dollar amount recognized for financial statement reporting purposes for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 in accordance with SFAS 123(R), excluding estimated forfeitures, of awards pursuant to the Non-Management Directors Plan (and its predecessor, the Interpublic Outside Directors' Stock Incentive Plan) and thus may include amounts attributable to awards granted in and prior to 2007. Assumptions used in the calculation of these amounts are included in Note 14 to Interpublic's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 included in

Edgar Filing: INTERPUBLIC GROUP OF COMPANIES, INC. - Form DEF 14A

Interpublic's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on February 29, 2008 (the "2007 Form 10-K"). On January 31, 2007, each of the directors, other than Ms. Carter-Miller and Ms. Guilfoile, received a grant of 6,069 Restricted Shares. The "grant date fair value" of the shares awarded to the directors, calculated in accordance with SFAS 123(R), based on the average high and low shares price of Interpublic common stock ($13.18) on the grant date, is $80,000. The grants were made in accordance with the Non-Management Directors Plan, which is described in greater detail on page 15, under the heading "Non-Management Directors Plan."

- (5) Ms. Considine and Mr. Goldstein each have an agreement with Interpublic under which each director deferred all fees that he or she received as a director or a member of any committee prior to 2007, which is described in greater detail on page 15, under the heading Deferred Compensation Arrangement. Ms. Considine and Mr. Goldstein each elected to end the deferral of his or her fees as of December 31, 2006. During 2007, the deferral balances earned credits equivalent to an interest rate 4.829%, and accordingly were not "above-market" or "preferential" as defined by SEC rules.
- (6) Mr. Samper is entitled to receive benefits under the Outside Directors' Pension Plan, which is described in greater detail on page 16, under the heading "Outside Directors' Pension Plan." Mr. Samper, a director of Interpublic since 1990, achieved the maximum benefit under the Outside Directors' Pension Plan in 2005. The payments under the plan will commence the month following his retirement from the Board. As of December 31, 2007, the increased amount in the pension value for Mr. Samper is due primarily to the increase of the Board retainer fee from $40,000 to $80,000, effective January 1, 2007. The actuarial present value of Mr. Samper's accumulated benefit under the Outside Directors' Pension Plan" was determined using a discount rate of 6%.
- (7) The Board of Directors has approved a program under which the Company will match charitable contributions made by members of the Board of Directors and certain senior management employees of Interpublic and its subsidiaries up to a maximum of $20,000 that are made to eligible charities and academic institutions. The amount shown reflects the matching by the Company of charitable contributions made by Board members. The Non-Management Directors did not receive any other perquisites or other personal benefits.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Overview of Compensation Program

The Compensation Committee of the Board (for the purposes of this discussion and analysis, the "Committee") is responsible for establishing, implementing and continually monitoring adherence to the Company's compensation philosophy, approving compensation awarded to senior corporate and operating executives, including the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, and authorizing all awards under Interpublic's 2006 Performance Incentive Plan.

Throughout this proxy statement, we refer to the individuals who served as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer during fiscal 2007, as well as the other individuals included in the Summary Compensation Table on page 34 as the "named executive officers."

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

The success of our Company continues to depend on our ability to attract, retain and motivate highly skilled individuals throughout our organization. Employees are our Company's most vital asset and most significant expense, so we must make sure our investment in this resource is disciplined and designed to drive results. Therefore, our executive compensation programs have been designed to enable us to secure the needed talent and to drive Interpublic's transformation, long-term success and the creation of shareholder value.

In selecting, evaluating and administering our compensation programs, including those that involve the named executive officers and those that apply more broadly within the Company, management and the Committee are guided by the following key principles, which the Committee confirmed at its October 2007 meeting:

Performance-based and aligned with shareholders. Our compensation programs should emphasize pay-for-performance by placing a significant portion of total compensation "at risk" by making it contingent on the achievement of performance objectives, and aligning the interests of our executives with those of our shareholders. Accordingly, revenue growth, operating margin and profit measures form the bases of the financial performance goals for our named executive officers.

Market-based. Our total compensation levels should be competitive with those at other advertising and marketing service companies and, for some executive positions, with other labor markets and with companies undergoing similar transformations.

Short- and long-term balanced. Our programs should focus on both short- and long-term results, and balance the Company's need to retain talent to ensure sustainable performance over longer periods with our industry's emphasis on base salaries and annual incentives.

Total compensation-focused. Our compensation program decisions should be made in a total pay context. In this way, we can ensure our programs work together to comprehensively support our objectives.

Disciplined. While our programs and individual pay decisions should reflect differences in job responsibilities, labor market, geographic locations and specific business needs, the overall structure of compensation and benefits programs at the senior executive levels should be consistent except in the most unique individual- or business-specific situations.

Easily understood. Our programs should clearly describe for participants the link between their pay and their direct individual accomplishments and collective contributions to the Company's achievement of its strategic and operational objectives.

Supportive of Interpublic careers. Our programs should encourage and ensure talent development, movement within and between our operating units, and long-term retention.

Edgar Filing: INTERPUBLIC GROUP OF COMPANIES, INC. - Form DEF 14A

The Company's overall compensation program comprises four principal elements: base salary, annual incentives, long-term incentives consisting of stock options, performance shares and restricted stock awards, and retirement and other benefits.

An overview of each major compensation program element is included below in the section entitled "2007 Executive Compensation Program Elements."

Role of Executive Officers and Management in Compensation Decisions

The Committee makes all pay decisions related to the named executive officers. The CEO does not participate in the Committee's deliberations or decisions with regard to his own compensation. However, at the Committee's request, the CEO will present individual pay recommendations to the Committee for the CFO, the other named executive officers, and other executives subject to the Committee's review. The CEO's pay recommendations are informed by his assessments of individual contributions, achievement of specified performance objectives, talent review results, competitive pay data and other factors. These recommendations are then considered by the Committee with the assistance of the independent consultant.

The CEO, Chief Human Resources Officer, General Counsel, and Senior Vice President of Compensation and Benefits attend Committee meetings, but are not present for the Committee's executive sessions or for any discussion of their own compensation. Other senior executives, as appropriate to the topic, will attend Committee meetings, but they too do not attend executive sessions or any discussion of their own compensation.

Role of Independent Consultant

The Committee has retained the services of an external compensation consultant, Hewitt Associates ("Hewitt") to serve Interpublic and work for the Committee in its review of executive and director compensation practices, including the competitiveness of pay levels, executive compensation design issues, market trends, and technical considerations.

At no time during 2007 or at any other time did the Committee direct Hewitt to perform services in any particular manner or under any particular method. The Committee has the final authority to hire and terminate the consultant, and the Committee evaluates the consultant annually. At its July 2007 meeting, the Committee approved the retaining of Hewitt for 2008.

Setting Compensation for the Named Executive Officers

Interpublic's annual and long-term cash- and equity-based compensation programs are structured to motivate the named executive officers to achieve the business goals set by the Company and reward executives for achieving such goals. In addition, the Company's benefits are intended to be competitive in the relevant labor markets and attract top talent.

The Committee reviews and assesses compensation for the named executive officers on an annual basis. The Committee approves adjustments as appropriate based on the compensation philosophy and objectives discussed above and also considers the length of time since the last adjustment. Material changes in compensation typically only occur based on performance, in response to significant changes in responsibility or market conditions, or in limited circumstances when the company is at risk of losing a talented employee.

Compensation decisions are made based on the following information:

External Market Analysis: The Committee completes a review of market competitive compensation levels for the named executive officers annually. This analysis is performed by the independent consultant after the Committee has approved the peer companies used for the study. The Committee strives to pay executives between the 50th and 75th percentile pay levels from this external market analysis, while considering internal equity and individual performance.

Internal Equity: The Company has established internal levels of comparability based on revenue, operating income and headcount responsibility, geographic scope, and job complexity. Internal equity is one piece of information the Committee considers when making pay decisions.

The Committee's consideration is informed by the Company's leadership talent and succession plan annual review. The Committee participates in this annual review with the full Board. The process begins within the operating companies and corporate functions, and includes the CEO meeting with the chief executive officers of each of the Company's principal operating units and with the heads of the corporate staff functions to review senior talent, succession plans, and diversity and inclusion efforts. The CEO then reviews senior talent with the full Board, including a discussion of each of the named executive officers, their potential successors, and succession plans for his own position, thereby providing the Board with additional insight into each named executive officer's capabilities, potential and performance.

Individual Performance: The leadership talent and succession plan annual review described above includes the named executive officers. The review helps to identify succession to critical roles, ensure appropriate relative compensation decisions, and establish development opportunities for the named executive officers to increase their retention and reduce unwanted turnover. These reviews inform pay decisions by providing an in-depth look at the named executive officers, their responsibilities, relative contributions and future potential, and their relative compensation.

In 2007, the Committee's independent consultant conducted its annual market analysis to assess the competitiveness of total target compensation to the named executive officers. (Total target compensation includes base salary, target annual incentive and target long-term incentives.) To reflect the fact that the Company competes for executive talent with direct industry peers and a broader group of companies, the annual compensation analyses benchmarked pay against multiple peer groups to capture the labor markets that are sources of talent for the Company's businesses. These peer groups included:

Advertising Peers: Companies that directly compete with the Company for services and talent. This data was drawn from proxy and/or 20-F filings (SEC disclosure form pertinent to foreign private issuers).

Custom Peer Group: A peer group of 15 companies in related industries with similar talent needs, including publishing, media, and other talent-dependent companies facing similar talent challenges (i.e. professional services companies). The data was sourced from Hewitt Associates' Total Compensation Measurement Database and proxy filings. Statistical analysis was used to adjust the compensation data to reflect Interpublic's company size and structure.

Broader service industry companies: A broader group of companies in the publishing, media, broadcasting, consulting, professional and financial services industries. The median revenue of this group was $6.4 billion. This group was used only as a supplemental source when the other data sources (above) provided insufficient data. The data was sourced from Hewitt Associates' Total Compensation Measurement Database and proxy filings. Statistical analysis was used to adjust the compensation data to reflect Interpublic's company size and structure.

Data from the Advertising Peers and Custom Peer Group was used to assess the pay competitiveness of Messrs. Roth, Mergenthaler, and Dooner. Data from the broader service industry companies was used to supplement the analyses for Messrs. Krakowsky's and Sompolski's roles because there was insufficient data for these two roles from the two peer groups and the broader group of companies reflected the applicability of these roles to various industries.

Data from these sources was used to determine a range of competitive pay. By considering data for multiple peer groups, the Committee reduced concerns about potential inaccuracies in and limitations of a single competitive data point. The independent consultant advised that using multiple reference points provided the Committee with a more complete view of competitive pay practices within the Company's relevant labor markets for our named executive officers.

2007 Executive Compensation Program Elements

For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, the principal components of Interpublic's executive compensation program were:

Base salary;

Performance-based annual incentive compensation;

Long-term equity-based incentive compensation; and

Retirement and other benefits.

Base Salary

Base salary is central to our ability to attract and retain our talent, including our named executive officers. Although its prominence in the pay mix declines with seniority, base salary generally remains an important part of compensation discussions with executive talent in this industry.

Each year, after considering competitive analyses provided by the independent consultant and other factors as described below, the Committee determines the base salary for the CEO and, after considering recommendations from the CEO, the Committee approves base salaries for the other named executive officers.

The Committee considers many quantitative and qualitative factors when determining base salaries, including the executive's total compensation, individual performance, level of responsibility, tenure, pay history and time since last increase, and prior experience. As appropriate, the Committee will also consider any material changes in responsibilities and/or respond to perceived retention risks. The Committee makes use of periodic comparisons to base salary data paid for comparable positions within the Company and the independent consultant's annual compensation analyses for base salaries paid to comparable positions within comparably-sized advertising and companies in related industries with similar client focus and talent strategies.

Edgar Filing: INTERPUBLIC GROUP OF COMPANIES, INC. - Form DEF 14A

For the named executive officers, base salaries are the subject of individual employment agreements (described in greater detail on page 48 under the heading "Employment Agreements"), which give Interpublic the ability to increase, but not decrease, base salary. Effective January 1, 2007, the Committee decided to discontinue auto and club allowances for the CEO and other named executive officers, reflecting its belief that these perquisites are not necessary for these roles, and approved an increase to base salaries by an equivalent amount. These increased salaries are included in the Summary Compensation Table on page 34 and described in greater detail on page 48 under the heading "Employment Agreements." The 2007 salaries reported in the table include $30,000, $20,000, $35,000, $20,000 and $20,000 increases for Messrs. Roth, Mergenthaler, Dooner, Krakowsky and Sompolski, respectively that correspond to this shift of auto and club allowances to salary.

At its March 2008 meeting, the Committee elected to increase Mr. Roth's base salary to $1,400,000 effective April 1, 2008. The decision was based on the three-year period since becoming Chairman and CEO without an increase, competitive data for similar positions as provided by the independent consultant as part of its annual review, the CEO role's prominence in the Company's transformation, improvements in the Company's Profit Before Taxes, Operating Margin, and Revenue Growth, the Company becoming Sarbanes-Oxley compliant and its desire to ensure his retention.

In 2007, the Committee approved an increase in Mr. Mergenthaler's base salary to $900,000 effective November 1, 2007. This decision was based on the CEO's recommendation, the two-year period since he was hired without an increase, competitive data for similar positions as provided by the independent consultant as part of its annual review, the CFO role's prominence in the Company's transformation, the incumbent's strong performance in improving the Company's financial planning, budgeting and reporting capabilities, leading the Company's Sarbanes-Oxley compliance, improving the finance function's resources and personnel, and the Company's desire to ensure his retention.

The Committee also approved an increase in Mr. Krakowsky's base salary to $620,000 effective April 1, 2007. This decision was based on the CEO's recommendation, Mr. Krakowsky's additional responsibilities, which included greater direct involvement with the Company's media assets, competitive data for similar positions as provided by the independent consultant as part of its annual review, the prominence of his role in the Company's transformation, his strong performance and the Company's desire to ensure his retention.

Annual Incentives

Annual cash incentives are paid to reward performances that drive shareholder value through growth, improved profitability, and the achievement of high priority strategic objectives. They are a standard component of competitive compensation within our labor markets and an important tool for driving behavior, improving financial results and increasing shareholder value. The annual cash incentive awards to senior executives are made under the shareholder-approved 2006 Performance Incentive Plan (the "2006 PIP"). The 2006 PIP limits the bonus amount that may be earned by any one individual to $5,000,000.

For the purposes of 2007 and prospective 2008 bonus awards, the Committee has set a specific individual incentive award target for each named executive officer. The individual incentive award target is expressed as a percentage of each individual's base salary. Each year, as part of its total compensation review for senior executives and after considering the independent consultant's competitive analyses and other factors, the Committee determines the annual incentive target for the CEO, and, after considering recommendations from the CEO, approves the annual incentive targets for the named executive officers. The Committee's approach is consistent with that described above for base salary considering many quantitative and qualitative factors, as well as individual employment agreements. For 2007 and 2008, annual cash incentive targets, as a percent of base salary, for the named executive officers are as follows: Mr. Mergenthaler 100%; Mr. Dooner 100%; Mr. Krakowsky 100%; and Mr. Sompolski 75%. Mr. Roth's annual cash incentive target for 2007 was 150% of his base salary. At its March 2008 meeting, the Committee elected to increase Mr. Roth's target bonus to 160% of his base salary in recognition of the Company's improvements in its Profit Before Taxes, Operating Margin, and Revenue Growth, and the Company becoming Sarbanes-Oxley compliant. For the named executive officers other than Mr. Dooner, annual incentive targets are the subject of individual employment agreements (described in greater detail on page 48 under the heading "Employment Agreements") which give Interpublic the ability to increase, but not decrease, such targets. Mr. Dooner's annual incentive target is not an element of his employment contract and is periodically determined by the Committee.

In 2007, actual awards earned could vary between 0% and 200% of this individual incentive target based 2/3rds on financial performance and 1/3rd on the achievement of high priority objectives, except for Mr. Dooner who's award was based 50% on financial performance and 50% on the achievement of high priority objectives. For Messrs. Roth, Mergenthaler, Krakowsky and Sompolski financial performance was assessed based on the consolidated Operating Margin (OM) and Profit Before Taxes (PBT) of the Company. For Mr. Dooner, the financial performance measures were OM and Operating Income After Incentives (OIAI) of McCann Worldgroup. OM, PBT and OIAI are the Company's primary measures of profitability. PBT is defined as the profit before taxes from operating, non-operating, continuing and non-continuing operations. OIAI is defined as operating income before restructuring and impairment charges, and after the cost of all incentives. OM is defined as OIAI divided by Gross Revenue. Financial measures are equally-weighted with results compared to minimum, target and maximum levels set for Interpublic and its principal operating units early in the year. Prior to this assessment, financial results may be adjusted for one-time extraordinary items, with the specific items subject to the Committee's review and approval.

For 2008, the Committee revised the relative weights placed on financial objectives and high priority objectives to 2/3rds and 1/3rd, respectively, for Mr. Dooner. This change reflects the Committee's view that, although high priority objectives continue to represent key strategic imperatives, an increased portion of the award should be directly tied to the Company or unit's annual financial results to follow the key principles in the compensation philosophy.

High priority objectives are set early in the year, and may include quantitative and/or qualitative objectives specific to the individual. High priority objectives include goals tied to the Company's or operating unit's strategic priorities and typically include client retention, governance and control, talent management, diversity and inclusion and collaboration. For quantitative high priority objectives, specific objectives are established. For qualitative high priority objectives, specific accomplishments or expectations are defined and the Committee exercises judgment in assessing performance. With all high priority objectives, performance is assessed after considering written self-assessments provided to the Committee for the Company and its principal operating units. Results are then categorized as "below minimum," "minimum," "good," "very good," and "exceptional," and a rating of 0% to 200% of target assigned.

For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, the named executive officers received the following annual incentive awards, which were paid in March 2008.

Name	2007 Annual Incentive Award
Michael I. Roth	$ 2,404,640
Frank Mergenthaler	$ 1,300,000
John J. Dooner, Jr.	$ 1,750,000
Philippe Krakowsky	$ 1,000,000
Timothy A. Sompolski	$ 620,000

For the named executive officers including Mr. Roth and other than Mr. Dooner, the Committee considered Interpublic's financial performance and each individual's achievement of individual high priority objectives. The financial portion of each corporate executive's 2007 award is based on ratings of 143.6% and 132.0% for PBT and OM, respectively. These ratings were based on performance relative to pre-set targets that the Committee considered difficult to achieve, and final results that represented PBT and OM growth relative to 2006 of 225% and 349 basis points, respectively. The final financial performance ratings were based on pre-determined schedules approved by the Committee early in 2007 and each financial performance rating is applied to 1/3rd of each executive's incentive target. For the purposes of the financial performance assessment, the Committee approved adjustments to financial targets and results, as agreed at the time objectives were established, for certain extraordinary and non-recurring items, including merger and/or restructuring-related costs, non-cash Company driven real estate transactions and reversal of restatement-related credits from prior years.

For the corporate named executive officers other than Mr. Roth, each executive's high priority objective rating is based on the Committee and CEO's assessment of the executive officer's achievement of key strategic objectives.

Mr. Mergenthaler received a high priority objective rating of "exceptional" or 200% reflecting his leadership role and success in: managing the finance function, the Company achieving Sarbanes-Oxley compliance, improving finance talent at corporate and within the operating units, achieving broad-based cost containment and reduction disciplines, enhancing the Company's information tools and technology, dramatically improving the financial planning process, working effectively with the Company's financial constituencies, as well as leading the Company's diversity and inclusion initiatives as both Chairperson of the Corporate Diversity Council and an executive sponsor of employee resource groups.

Mr. Krakowsky received a high priority objective rating of "very good" to "exceptional" or 189.5% reflecting his leadership role and success in: defining the Company's strategy to improve overall competitiveness, implementing and evolving an aligned media strategy that contributed to dramatically improved performance at the Company's media assets in 2007, assessing the Company's digital offerings and providing oversight over certain emerging media activity, managing a number of major cross-agency client matters, as well as leading the Company's diversity and inclusion initiatives as an executive sponsor of employee resource groups and a member of the Corporate Diversity Council.

Mr. Sompolski received a high priority objective rating of "very good" or 159.5% reflecting his success in managing the human resources function including ongoing improvement in and development of human resources talent resident at Interpublic and the operating units, his leadership role in the Company's diversity and inclusion efforts; and his driving of improvements in the Company's talent management capabilities and succession planning.

Mr. Roth received a high priority objective rating of "very good" or 150% reflecting his leadership role and success in: leading the company back to growth and a dramatic improvement in profitability, the Company achieving Sarbanes-Oxley compliance, defining a vision and strategy for the Company that will enhance long-term competitiveness, improving management succession and talent development processes at the principal operating units and at Interpublic, providing personal leadership and making significant progress against employee and supplier diversity objectives, continuing to promote best practices in corporate governance, disclosure and transparency, as well as working effectively with the Company's financial constituencies.

One-half of Mr. Dooner's incentive target was tied to McCann Worldgroup's financial results relative to specific pre-set objectives and the remaining one-half to his achievement of individual or shared high priority objectives set for McCann Worldgroup. The financial portion of Mr. Dooner's 2007 award, therefore, was directly based on McCann Worldgroup's financial assessment of 94.6% and 93.8% for OIAI and OM, respectively, as McCann Worldgroup achieved 97.8% and 97.5%, respectively, of its pre-set financial performance objectives. The Company has elected in accordance with SEC guidance not to disclose the specific performance objectives or 2007 results as this financial data is not publicly-disclosed and might provide competitive insights that could harm our business. Management and the Committee, however, did deem these financial performance targets as relatively difficult to achieve and McCann Worldgroup's financial performance as very strong after considering that McCann Worldgroup's 2007 OIAI and OM targets represented 16% and 9% increases, respectively, over 2006 levels.

The remaining 50% of Mr. Dooner's incentive target was tied to his achievement of pre-set high priority objectives and a rating of "very good" to "exceptional" or 178.2%. This assessment, recommended by the CEO and approved by the Committee, reflects McCann Worldgroup's significant creative performance, becoming Sarbanes-Oxley compliant, actions taken on specific talent-related initiatives, and progress on diversity and inclusion initiatives across the operating company.

Long-term Incentives

Long-term Incentive awards support Interpublic's talent management strategy, and are designed to retain and attract top talent, and align executive and shareholder interests by focusing recipients on the long-term performance of Interpublic and its principal operating units. Management and the Committee believe long-term incentives are a vital way to encourage collaboration across the Company and drive sustainable results across a multi-year period. Further, these incentives ensure that executives have compensation at risk for longer periods of time and subject to forfeiture in the event they terminate their employment.

The Company's annual equity awards are made annually on the final trading day in May each year. In advance, the Committee determines the long-term incentive target, defined as a dollar expected value, for the CEO and, after considering recommendations from the CEO, approves the long-term incentive targets for the other named executive officers. This is part of its total compensation review for senior executives and considers the independent consultant's competitive analyses and other factors, such as each executive's total compensation, pay history, absolute and relative performance, and expected future performance. The Committee's approach is consistent with that described above for base salary considering many quantitative and qualitative factors, as well as individual employment agreements. For the named executive officers, long-term incentive targets are the subject of individual agreements (described in greater detail on page 48 under the heading "Employment Agreements"), and which allow Interpublic to increase, but not decrease, long-term incentive targets.

Once the recommendations are approved, long-term incentive awards are made under the 2006 PIP. In 2007, Mr. Roth's long-term incentive awards comprised stock options and performance shares. For the other named executive officers, annual long-term incentive awards comprised a mix of stock options, restricted stock and performance shares. For the named executive officers, the Committee believes stock options are an effective long-term incentive as they provide senior strategy-setting and policy-making leaders, the members of the Company's leadership team best able to directly influence Interpublic's share price, with additional incentive tied to stock price gains.

Total long-term incentive expected value guidelines are set for each position. The Committee set the following long-term incentive expected value guidelines for 2007: Mr. Roth, $5,000,000; Mr. Mergenthaler, $1,000,000; Mr. Dooner, $1,000,000; Mr. Krakowsky, $500,000; and Mr. Sompolski, $800,000. For 2007, based on the Company's significant progress in its transformation including improvements in its Profit Before Taxes, Operating Margin, and Revenue Growth, and likelihood of being fully compliant with Sarbanes-Oxley by year-end, the Committee decided to provide Mr. Roth with an additional long-term incentive award with an expected value of $1,000,000. For participants receiving more than one type of long-term incentive, the expected value is then allocated among the types of awards according to specific formulae. For grants made in 2007, the expected value of Mr. Roth's long-term incentive award was intended to be split equally between stock options and performance shares, and for the remaining named executive officers, 50% of the total long-term incentive expected value is provided in stock options, 25% in performance shares and 25% in restricted shares. The split is intended to be consistent with the Company's executive compensation key principals.

Edgar Filing: INTERPUBLIC GROUP OF COMPANIES, INC. - Form DEF 14A

The number of stock options or restricted shares granted, or performance shares awarded at target, is determined by dividing the expected value allocated to each type of award, by its corresponding estimated expected value at the time of grant. These estimated expected values are developed with the independent consultant's assistance, and for stock options with the assistance of the third party that provides the Company with stock option values for SFAS 123(R) reporting purposes, and reflect an approximation of the relative economic values for stock options, performance shares and restricted shares. In all cases, these expected values and stock option exercise prices are based on the Company's stock price on the date of grant using the average of the Company's high and low prices for that day. In no event is the grant date to precede the approval date.

The expected values at grant for the named executive officers' 2007 annual long-term incentive awards were as follows:

Name	Stock Options	Performance Shares	Restricted Shares
Michael I. Roth	$ 2,446,000	$ 3,000,000	$ 0
Frank Mergenthaler	$ 500,000	$ 250,000	$ 250,000
John J. Dooner, Jr.	$ 500,000	$ 250,000	$ 250,000
Philippe Krakowsky	$ 250,000	$ 125,000	$ 125,000
Timothy A. Sompolski	$ 400,000	$ 200,000	$ 200,000

Under the terms of the 2006 PIP, Mr. Roth's 2007 stock option award could not exceed 500,000 stock options. For 2007, this limit resulted in an award with a total grant date expected value of $2,446,000, which resulted in a $554,000 shortfall relative to the expected value with respect to stock options approved by the Committee. Similarly, in 2006, this limit resulted in a $301,000 expected value shortfall relative to the expected value with respect to stock options approved by the Committee. In view of the reduced awards in 2006 and 2007, the Committee awarded Mr. Roth restricted shares in February 2008 with an expected value equal to the expected values for the 2006 and 2007 stock options on the restricted stock grant date. The Committee, with the assistance of a third party that provides the Company with stock option values for SFAS 123(R) reporting purposes, determined the expected value of the 2006 and 2007 stock options shortfall to be $517,778 as of February 2008. Accordingly, Mr. Roth was granted restricted shares with an expected value at grant of $517,778, or 59,583 shares, with two-year vesting, which is intended, on average, to replicate the vesting periods for the 2006 and 2007 stock option awards.

Equity awards are made on an annual grant cycle except for those made as needed on a case-by-case basis to attract new executives, retain existing talent, address total compensation objectives, substitute for cash, and/or reflect a material change in responsibilities. In 2007, the Committee made the following grants outside of the normal annual grant cycle:

In February 2007, the Committee granted restricted stock to Mr. Roth with a fair market value of $1,000,000 with just over three-year vesting. As discussed in the section below headed "Retirement and Other Benefits," this grant was based on the Committee's assessment of Mr. Roth's wealth accumulation and retirement benefits, and the decision was made in conjunction with the decision to increase his annual Capital Accumulation Plan credit.

At the end of October, the Committee granted Mr. Mergenthaler restricted stock with a fair market value of $1,000,000 with four-year vesting. This award was made as part of Mr. Mergenthaler's total compensation review as described in the base salary section above.

In March of 2007, the Committee granted Mr. Dooner restricted stock with a fair market value of $500,000 with three-year vesting as partial payment of his annual incentive related to 2006 performance. As disclosed in the Company's 2007 proxy statement, the Committee considered McCann Worldgroup's 2006 financial results, including assessments of 121% and 110% for OIAI and OM (as defined in the third paragraph of the "Annual Incentives" section above), respectively, and a high priority objective rating of "very good" for 2006 reflecting McCann Worldgroup's significant creative gains, improvements made toward achieving a Sarbanes-Oxley compliant environment, progress on specific talent-related initiatives and other strategic steps forward. Based on this assessment, the Committee approved a $2,000,000 annual incentive award, $1,500,000 of which was paid in cash and the balance in restricted shares with three-year vesting and a $500,000 fair market value at their grant on March 30, 2007.

In 2007, annual equity awards were made on May 31. At the Committee's May meeting, except for performance shares for which specific target expected values are approved for named executive officers at the Committee's March meeting, the Company presents a specific list with equity award recommendations by individual for the Committee's review and approval. Equity award recommendations must include individual grant amounts and individual grant details. Also at this meeting, the Committee will make further determinations regarding the proposed annual equity awards and the specific grant date, which is not to precede the date of the Committee's meeting. In each case, if awards are approved, the Committee's determination will specify in detail an objective formula (or formulae) for determining, in respect of each grant, as applicable, option exercise price, number of options or number of shares of restricted shares or restricted stock units, and performance shares or performance share units to be issued. The formula (or formulae) for determining an option's exercise price, the number of options or stock appreciation rights, or number of shares of restricted shares, restricted stock units, to be issued will be based on the fair market value of a share of the Company common stock on the grant date. The formula (or formulae) for determining the number of performance shares or performance units to be issued will be based on 80% of the fair market value of a share of the Company's common stock on the grant date. This 80% ratio was determined by the Committee's independent consultant as the expected value of the Company's performance shares and performance units.

At its March 2008 meeting, the Committee approved, for award on the final trading day of May 2008, the performance share portion of 2008 annual equity awards to the current and possible future named executive officers. For the named executive officers, the expected values, assuming performance at the target level, were as follows: $2,500,000 for Mr. Roth, $250,000 for Messrs. Mergenthaler and Dooner, $125,000 for Mr. Krakowsky, and $200,000 for Mr. Sompolski with the specific number of target shares to be determined on the award date based on an expected value per share, which equals 80% of the share price on the grant date as described above.

Stock options are granted on such terms as are approved by the Committee. The grant must occur subsequent to the Committee's approval, the term of the option may not exceed ten years and the exercise price may not be less than the fair market price of the Common Stock on the date of grant. In the case of a new executive hire, the Committee may approve the award prior to the extension of the employment offer and the grant is timed for the final trading day of the month in which the executive's employment begins.

All stock options granted to the named executive officers in 2007 vest 33%, 33% and 34% on the second, third and fourth anniversaries, respectively, of the date of grant. The Company believes that these vesting provisions promote a long-term focus and provide a strong retention incentive for participants. Grants to the named executive officers are shown in the Grants of Plan-Based Awards Table on page 37.

Full-value shares play a prominent role in the Company's long-term incentives program with a focus on restricted stock and performance shares. For restricted stock, the sale or transfer of shares is typically restricted for a period of three years from the grant date and the shares are subject to forfeiture if the executive leaves Interpublic before the restrictions expire, unless the Committee determines otherwise. Two exceptions generally apply as follows. First, the Company may, on a case-by-case basis grant shares with different vesting periods, most often in the case of up-front equity grants made to new executives as consideration for equity forfeited at prior employers. In these instances, the Company will strive to generally approximate the vesting terms that existed for the forfeited equity and, per the terms of the plan for restricted stock, will not vest in less than one year. Second, equity awards may be used to address a specific employment or retention need and the vesting period may be lengthened or shortened as appropriate to the specific individual circumstances.

Edgar Filing: INTERPUBLIC GROUP OF COMPANIES, INC. - Form DEF 14A

For performance shares, participants are given a target number of shares at the time of the awards. At the end of the three-year performance and vesting period(s), the participant is granted full-value shares. The number of shares granted may vary from 0% to 200% of the target number based on Interpublic or its principal operating unit's multi-year performance against pre-set objectives. For the periods beginning in 2005, 2006 and 2007, performance will be assessed against equally-weighted metrics intended to drive revenue growth and profitability. Final award values are, therefore, a function of performance against these metrics and the price performance of Interpublic's Common Stock, and are paid in fully-vested shares or cash, as determined by the Committee, as soon as practicable after audited financial results are available for the completed performance period, the Committee approves the results, and the vesting period ends.

For the named executive officers, other than Mr. Dooner, performance shares awarded in 2007 for the 2007-09 performance period are tied to Interpublic's three-year cumulative revenue growth and operating margin. Performance shares awarded to Mr. Dooner are tied to the same metrics for McCann Worldgroup. The target number of shares were established on May 31, 2007 based on the share price on that date, and the final number of shares, if any, will be issued at the end of the three-year performance period depending on the extent to which the performance objectives are achieved. The Company has elected in accordance with SEC guidance not to disclose the specific performance objectives as these financial target data are not publicly-disclosed and might provide competitive insights that could harm our business. Management and the Committee, however, based on year-over-year comparisons, deem these financial performance targets as relatively difficult to achieve.

Retirement and Other Benefits

The Company also provides its named executive officers with life and medical insurance, retirement savings and compensation deferral programs and other benefits. The other benefits include the Capital Accumulation Plan ("CAP"), a non-qualified plan under which a fixed dollar amount and interest are annually credited to an account in each participant's name, and the Senior Executive Retirement Income Plan ("SERIP"), a defined benefit plan under which participants receive a fixed annual annuity for 15 years upon a qualifying retirement. Additional benefits may include executive medical benefits, the Company's qualified 401(k) savings plan and reimbursement for tax planning and preparation.

Other compensation and benefits serve several purposes. Some, like tax planning and executive medical are in direct response to industry norms, and the expectations of executives and candidates alike.

As part of its competitive pay analyses, the independent consultant periodically provides the Committee with a comparison of Interpublic's benefits programs to those for peer companies. The sample of peer companies used for this purpose, while different from that described earlier for assessing the Company's compensation programs, is intended to mirror those earlier comparator groups as closely as possible. As the benefits competitive data is provided using different survey sources, the company samples are not identical. In its work, the independent consultant attempts to ensure that the benefits sample is as close to the other sample(s) as possible. This benefits program review is conducted in the context of total compensation, and the analyses consider compensation and benefits in total.

Decisions regarding new or enhanced participation in these programs are made after considering the total compensation, and are often used as inducements for new hires to accept employment or as one component to a total pay discussion or negotiation. For many of the named executive officers, retirement and other benefits are the subject of individual employment agreements (described in greater detail on page 48 under the heading "Employment Agreements"), which give Interpublic the ability to increase, but not decrease, the specific benefit.

The Company's 401(k) savings plan is a tax-qualified retirement savings plan pursuant to which all U.S.-based employees, including the named executive officers, are able to contribute up to 25% of their annual compensation (100% if age 50 or older) on a before-tax basis. The annual contribution is subject to dollar limits prescribed by the federal tax laws. For employees with less than 10-years service, the Company will match 50% of the first 6% of compensation that is contributed. For employees with 10 or more years of service, the Company will match 75% of the first 6% of compensation that is contributed. The Company's 401(k) savings plan also allows after-tax contributions up to limits prescribed by the federal tax laws. The match applies to the total amount contributed before- and after-tax.

The Company provides an additional performance-based match whereby a fixed percentage may be contributed to participants' accounts based on the Committee's assessment of the Company's annual performance, including the Company's Operating Margin for its consolidated U.S. businesses relative to pre-set targets. The objective of this feature is to induce greater participation in the 401(k) savings plan and to provide all U.S. employees with a link to the Company's performance. For 2007, the Committee approved an additional match equal to 8% of participant matched contributions.

On a case-by-case basis, the Committee and Management Human Resources Committee (MHRC), comprising Interpublic's CEO, CFO, General Counsel and Chief Human Resources Officer, to which the Committee delegates certain responsibilities, consider the appropriateness of CAP and SERIP participation and benefits. In making recommendations to the Committee or MHRC, the Company considers the individual's role, level in the organization, total compensation level, performance, length of service, and other factors. When making determinations to award additional non-qualified cash wealth accumulation or retirement awards, the Company also considers all forms of accrued qualified and non-qualified retirement benefits previously awarded or earned, and assumes the executive contributed the maximum amount permitted to the 401(k) savings plan.

The CAP provides participants with an annual dollar credit to an interest-bearing account. Under the terms of the Plan, interest is credited on December 31st of each year at an interest rate equal to the closing 10-year U.S. Treasury yield on the last business day of the immediately preceding calendar year. As reflected in the Summary Compensation Table on page 34, credits were added in 2007 to the CAP accounts of Messrs. Roth, Mergenthaler, Sompolski and Krakowsky per terms of agreements made in prior years. At its February 2007 meeting, the Committee decided to increase Mr. Roth's annual CAP credit by $250,000 and to grant him $1,000,000 in restricted shares, as described under "long-term incentives" above, after considering the independent consultant's total compensation review, a wealth accumulation analysis, and Mr. Roth's tenure and performance in the role. At its October 2007 meeting, the Compensation Committee decided to increase Mr. Mergenthaler's annual CAP credit by $100,000 after considering the independent consultant's total compensation review, Mr. Mergenthaler's tenure and expected service at retirement. For a more detailed description of the CAP, see "Deferred Compensation Arrangements The Interpublic Capital Accumulation Plan" on page 45.

The SERIP provides a defined annual annuity to selected executives for a 15-year period upon satisfying the vesting provisions. Participation is limited to a select group of very senior executives and requires Committee approval. At its March 2008 meeting, after considering the independent consultant's total compensation review, a wealth accumulation analysis, and Mr. Roth's tenure and performance in the role, the Compensation Committee approved Mr. Roth's participation in the SERIP. The Compensation Committee set Mr. Roth's annual annuity under the SERIP, upon attainment of age 65, at $110,000. Mr. Roth is the only named executive officer that participates in the SERIP. For a more detailed description of the SERIP, see "Pension Arrangements The Interpublic Senior Executive Retirement Income Plan" on page 43.

Severance and Change of Control Benefits

The named executive officers may receive severance benefits from the Company under the terms of their employment agreements (described in greater detail on page 48 under the heading "Employment Agreements"), the Company's Executive Severance Plan and/or their change of control agreements depending on the circumstances of their terminations. Under the 2006 PIP, named executive officers receive accelerated vesting and payouts at target of their annual and long-term incentives upon a Change of Control (as defined on page 58). Severance benefits under these and other applicable plans or agreements are described below.

In 2006, the Company's Board of Directors approved the Executive Severance Plan ("ESP") to provide severance benefits in certain situations and in a consistent manner that are competitive with those of our direct competitors and general industry, and to mitigate job security concerns for named executive officers and other senior executives. Under the Plan, severance benefits will be provided if the executive's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or the executive resigns for good reason (collectively, a "Qualifying Termination"). Severance levels depend on each executive's role with more senior executives receiving higher severance levels, including base salary and medical benefits. Severance periods (during which a participant continues to receive his base salary and medical benefits at active employee rates, or cash in lieu thereof, for the severance period followed by COBRA coverage, or cash in lieu thereof, at regular COBRA rates) for the named executive officers are as follows: 24 months for Mr. Roth and 18 months for Messrs. Mergenthaler, Dooner, Krakowsky and Sompolski.

In 2007, the Company entered into revised change of control agreements with selected senior executives, including each of the named executive officers. These agreements are intended to encourage the retention and focus of critical executive talent in the face of the potentially disruptive impact of a Change of Control of the Company. In addition, the agreements are intended to align executive and shareholder interests by enabling executives to consider corporate transactions that are in the best interests of shareholders and other constituents of the Company without undue concern over whether the transactions may jeopardize the executives' own employment.

Although there are some differences in benefit levels depending on the executive's role, the basic elements are consistent across all agreements. First, benefits are contingent on a "double trigger," or a Change of Control followed by a Qualifying Termination two years thereafter. Second, the agreements provide for an enhanced severance benefit, relative to the ESP and named executive officers' employment agreements, that includes a severance payment equal to a multiple (3 for Messrs. Roth and Dooner, and 2 for Messrs. Mergenthaler, Krakowsky and Mr. Sompolski) of the individual's annual base salary plus annual incentive target (this benefit is instead of, not in addition to, the ESP benefit discussed above or similar benefits that may be provided for in employment agreements) and continued health insurance at active employee rates, or cash in lieu thereof, for the period on which the severance payment is based (i.e. the multiple set forth below times 12 months) followed by COBRA coverage (or cash in lieu thereof) at regular COBRA rates. The accelerated vesting of equity awards, treatment of deferred compensation accounts, retirement benefits, and the like, are defined by each specific plan. Change of control agreements, however, also provide for pro-rated dollar and interest credit to the executive's CAP account for the year in which the severance period ends.

Change of control benefits for the named executive officers under the CAP, SERIP and outstanding Executive Special Benefit Agreements ("ESBAs") are as follows:

Upon a Change of Control, Interpublic will contribute to an unsecured trust an amount that an outside auditor determines is equal, or approximately equal, to the value of (a) the benefits that are accrued and vested under the CAP, SERIP and all ESBAs, and (b) the benefits that could become accrued and vested under the CAP, SERIP and all ESBAs within two years after the Change of Control including special CAP, SERIP and ESBA benefits that could become payable under the change of control agreements, plus an allowance for expenses that an outside auditor reasonably expects to be incurred in administering the CAP, SERIP and all ESBAs, and the unsecured trust, during the two years after the change of control.

If, within two years after a Change of Control, the executive's employment is terminated by the Company pursuant to a Qualifying Termination, the executive would receive the following benefits under CAP, SERIP and any ESBA (in full satisfaction of Interpublic's obligations to the executive under those plans):

CAP	SERIP	ESBA
The executive's CAP account would become fully-vested, in the event it was not previously-vested, and the executive would receive the full value of his CAP account in a lump sum.	If, as of December 31 of the calendar year in which the change of control occurs, (a) the executive's SERIP benefit will be fully vested or (b) the executive will be (i) age 55 or older and (ii) within two years of full vesting, the executive's SERIP would become fully vested and the executive would receive a lump-sum payment equal to the present value of his unreduced SERIP benefit in a lump sum.	If, as of December 31 of the calendar year in which the Change of Control occurs, (a) the executive is eligible to receive the maximum benefit payable under his ESBA or (b) the executive will be (i) age 55 or older and (ii) within two years of qualifying for the maximum benefit payable under his ESBA, the executive would receive the present value of the maximum benefit payable under his ESBA.
The executive's CAP account would receive credits for the severance period, determined as if severance were paid in semi-monthly installments rather than as a lump sum as provided in change of control agreements, and pro-rated dollar and interest credits for the year in which the termination occurs.	If the executive does not satisfy either of the conditions above, the executive would receive a lump-sum payment equal to the present value of the vested portion of his SERIP benefit.	If the executive does not satisfy either of the conditions above, the executive would receive a lump-sum payment equal to the present value of the vested portion of his ESBA benefit, determined based on his age at the end of his severance period (determined as if severance were paid in semi-monthly installments, rather than as a lump sum).

In 2007, the Committee approved the implementation, effective January 1, 2008, of stock ownership guidelines for non-employee directors, named executive officers and other senior executives. The purpose of the stock ownership guidelines are to:

Align the financial interests of executives and non-employee directors with the Company's shareholders

Communicate the commitment and personal investment of executives and directors in the business turnaround

Conform with corporate governance best practices trends

The established stock ownership guidelines are expressed as multiples of base salary. The multiple for the CEO is five times base salary and for the other named executive officers is two times base salary. The executives in the program have five years to reach their established guidelines, which will be measured by adding actual Company stock owned, unvested restricted shares and any shares owned through the Company stock purchase plan.

Tax and Accounting Implications

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

U.S. federal income tax law prohibits the Company from taking a tax deduction for certain compensation paid in excess of $1,000,000 to the named executive officers (other than the principal financial officer). However, performance-based compensation, as defined in the tax law, is fully deductible if the plan under which the compensation is paid has been approved by shareholders and meets other requirements. The Company's policy is to qualify its incentive compensation programs for full corporate deductibility to the extent feasible and consistent with its overall compensation objectives.

As part of its role, the Committee reviews and considers the deductibility of executive compensation. The Company believes that compensation paid in 2007 under the management incentive plans is generally fully deductible for federal income tax purposes, except as indicated below. In certain situations, the Committee may approve compensation that will not meet these requirements in order to ensure competitive levels of total compensation for its named executive officers. In this regard, for 2007, base salary amounts and restricted share awards in excess of $1,000,000 (in the aggregate) for the named executive officer covered by Section 162(m) was not deductible for federal income tax purposes.

The Company has guidelines for reviewing the impact of the accounting and tax treatment of various forms of compensation covered by the 2006 PIP. The guidelines identify specific responsibilities and actions required by the Human Resources, Accounting and Tax departments for all group and individual actions. These guidelines are designed to ensure that accounting and tax treatment of the awards granted under the plan are properly addressed.

Nonqualified Deferred Compensation

On October 22, 2004, the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 was signed into law, changing the tax rules applicable to nonqualified deferred compensation arrangements, which generally include any deferred compensation and nonqualified retirement benefits, as well as most of the Company's severance arrangements. The Company is operating all deferred compensation arrangements in good faith compliance with the statutory provisions which were effective January 1, 2005 and the final regulations under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code issued on April 10, 2007. The Company is in the process of amending all plans, agreements, and other arrangements with nonqualified deferred compensation subject to the new rules by the deadline established by the Internal Revenue Service, which is currently December 31, 2008.

Accounting for Stock-based Compensation

Beginning on January 1, 2006, the Company began accounting for stock-based payments including its grants of stock options, restricted shares and performance shares in accordance with the requirements of SFAS 123(R).

Compensation Recovery in the Event of a Financial Restatement

For performance periods beginning after December 31, 2005, Interpublic's Board has adopted a policy under which, in the event of a significant restatement of financial results due to fraud or misconduct, it will review payments made to senior executives on the basis of having met or exceeded specific performance targets during the restatement period. If such bonuses would have been lower had they been calculated based on such restated results, the Board will, to the extent permitted by governing law, seek to recoup for the benefit of the Company all such bonuses to senior executives whose fraud or misconduct resulted in such restatement, as determined by the Board. For purposes of this policy, the term "senior executives" means executive officers for purposes of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the term "bonuses" means awards under The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc. 2004 Performance Incentive Plan or any equivalent incentive plan which supersedes such plan.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Among its duties, the Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing and discussing with the Company's management the Compensation Disclosure and Analysis included in this Proxy Statement for the 2008 Annual Meeting (the "CDA"). Based on such a review and discussion, the Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors that the CDA be included in this Proxy Statement and incorporated by reference in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007.

(1) Includes in each of 2006 and 2007 annual salary in the amount of $50,000 that Mr. Krakowsky has elected to forgo in consideration for the receipt of an Executive Special Benefit Agreement which is more fully described in this Proxy Statement under the heading "Pension Arrangements Executive Special Benefit Agreements" on page 42.

(2) The amounts reflect the dollar amount of expense recognized for financial statement reporting purposes for each fiscal year, in accordance with SFAS 123(R), excluding estimated forfeitures, of awards pursuant to the 2006 Performance Incentive Plan (the "2006 PIP") and thus may include amounts attributable to awards granted in fiscal years prior to those covered in the table. Assumptions used in the calculation of these amounts are set forth in Note 14 to Interpublic's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended

December 31, 2007 included in the 2007 Form 10-K.

- (3) The amounts reflect the dollar amount of expense recognized for financial statement reporting purposes for each fiscal year, in accordance with SFAS 123(R), excluding estimated forfeitures, of awards pursuant to the 2006 PIP and thus include amounts attributable to awards granted in fiscal years prior to those reported in the table. Assumptions used in the calculation of this amount are set forth in Note 14 to Interpublic's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 included in the 2007 Form 10-K.
- (4) For Mr. Roth, with respect to the 348,515 SAPUs awarded to him on August 4, 2005, the amounts recognized for financial statement reporting purposes include (i) a credit of $363,614 for 2007 (due to the decrease in the price of Interpublic common stock from $12.24 as of December 31, 2006 to $8.11 as of December 31, 2007) and (ii) a charge of $563,433 for 2006. The SAPUs are described in greater detail on page 40 in footnote 4 of the Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End Table.
- (5) The Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation for Mr. Dooner for 2006 does not include $500,000 which was paid to him through the issuance of 40,666 restricted shares having a fair market value of $500,000 on March 30, 2007. The restrictions on the sale or transfer of such shares will lapse on March 30, 2010.
- (6) No named executive officer received preferential or above-market earnings on deferred compensation. The amounts in this column consist entirely of the change in pension value for each individual.
- (7) Mr. Krakowsky is entitled to receive benefits under his Executive Special Benefit Agreement ("ESBA"), which is described in greater detail on page 42, under the heading "Pension Arrangements Executive Special Benefit Agreements." The ESBA provides for fixed payments over a 15 year period. The amount of each payment depends on Mr. Krakowsky's age when his employment terminates. The change in the present value of the benefits under the ESBA has been calculated assuming that Mr. Krakowsky will continue working for the Company until he reaches age 60 (at which time he would qualify for the maximum payout under the ESBA).
- For 2006, due to the increase in the discount rate from 2005 (5.50%) to 2006 (5.75%) the actuarial present value of Mr. Krakowsky's maximum possible benefit under the ESBA decreased by $3,728, as of December 31, 2006.
- (8) Mr. Dooner is entitled to receive benefits under the Retirement Account Plan, which is described in greater detail on page 44, under the heading "Pension Arrangements Retirement Account Plan." The Retirement Account Plan provides for annual fixed payments. As of 2006, Mr. Dooner has been eligible for the maximum benefit under the Retirement Account Plan.
- As of December 31, 2007, due to the unreduced benefit and the increase in the discount rate from 2006 (5.75%) to 2007 (6.00%) the actuarial present value of Mr. Dooner's accumulated benefit under the Retirement Account Plan decreased by $32,724 in 2007.

(1) These columns show the range of potential payouts that the executive was entitled to earn for calendar year 2007 pursuant to annual incentive awards made under the 2006 PIP as described in the section titled "Annual Incentives" in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis. The resulting payments are shown in the Summary Compensation Table in the column titled "Non-equity Incentive Plan Compensation."

(2) On May 31, 2007, the Compensation Committee granted a performance-based share award under the 2006 PIP for senior executives including the named executive officers. The actual number of shares received under this award will be based on Interpublic's cumulative gross revenues and operating margins for the 2007 to 2009 performance period. Depending on the actual level of performance relative to goals, an individual may receive an award ranging from 0% to 200% of the target number of shares. The May 31, 2007 award is described in greater detail on page 25, under the heading "Compensation Discussion and Analysis Long Term

Incentives."

- (3) The shares reflected in this column represent restricted stock awards granted under the 2006 PIP. All the shares of restricted stock vest on the third anniversary date of the award, other than the award of (i) 79,114 shares of restricted stock awarded to Mr. Roth on February 28, 2007, which vest on May 22, 2010 and (i) 98,619 shares of restricted stock awarded to Mr. Mergenthaler on October 31, 2007, which vest on October 31, 2011.
- (4) All of the options reflected in this column represent stock option grants awarded under the 2006 PIP. All of the stock options have a ten-year term and an exercise price equal to 100% of the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant.
- (5) Exercise price of the stock options is based on the "fair market value" of the Common Stock, defined as the average of the high and low sales price of the Common Stock on the grant date as quoted on the New York Stock Exchange.
- (6) The grant date fair value shown in the table for the performance-based share award grants under the "Estimated Future Payouts Under Equity Incentive Plan Awards" columns is based on the "Target" number of shares times the average high and low price of Interpublic common stock on the grant date.
- (7) The grant date fair value shown in the table for the restricted stock award grants shown under the "All Other Stock Awards: Number of Shares of Stock or Units" column is calculated by multiplying the number of shares vesting times the average high and low price of Interpublic common stock on the grant date.
- (8) The grant date fair value shown in the table for the stock option awards is calculated using the Black-Scholes value of the stock options on the grant date.

Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End

The values shown in the columns indicated is calculated by multiplying the number of shares vesting times the average high and low price of Interpublic common stock on December 31, 2007.

PENSION ARRANGEMENTS

Executive Special Benefit Agreements

Mr. Dooner is a party to five Executive Special Benefit Agreements ("ESBAs") entered into in between 1986 and 2002, which in the aggregate provide that if he retires, resigns or otherwise terminates employment with Interpublic after his 60th birthday, or his employment terminates due to death or disability, Interpublic will pay to Mr. Dooner (or his beneficiaries, in the case of death) $2,514,500 per year for 15 years. Alternatively, if he retires, resigns or otherwise terminates employment with Interpublic (for a reason other than death or disability) at his current age of 59, he will receive $2,188,940 per year for 15 years.

The ESBAs provide that in the event Mr. Dooner's employment is terminated pursuant to a Qualifying Termination, the amount of Mr. Dooner's annual benefit will be determined based on his age as of the due date for his last severance payment, rather than his age as of his termination date.

If Mr. Dooner's employment terminates within two years after a Change of Control of Interpublic, his ESBA benefits would be paid in a lump sum, rather than installments. The amount of the lump sum would be based on the then-present value of the following series of payments:

If Mr. Dooner's termination is a Qualifying Termination, the series of payments would be $2,514,500 per year for 15 years.

If Mr. Dooner's termination is not a Qualifying Termination, the series of payments would be determined based on Mr. Dooner's age as of his termination date, in accordance with the rules described above. For example, if Mr. Dooner's age as of his termination date is 59, the series of payments would be $2,188,940 per year for 15 years.

In either case, present value would be determined using an average of the 10-year and 20-year U.S. Treasury yield curve annual rates (also known as the "constant maturity rate").

If Mr. Dooner dies before all required payments are made to him under these ESBAs, Interpublic would make the remaining payments to his beneficiaries.

Philippe Krakowsky

Mr. Krakowsky entered into an ESBA in 2002 which provides that if he retires, resigns or otherwise terminates employment with Interpublic after his 60th birthday, or his employment terminates due to death, Interpublic will pay to Mr. Krakowsky (or his beneficiaries, in the case of death) $245,000 per year for 15 years. If he retires, resigns or is terminated from employment with Interpublic on or after his 55th birthday, but prior to his 60th birthday, he will receive between $171,500 and $230,300 per year for 15 years, depending upon his age at the time of his termination. For example, if he resigns at age 55, he would receive $171,500 per year for 15 years; if he resigns at age 59, he would receive $230,500 per year for 15 years. If his employment terminates (other than by reason of death) prior to his 55th birthday, he would receive $50,000 per year for each full year (and a pro-rata portion for each partial year), up to eight years, that he was employed by Interpublic since February 1, 2002. For example, if he resigned on January 31, 2008, he would receive $50,000 per year for six years.

The ESBA provides that in the event Mr. Krakowsky's employment is terminated pursuant to a Qualifying Termination, the amount of Mr. Krakowsky's annual benefit will be determined based on his age as of the due date for his last severance payment, rather than his age as of his termination date.

Edgar Filing: INTERPUBLIC GROUP OF COMPANIES, INC. - Form DEF 14A

If Mr. Krakowsky's employment terminates within two years after a Change of Control of Interpublic, his ESBA benefits would be paid in a lump sum, rather than installments. The amount of the lump sum would be based on the then-present value of the following series of payments:

If Mr. Krakowsky's termination is a Qualifying Termination and Mr. Krakowsky's age as of December 31st of the year in which the Change of Control occurs is 58 or older, the series of payments would be $245,000 per year for 15 years.

If Mr. Krakowsky's termination is a Qualifying Termination but Mr. Krakowsky's age as of December 31st of the year in which the Change of Control occurs is less than 58, the series of payments would be determined based on his age as of the last day of his severance period (determined as if severance were paid in semi-monthly installments). For example, if Mr. Krakowsky's age as of December 31st of the year in which the Change of Control occurs is 57 and Mr. Krakowsky's severance multiple under his Change of Control Agreement is two, the stream of payment would be $230,500 per year for 15 years (i.e., the series of payments that would apply if he resigned at age 59).

If Mr. Krakowsky's termination is not a Qualifying Termination, the series of payments would be determined based on his age as of his termination date. For example, if Mr. Krakowsky resigned within two years after a Change of Control at age 55, the series of payments would be $171,500 per year for 15 years.

In any of these cases, present value would be determined using an average of the 10-year and 20-year U.S. Treasury yield curve annual rates (also known as the "constant maturity rates").

If Mr. Krakowsky dies before all required payments are made to him under these ESBA's, Interpublic would make the remaining payments to his beneficiaries.

The Interpublic Senior Executive Retirement Income Plan

Effective as of January 1, 2007, Interpublic amended and restated the Senior Executive Retirement Income Plan ("SERIP"), which provides certain U.S.-based senior executives of Interpublic and its subsidiaries with certain retirement benefits. In general, SERIP gives a participating executive the right to receive monthly payments for 10 or 15 years beginning two years after the executive's termination of employment (or, if later, when the executive reaches age 55). Each participant must execute a Participation Agreement that sets forth the amount of his or her benefit under SERIP. In general, SERIP provides that 30% of a participant's benefit becomes vested after three years of participation in SERIP (counting up to three years of participation in an ESBA), and the vested percentage increases by 10% at the end of each of the next seven years. However, an individual executive's participation agreement could provide for a different vesting schedule. Also, if the executive breaches a non-competition or non-solicitation agreement, the executive's entire benefit would be forfeited (even if the benefit had already vested). In the event a participant has a Qualifying Termination, SERIP generally provides for continued vesting through the end of the participant's severance period.

Under SERIP, if a participant's employment terminates within two years after a Change of Control, the participant's vested SERIP benefit will be paid in a lump sum, rather than installments. The amount of the lump sum would be based on the then-present value of the participant's vested benefit under SERIP, with the vested percentage determined as follows:

If the termination is a Qualifying Termination, and as of December 31st of the year in which the Change of Control, (i) the participant's age is 55 or older and (ii) the participant is within two years of full vesting, the participant's entire benefit under SERIP will be fully vested.

If the termination is a Qualifying Termination, but as of December 31st of the year in which the Change of Control occurs, either (i) the participant's age is less than 55 or (ii) the participant is more than two years away from full vesting, the participant would receive vesting credit for his severance period (determined for any named executive officer as if severance were paid in semi-monthly installments). For example, if as of December 31st of the year in which the Change of Control occurs, the participant is four years away from full vesting and the participant's severance multiple under his Change of Control Agreement is two, the participant would receive two more years of vesting credit; so his SERIP benefit would be 80% vested.

If the termination is not a Qualifying Termination, the vested percentage of the participant's SERIP benefit would be determined based on the participant's actual service up to the termination date.

Under SERIP, the present value would be determined using an average of the 10-year and 20-year U.S. Treasury yield curve annual rates (also known as the "constant maturity rates").

Of the named executive officers, only Mr. Roth participates in SERIP. Under his Participation Agreement, Mr. Roth's SERIP benefit, expressed as an annual amount payable for 15 years starting at age 65, is $110,000. Notwithstanding SERIP's general vesting provisions, Mr. Roth's participation agreement provides that, subject to the special Change of Control rules described above, his benefit will be 0% vested until he reaches age 64 and his benefit is scheduled to become (i) 90% vested when he reaches age 64 (on November 22, 2009) and (ii) fully vested when he reaches age 65 (on November 22, 2010) assuming he does not terminate employment before the applicable vesting dates. Payment of Mr. Roth's vested SERIP benefit will be subject to the rules described above (e.g., subject to the Change of Control rules, payment will start two years after Mr. Roth terminates employment).

Retirement Account Plan

As of January 1, 1992, Interpublic adopted the Interpublic Retirement Account Plan to provide benefits under a "cash balance formula" to employees of Interpublic and most of its domestic subsidiaries who have at least five years of service. Until March 31, 1998, a participant's account balance was credited annually with an amount equal to a percentage of the participant's annual compensation plus interest credits at a rate specified by the plan. The percentage of annual compensation varied based on the sum of the participant's age and years of service from 1.5% for participants with a sum less than 40 years to 5% for participants with a sum of 80 or more years. Interest credits were based on the 1-year U.S. Treasury bill rate plus 1 percentage point and were guaranteed to be at least 5% per year.

As of March 31, 1998, Interpublic froze benefit accruals under the Retirement Account Plan and participants whose benefits were not already vested became fully vested as of April 1, 1998. Retirement account balances as of that date will continue to be credited with interest credits until benefits begin in accordance with the generally applicable Plan provisions; but additional pay credits were discontinued as of March 31, 1998.

Mr. Dooner is the only named executive officer eligible to participate in the Retirement Account Plan. The estimated annual retirement benefit that Mr. Dooner would receive following the termination of his employment from Interpublic, if paid as a straight life annuity starting at age 65 is $62,185. Alternatively, Mr. Dooner may elect to receive a lump sum payment of the benefit accumulated through the termination of his employment from Interpublic. As of December 31, 2007, the amount of the lump sum payment is estimated at $556,168.

Edgar Filing: INTERPUBLIC GROUP OF COMPANIES, INC. - Form DEF 14A

The following table provides information on pension benefits held by the named executive officers as of December 31, 2007.

Name	Plan Name	Number of Years of Credited Service (#)	Present Value of Accumulated Benefit $(1)	Payments During Last Fiscal Year ($)

- (1) The calculation of the present value of accumulated benefit assumes (i) a discount rate of 6.00 percent, (ii) that the executive will live to the earliest available retirement age and (iii) that each executive will continue to work at the company until retirement and thus will reach the plan's/agreement's normal retirement age (earliest age that an executive may retire with unreduced benefits) and receive the benefit. Contingent benefits from death, early retirement and other termination of employment were not valued.
- (2) Reflects the present value of the straight life annuity of $62,185 per year that Mr. Dooner is entitled to receive starting at the age of 65. If Mr. Dooner were to elect to receive the accumulated benefit in a lump sum payment on December 31, 2007, the amount of the payment would be $556,168.
- (3) The amounts reflected in the table equal the present value of the maximum benefit that the executive would be entitled to receive under his ESBA if he worked for Interpublic continuously until he reached age 60. The terms and conditions of the ESBA's that such named executive officers are a party to are described in greater detail on page 42 under the heading "Executive Special Benefit Agreements."

NONQUALIFIED DEFERRED COMPENSATION ARRANGEMENTS

The Interpublic Capital Accumulation Plan

Effective as of January 1, 2007, Interpublic amended and restated the CAP which provides deferred compensation to senior management employees of Interpublic and its subsidiaries selected by the Management Human Resources Committee (the "MHRC"). Under CAP, a participant receives an annual credit of a specified dollar amount (a "dollar credit") on December 31st of each year if, as of such date, the participant continues to be employed by Interpublic. In addition, if a participant's employment with Interpublic is terminated pursuant to a Qualifying Termination, the participant's account would be credited on December 31st of the year in which his employment terminates with an amount equal to the sum of the dollar credits that would have been added to his account if he had continued working for Interpublic until the due date for his last severance payment. Each participant's account is credited with interest on December 31st of each year until the account is paid in full. The amount of each year's interest credit is equal to the ten-year U.S. Treasury yield curve annual rate (also known as the "constant maturity rate") as of the last business day of the immediately preceding calendar year. Each participant's account balance becomes fully vested as to both prior and future dollar and interest credits when the participant has completed three years of participation in the CAP (counting as service any period during which the participant receives severance payments), except that all interest credits since the inception of the participant's participation in the plan are subject to forfeiture if the participant breaches a non-competition or non-solicitation agreement. Any portion of a participant's benefit that is not vested will be forfeited upon termination of employment (including termination due to death or disability).

Under the plan, if after a Change of Control, a participant's employment is terminated pursuant to a Qualifying Termination, (i) the participant will become fully vested and (ii) the participant's account will be immediately credited with an amount equal to the sum of the credits (not including interest) that would have been added to his account if he had continued working for Interpublic until the end of his severance period (determined for the named executive officers as if severance were paid in installments). In addition, if the participant's termination of employment occurs (for any reason) within 2 years after a Change of Control, the vested account balance will be paid in a lump sum.

Other than Mr. Dooner, each named executive officer is a participant in the CAP. Under Mr. Mergenthaler's Participation Agreement, a $100,000 dollar credit (in addition to the interest credit described below) was added to his account on December 31, 2007. For 2008 and subsequent years, the amount of Mr. Mergenthaler's annual dollar credit has been increased to $200,000. Mr. Mergenthaler's account balance is scheduled to vest on July 31, 2008. Under Mr. Roth's Participation Agreement, he is entitled to an annual dollar credit of $350,000 (in addition to the interest credit described below) and his account balance became fully vested on July 12, 2007. Under Mr. Krakowsky's Participation Agreement, he is entitled to an annual dollar credit of $50,000 (in addition to the interest credit described below) and his account balance is scheduled to vest on December 31, 2008. Under Mr. Sompolski's Participation Agreement, he is entitled to an annual dollar credit of $75,000 (in addition to the interest credit described below) and his account balance became fully vested on July 5, 2007. For 2007, each participant received an interest credit equal to 4.7% of his account balance as of December 31, 2007 (determined before the 2007 dollar credit was added).

Subject to earlier payment if a participant's employment terminates within two years after a Change of Control, each named executive officer's vested account balance is scheduled to be paid two years after the participant's termination of employment with Interpublic and its subsidiaries.

Special Deferred Compensation Arrangement

On August 1, 1987 the Interpublic Retirement Account Plan formula was changed from a final average pay formula to a career average pay formula. As a result of this change, eligible plan participants were granted a special deferred compensation arrangement (the "SDCA") that would supplement their retirement plan benefit upon termination of employment. The balance earns credits equivalent to interest in accordance with the terms of Interpublic's plan for credits equivalent to interest on balances of deferred compensation. Mr. Dooner is the only named executive officer who is eligible to receive a benefit under the SDCA.

Under the SDCA, Mr. Dooner will receive a lump-sum payment following termination of his employment. The amount of the lump sum payment as of December 31, 2007 was $32,975. For 2007, Mr. Dooner received an interest credit equal to 4.829% of his account balance as of December 31, 2007.

Supplemental Compensation Plan

Effective April 1, 1998, employees with five or more years of Retirement Account Plan participation began to participate in a Supplemental Compensation Plan. Under the Supplemental Compensation Plan, an account is established for each eligible employee and credited with up to ten annual allocations depending on the employee's years of participation in the Retirement Account Plan. Each annual allocation approximates the discontinued allocations under the Retirement Account Plan. In general, the balance in each employee's account begins to vest gradually after five years of participation in the Supplemental Compensation Plan. Payouts generally are made while the employee is still employed by Interpublic or one of its subsidiaries on April 1st of each year.

Mr. Dooner is the only named executive officer who is a participant in the Supplemental Compensation Plan. Under the Supplemental Compensation Plan, the total amount paid to Mr. Dooner will be $108,500; payments will be completed by April 1, 2008. As of December 31, 2007, Mr. Dooner had received distributions totaling $82,681, of which $12,915 was received in 2007. In accordance with the terms of the Supplemental Compensation Plan, the final payment of $25,819 was made as of March 31, 2008.

Employment Agreements

Each of the named executive officers has an employment agreement with Interpublic. Each employment agreement includes provisions describing the named executive officer's position and responsibilities, his salary and eligibility for incentive compensation and other benefits and perquisites. Each agreement also includes covenants pursuant to which the named executive officer agrees not to divulge confidential information of Interpublic and its subsidiaries and agrees for a period of time after termination of employment to refrain from soliciting employees of Interpublic and its subsidiaries and from soliciting or handling the business of clients of Interpublic. The current annual salary of each of the named executive officers is set forth below:

Name	Salary
Michael I. Roth	$ 1,400,000
Frank Mergenthaler	900,000
John J. Dooner, Jr.	1,285,000
Philippe Krakowsky	620,000
Timothy A. Sompolski	570,000

Michael I. Roth Employment Agreement

Michael Roth became Executive Chairman of Interpublic on July 13, 2004, and assumed the role of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer effective January 19, 2005. The agreement provides that in addition to his base salary, Mr. Roth will be provided with (i) an annual target bonus under the Annual Management Incentive Plan equal to 133% of his base salary, with the actual award between 0% and 150% of the target depending on Interpublic profits, his individual performance and management discretion, (ii) an initial grant of restricted stock having an aggregate market value of $1,050,000 on the July 16, 2004 grant date which vested on July 16, 2007, and (iii) an initial grant of options to purchase shares of Interpublic Common Stock having an aggregate market value of $1,050,000 on the July 16, 2004 grant date vesting in equal annual amounts on July 16th of 2006, 2007 and 2008. In 2008, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Roth's current annual target bonus to 160% of his base salary, with the actual award between 0% and 200% of the target depending on Interpublic profits, individual performance and management discretion.

Under Mr. Roth's employment agreement, he received in 2005 a grant of options to purchase 450,000 shares of Interpublic Common Stock vesting in three equal installments on the second, third and fourth anniversaries of the date of grant. The agreement also provided for a grant of 450,000 shares of restricted stock, of which (i) 150,000 shares were to vest on the second anniversary of the grant date, subject to Interpublic achieving specified performance goals over such two year period, and (ii) 300,000 shares will vest on the fifth anniversary of the grant date, subject to Interpublic achieving specified performance goals over such five-year period. After the end of 2006, the Compensation Committee determined that the performance goals were not achieved and the 150,000 shares were canceled.

Mr. Roth's employment agreement also provides for participation in Interpublic's performance based long-term incentive programs with a total expected annual target award value of $2,100,000 provided in a manner consistent with those provided to other executives. Each year's award may comprise stock options, restricted stock, performance-based restricted stock or another form of incentive at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. Performance and vesting criteria for any award must be consistent with the criteria generally required of the executive team. In 2006, the Compensation Committee increased

Mr. Roth's total expected target award value under Interpublic's performance based long-term incentive programs to $5,000,000.

In addition, the agreement provides that Mr. Roth is entitled to (i) participate in Interpublic's Capital Accumulation Plan, with an annual dollar credit of $100,000, (ii) receive an annual automobile allowance of $10,000, (iii) receive an annual club allowance of $20,000, (iv) receive an annual financial planning allowance of $2,500, and (v) participate in such other employee benefits and programs as are available from time to time to other key management executives generally. In 2007, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Roth's annual dollar credit under CAP to $350,000 and increased Mr. Roth's base salary by $30,000 as a substitute for his annual automobile and club allowances. Effective April 1, 2008, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Roth's base salary to $1,400,000.

If Mr. Roth's employment is terminated involuntarily without Cause, he is entitled to receive salary continuation for 12 months from the date notice of his termination is provided, at the rate in effect before his termination; provided that if Mr. Roth obtains alternative employment before the end of the severance period, the amount of his severance pay will be reduced (but not below zero) by the amount of the non-contingent compensation payable to Mr. Roth in connection with his new employment for service before the end of the severance period. After an involuntary termination, Mr. Roth will be eligible to receive (i) medical, dental, and vision benefits at active employee rates (or cash in lieu thereof) until the end of the severance period (followed by COBRA coverage at standard COBRA rates), and (ii) a cash payment equal to the amount of matching contributions that Interpublic would have contributed on his behalf to the Interpublic Savings Plan if he had continued participating in that plan until the end of the severance period. These benefits would automatically end if Mr. Roth accepts employment with another employer offering similar benefits. Mr. Roth may terminate his employment at any time by giving notice to Interpublic at least three months in advance.

Frank Mergenthaler Employment Agreement

Effective August 1, 2005, Mr. Mergenthaler was hired as Interpublic's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Mergenthaler's employment agreement with Interpublic provides that, in addition to his base salary, Mr. Mergenthaler will be eligible for a target annual bonus under the Annual Management Incentive Plan equal to 100% of his base salary, with the actual award up to a maximum of 200% of base salary depending Interpublic profits, his individual performance, and management discretion.

In 2007, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Mergenthaler's base salary by $20,000 as a substitute for his annual automobile and club allowances.

The agreement also provides for the right to (i) receive an initial grant of restricted stock having an aggregate market value of $625,000 vesting in full on the third anniversary date of the grant date, (ii) receive an option to purchase a number of shares of Interpublic Common Stock with an aggregate market value on the date of grant equal to $1,250,000, vesting in equal annual amounts on the second, third and fourth anniversaries of the grant date, (iii) receive performance-based shares based on Interpublic's performance from 2005-2007, with the target number of performance-based shares based on an aggregate expected value of $625,000 on the date of grant, determined using a 20% discount on the market price of Interpublic Common Stock and (iv) participate in Interpublic's performance-based, long-term incentive programs with a total expected annual target award value of $1,000,000. Each year's award may consist of stock options, restricted stock, performance-based restricted stock or another form of incentive at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. Performance and vesting criteria for any award must be consistent with the criteria generally required of the executive team.

Edgar Filing: INTERPUBLIC GROUP OF COMPANIES, INC. - Form DEF 14A

In the event of a Qualifying Termination of Mr. Mergenthaler's employment, he will be entitled to a lump-sum cash payment equal to the sum of (i) one year's base salary at the rate in effect before his termination, (ii) his target bonus for the year of termination, plus (iii) a pro-rated portion of his target bonus for the year in which the termination occurs. Mr. Mergenthaler would also be entitled to (i) full vesting of grants of restricted stock and options specified in his employment agreement, and (ii) and any other awards and benefits to which he is entitled in accordance with their terms. Mr. Mergenthaler also may terminate his employment without "good reason" at any time by giving notice to Interpublic at least six months in advance.

John Dooner Employment Agreement

On January 1, 1994, Interpublic entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Dooner. A subsequent amendment to Mr. Dooner's employment agreement required Interpublic to obtain, and pay the premiums for, a 10 year $10,000,000 term life insurance policy for Mr. Dooner.

If Interpublic terminates Mr. Dooner's employment involuntarily, other than for a violation of certain covenants contained in his employment agreement, he will be entitled to salary continuation, at the rate in effect before his termination, for 12 months. Mr. Dooner may terminate his employment at any time by giving notice to Interpublic at least twelve months in advance.

Philippe Krakowsky Employment Agreement

On January 1, 2006, Interpublic entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Krakowsky to serve as Executive Vice President, Strategy and Corporate Relations. In addition to his base salary, Mr. Krakowsky is eligible for a target annual bonus under the Annual Management Incentive Plan equal to 75% of his base salary, with the actual award in future years up to a maximum of 200% of target depending on Interpublic performance, his individual performance, and management discretion. In 2007, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Krakowsky's annual target bonus to 100% of his base salary, with the actual award between 0% and 200% of the target depending on Interpublic profits, individual performance and management discretion.

In addition, the agreement provides that Mr. Krakowsky is entitled to (i) participate in Interpublic's Capital Accumulation Plan, with an annual dollar credit of $50,000, (ii) receive an annual automobile allowance of $10,000, (iii) receive an annual club allowance of $10,000, (iv) receive an annual financial planning allowance of $2,500 and (vi) participate in such other employee benefits and programs as are available from time to time to other key management executives generally. In 2007, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Krakowsky's base salary by $20,000 as a substitute for his annual automobile and club allowances.

Each year's award may consist of stock options, restricted stock, performance-based restricted stock or another form of incentive at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. Performance and vesting criteria for any award must be consistent with the criteria generally required of the executive team.

If Mr. Krakowsky's employment is terminated other than for Cause, Mr. Krakowsky would be entitled to receive salary continuation, at the rate in effect before his termination, for 12 months from when notice of his termination is provided; provided that if Mr. Krakowsky obtains alternative employment before the end of the severance period, the amount of his severance pay will be reduced (but not below zero) by the amount of the non-contingent compensation payable to Mr. Krakowsky in connection with his new employment for service before the end of the severance period. Mr. Krakowsky is also eligible to receive a bonus for the year in which his employment is terminated. After an involuntary termination, Mr. Krakowsky would be eligible to receive (i) medical, dental, and vision benefits at active employee rates (or cash in lieu thereof) until the end of the severance period (followed by COBRA coverage at standard COBRA rates), (ii) a cash payment equal to the amount of matching contributions that Interpublic would have contributed on his behalf to the Interpublic Savings Plan if he had continued participating in that plan until the end of the severance period and (iii) a cash payment for Mr. Krakowsky to continue for 12 months from the notice date the level of life insurance provided by Interpublic before the termination. These benefits would automatically end if Mr. Krakowsky accepts employment with another employer offering similar benefits. Mr. Krakowsky may terminate his employment at any time by giving notice to Interpublic at least six-months in advance.

Timothy A. Sompolski Employment Agreement

On July 6, 2004, Interpublic entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Sompolski to serve as Executive Vice President, Human Resources, of Interpublic. The agreement provides that in addition to his annual salary in the amount indicated above, Mr. Sompolski will be eligible for a target annual bonus under the Annual Management Incentive Plan equal to 75% of his base salary, with the actual award up to a maximum of 150% of base salary depending Interpublic profits, his individual performance, and management discretion.

In addition, the agreement provides that Mr. Sompolski is entitled to (i) participate in Interpublic's Capital Accumulation Plan, with an annual dollar credit of $75,000, (ii) receive an annual automobile allowance of $10,000, (iii) receive an annual club allowance of $10,000, (iv) receive an annual financial planning allowance of $2,500, and (v) participate in such other employee benefits and programs as are available from time to time to other key management executives generally. In 2007, the Compensation Committee increased Mr. Sompolski's base salary by $20,000 as a substitute for his annual automobile and club allowances.

The agreement also gives Mr. Sompolski the right to (i) receive an initial long-term incentive grant of restricted stock having an aggregate market value of $400,000 vesting on the third anniversary date of the grant date, (ii) receive an initial long-term incentive grant of options to purchase shares of Interpublic Common Stock having an aggregate expected value of $400,000 on the date of grant, vesting in three equal annual amounts on the second, third and fourth anniversaries of the grant date and (iii) participate in Interpublic's performance based long-term incentive programs with a total expected annual target award value of $800,000. Each award may consist of stock options, restricted stock, performance-based restricted stock or another form of incentive at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. Performance and vesting criteria for any award must be consistent with the criteria generally required of the executive team.

In the event of a Qualifying Termination of Mr. Sompolski's employment, he would be entitled to a lump-sum cash payment equal to the sum of (i) amount by which his annual salary at the then-current rate exceeds the salary paid to him for the period beginning on the date the notice of termination was given and ending on the termination date and (ii) a pro rata portion of his target bonus for the year in which the termination occurs; provided that if during this period Mr. Sompolski obtains alternative employment, he will be obligated to reimburse to Interpublic for all or any portion of the salary component of this payment received as compensation from the new employer. After his termination date, Mr. Sompolski will be eligible to receive (i) medical, dental, and vision benefits at active employee rates (or cash in lieu thereof) until the end of the severance period (followed by COBRA coverage at standard COBRA rates), and (ii) a cash payment equal to the amount of matching contributions that Interpublic would have contributed on his behalf to the Interpublic Savings Plan if he had continued participating in that plan until the end of the severance period. These benefits would automatically end if Mr. Sompolski accepts employment with another employer offering similar benefits. Mr. Sompolski also may terminate his employment without "good reason" at any time by giving notice to Interpublic at least one month in advance.

Executive Severance Plan

Effective July 6, 2007, Interpublic established the Executive Severance Plan ("ESP") which provides severance and other welfare benefits for certain senior management employees, including the named executive officers, in the event of a Qualifying Termination.

In general, the ESP provides for salary continuation, at the base salary rate in effect for the year of termination, for a "designated number of months," measured from a notice date. Absent a Change of Control, severance under the ESP is generally paid in installments; but if the executive's Qualifying Termination occurs within two years after a Change of Control, severance would be paid in a lump sum. The "designated number of months" for Mr. Roth is 24 and for Messrs. Dooner, Krakowsky, Mergenthaler and Sompolski is 18.

The ESP also provides for continued medical, dental and vision benefits at active employee rates (or cash in lieu thereof) for the designated number of months, followed by COBRA coverage (or cash in lieu thereof) at regular COBRA rates.

The amount of any executive's payments or benefits under the ESP is reduced by the amount of the executive's salary continuation and comparable benefits under his employment agreement and any other arrangement. The excess (if any) of an executive's ESP benefits over his benefits under an employment agreement or other arrangement would be paid after the period for which severance is provided under the other agreement or arrangement.

The ESP requires the executive to agree to certain post-termination covenants which, if violated, would result in the forfeiture of the executive's future severance payments and benefits. The executive must also execute a mutual release in order to receive the payments and benefits under the ESP.

Change of Control Agreements

Each named executive officer has entered into an agreement with Interpublic that provides for special severance and benefits in the event of a Qualifying Termination within two years after a Change of Control.

Each of these change of control agreements provides for a severance payment equal to the executive's "designated number" (as defined below) times the sum of the executive's base salary plus his target bonus. For purposes of this calculation, salary and target bonus refer to the greater of (a) the executive's base salary or target bonus, as applicable, for the year of the Change of Control, or (b) the executive's base salary or target bonus, as applicable, for the year of the Qualifying Termination. For Messrs. Roth and Dooner, the "designated number" is three and the severance period is 36 months. For Messrs. Krakowsky, Mergenthaler and Sompolski, the "designated number" is two and the severance period is 24 months.

In addition, if the named executive officer is a participant in the CAP, he is entitled to a lump-sum payment equal to the sum of (i) the annual dollar credits that would be credited to his CAP account if his executive's severance were paid in semi-monthly installments (rather than a lump sum), plus (ii) a prorated annual dollar credit for the year in which the severance period expires (if the expiration date is not December 31st), plus (iii) a pro-rated interest credit, at the rate applied under CAP for the year in which the executive's CAP balance is paid.

The severance payments required under each Change of Control Agreement will be made in a lump sum.

Each agreement also provides that in the event of a Qualifying Termination, the named executive officer is entitled to receive through the severance period, the medical, dental and vision benefits provided under the ESP in effect as of the effective date of the Change of Control Agreement.

The payments to a named executive officer under the Change of Control Agreement are instead of, and not in addition to, any payments under the executive's employment agreement and the ESP.

Each Change of Control Agreement requires the executive to agree to certain post-termination covenants which, if violated, would result in the forfeiture of the executive's future severance payments and benefits.

SEVERANCE AND CHANGE OF CONTROL BENEFITS

Upon certain types of terminations of employment, severance benefits may be paid to the named executive officers. The severance benefits payable to each named executive officer are discussed in the description of the officer's employment agreement, and the descriptions of the ESBA, SERIP, CAP, ESP, change of control agreements and other arrangements for which each such named executive officer participates. Some benefit payments shown in the tables below may be reduced if necessary to avoid adverse tax consequences for the names executive officers under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code. Each named executive officer's employment agreement, the ESBA, SERIP, CAP, ESP, change of control agreements and other compensatory arrangements are summarized beginning on page 42 of this Proxy Statement. The following tables present the value of various payments and other benefits that each named executive officer would have received had his employment terminated as of December 31, 2007. The following tables do not reflect the benefits Mr. Roth may be entitled to receive under the SERIP which became effective on April 1, 2008.

Estimated Current Value of Benefits Upon Termination for "cause" or for Voluntary Termination (without "good reason")

The following tables present the payments and other benefits that each named executive officer would be entitled to receive had such executive's employment been terminated for "cause" by Interpublic or by the executive without "good reason" on December 31, 2007. In general (subject to certain variations in each executive's employment agreement), Interpublic would have "cause" to terminate an executive if the executive (a) a materially breaches a provision in executive's employment agreement with Interpublic and fails to cure such breach within a fifteen (15) day period, (b) misappropriates funds or property of Interpublic; (c) makes any attempt to secure any personal profit related to the business of Interpublic without proper prior written approval; (d) engages in fraud, material dishonesty, gross negligence, gross malfeasance or insubordination, or willful (i) failure to follow the code of conduct of Interpublic or (ii) misconduct in the performance of his duties, excluding in each case acts taken in good faith that do not cause material harm to Interpublic; (e) refusal or failure to attempt in good faith to perform his duties as an employee or to follow a reasonable good-faith direction of the Board of Directors or the person to whom the executive reports directly and such refusal or failure has not been cured within a fifteen (15) day period; (f) has committed, or a formal charge or indictment alleges the executive to have committed, a felony or a crime involving dishonesty, fraud, or moral turpitude; or (g) engages in conduct that is clearly prohibited by the policy of Interpublic prohibiting discrimination or harassment based on age, gender, race, religion, disability, national origin or any other protected category.

The following table present the payments and other benefits that each named executive officer would be entitled to receive had such executive's employment been terminated other than for "Cause," or if the executive resigned for Good Reason on December 31, 2007. In general, "Good Reason" is defined under the applicable plans, agreements and other arrangements as an action by Interpublic, without the executive's consent, that (a) materially reduces the Executive's base salary, (b) materially diminishes the authority, duties or responsibilities of the executive or the supervisor to whom the executive is required to report, (c) materially diminishes the budget over which the Executive retains authority, (d) requires the executive to be based in an office more than fifty (50) miles outside the city in which he is principally based; or (e) materially breaches an employment agreement with the executive.

3. SHAREHOLDER'S PROPOSAL ENTITLED "SPECIAL SHAREHOLDER MEETINGS"

Interpublic is advised that a shareholder intends to present the proposal set forth below for consideration and action by shareholders at the Annual Meeting. The name and address of this shareholder and the number of shares of Common Stock the shareholder has stated that he owns will be furnished to any shareholder by Interpublic promptly upon receipt by Interpublic of an oral or written request for such information. The text of the shareholder's proposal and supporting statement is as follows:

Text of Shareholder Proposal

RESOLVED, shareholders ask our board of directors to amend our bylaws and any other appropriate governing documents to give holders of 10% of our outstanding common stock (or the lowest possible percentage allowed by law above 10%) the power to call a special shareholder meeting, in compliance with applicable law.

Supporting Statement

Special meetings allow investors to vote on important matters, such as a takeover offer, that can arise between annual meetings. If shareholders cannot call special meetings, management may become insulated and investor returns may suffer.

Shareholders should have the ability to call a special meeting when they think a matter is sufficiently important to merit expeditious consideration. Shareholder control over timing is especially important regarding a major acquisition or restructuring, when events unfold quickly and issues may become moot by the next annual meeting.

Eighteen (18) proposals on this topic also averaged 56%-support in 2007 including 74%-support at Honeywell (HON) according to RiskMetrics (formerly Institutional Shareholders Services). Subsequently Honeywell said in a news release that it would adopt this proposal topic.

The Shareholder proponent said the merits of the proposal should also be considered in the context of our company's overall corporate governance structure and individual director performance. For instance in 2007 the following structure and performance issues were identified:

The Corporate Library <http://www.thecorporatelibrary.com/>, an independent investment research firm, rated our company "Very High Concern" in Accounting.

The Corporate Library lowered its overall Rating for Interpublic due to our Board's continued inability to comply with Sarbanes-Oxley Section 404.

We did not have an Independent Chairman to oversee our CEO.

Our CEO Mr. Roth had time for two outside directorships.

Additionally:

Our directors also served on 4 boards rated D by The Corporate Library:

1) Mr. Bell	Warnaco Group (WRNC)
	DHB Industries
2) Mr. Greeniaus	PRIMEDIA (PRM)
2) Mr. Kerr	Meredith Corp. (MDP)

Mr. Greeniaus and Mr. Kerr was each served on our audit and compensation committees.

Mr. Brack and Mr. Samper (with 17-years tenure) each received our double digit withheld votes in 2007.

The above concerns shows there is need for improvement and reinforces the reason to encourage our board to respond positively to this proposal:

Special Shareholder Meetings
Yes on 3

Interpublic's Statement in Opposition

The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote AGAINST this proposal for the following reasons:

Special Meetings Under our by-laws, a special meeting of shareholders may be called at any time by the Board, and must be called by the Chairman of the Board, a Co-Chairman of the Board or the Secretary of Interpublic upon the written request of a majority of either (i) the Board of Directors or (ii) a majority of the outstanding common stock. This by-law provision conforms to the requirements of the Delaware Corporation Law. For a company with as many shareholders as Interpublic, a special meeting of shareholders is a very expensive and time-consuming affair because of the legal costs in preparing required disclosure documents, printing and mailing costs, and the time commitment required of the Board and members of senior management to prepare for and conduct the meeting. Calling special meetings of shareholders is not a matter to be taken lightly, and should be extraordinary events that only occur when either fiduciary obligations or strategic concerns require that the matters to be addressed cannot wait until the next annual meeting.

Current Shareholder Access As set forth on pages 5 and 9, shareholders have the ability to present proposals at the Annual Meeting and make director nominations, in accordance with the information and timely notice requirements set forth in the by-laws or the procedures set forth under the requirements of the Exchange Act, as applicable. Shareholders also have the ability to recommend director nominees to the Corporate Governance Committee of the Board and to communicate concerns to the Board outside of the framework of the Annual Meeting. (See "Communications with the Board of Directors and Non-Management Directors" on page 10.)

Directors' Business Judgment Enabling a minority of shareholders to call special meetings could impose substantial administrative and financial burdens on Interpublic, and significantly disrupt the conduct of Interpublic's business. The current by-law provision is an appropriate corporate governance provision for a public company of our size because it allows the directors, according to their fiduciary obligations, to exercise their business judgment to determine when it is in the best interests of shareholders to convene a special meeting.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of the majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required to approve this proposal.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE AGAINST THIS PROPOSAL

4. SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL ON ADVISORY VOTE

Interpublic is advised that a shareholder intends to present the proposal set forth below for consideration and action by shareholders at the Annual Meeting. The name and address of this shareholder and the number of shares of Common Stock the shareholder has stated that he owns will be furnished to any shareholder by Interpublic promptly upon receipt by Interpublic of an oral or written request for such information. The text of the shareholder's proposal and supporting statement is as follows:

Text of Shareholder Proposal

Resolved, that shareowners of The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc. (the "Company") urge the board of directors to adopt a policy that Company shareowners be given the opportunity at each annual meeting of shareowners to vote on an advisory resolution, to be proposed by the Company's management, to ratify the compensation of the named executive officers ("NEOs") set forth in the proxy statement's Summary Compensation Table (the "SCT") and the accompanying narrative disclosure of material factors provided to understand the SCT (but not the Compensation Discussion and Analysis). The proposal submitted to shareowners should make clear that the vote is non-binding and would not affect any compensation paid or awarded to any NEO.

Supporting Statement

Investors are increasingly concerned about mushrooming executive compensation that sometimes appears to be insufficiently aligned with the creation of shareowner value. Too many times companies pay for failure and overpay for average performance.

The SEC has created a new rule, with record support from investors, requiring companies to disclose additional information about compensation and perquisites for top executives. The rule has recently gone into effect. In establishing the rule the SEC has made it clear that it is the role of market forces, not the SEC, to provide checks and balances on compensation practices.

We believe that existing U.S. corporate governance arrangements, including SEC rules and stock exchange listing standards, do not provide shareowners with enough mechanisms for providing input to boards on senior executive compensation. In contrast to U.S. practices, in the United Kingdom, public companies allow shareowners to cast an advisory vote on the "directors' remuneration report," which discloses executive compensation. Such a vote isn't binding, but gives shareowners a clear voice that could help shape senior executive compensation.

Currently U.S. stock exchange listing standards require shareowner approval of equity-based compensation plans; those plans, however, set general parameters and accord the compensation committee substantial discretion in making awards and establishing performance thresholds for a particular year. Shareowners do not have any mechanism for providing ongoing feedback on the application of those general standards to individual pay packages.

Withholding votes from compensation committee members who are standing for reelection is a blunt and insufficient instrument for registering dissatisfaction with the way in which the committee has administered compensation plans and policies in the previous year.

Accordingly, we urge the Company's board to allow shareowners to express their opinion about senior executive compensation at the Company by giving shareowners the opportunity to ratify the executive compensation. The results of such a vote would, we think, provide the Company with useful information about whether shareowners view the Company's senior executive compensation, as reported each year, to be in shareowners' best interests. The executive compensation advisory vote is endorsed by the Council of Institutional Investors and a survey by the Chartered Financial Analyst Institute found that 76% of its members favored giving shareowners an advisory vote.

Please vote for this proposal.

Interpublic's Statement in Opposition

The proponents' proposal to provide shareholders with an advisory vote on compensation determinations offers no incremental benefit to shareholders and undermines the fundamental principle of corporate governance.

The Company is governed for the benefit of shareowners by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors is responsible for all aspects of governance of the Company, including compensation determinations for executives as well as all employees of the Company.

Executive compensation determinations, in particular, are made by an independent committee of the Board, after consideration of the strategic and financial objectives of the Company, the performance of the individuals and the relevant performance and comparative market data. Shareholder interests are best represented through this process.

The Compensation Committee has determined that an executive compensation program designed around various elements of compensation, including base salaries, incentive bonuses, and various performance-based equity awards, best meets its dual objectives of attracting retaining highly talented executives and aligning compensation with shareholder returns. The Committee makes extensive use of competitive data on both peer companies and other high performing companies in determining the amount of annual and long-term compensation.

Additionally, the Committee also considers an executive's performance against specific quantitative and qualitative objectives, which are established on an annual basis and are directly related to the delivery of the financial growth of the Company and creation of shareholder value. The Committee also retains highly knowledgeable and qualified consultants to provide expert advice on appropriate compensation variables and levels.

The advisory vote called for by the shareholder proponents will not enhance the Company's governance practices, improve accountability or communication with shareowners. The Company has established procedures to provide shareowners a means to communicate directly with Board and Committee members on any issue, including executive compensation. Additionally, the Company also has sufficient accountability mechanisms through, among others, its majority voting requirements to ensure that shareowners opinions are heard.

The responsibility for determining the appropriate executive compensation levels and programs properly resides with the Board of Directors and an independent Compensation Committee. Based upon the foregoing, the advisory vote proposed by the shareholder proponent is not in the best interest of shareholders.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE AGAINST THIS PROPOSAL

INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPANTS IN THE INTERPUBLIC GROUP OF COMPANIES, INC. SAVINGS PLAN.

Participants in The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc., Savings Plan (the "Plan") may vote the number of shares of Interpublic's Common Stock equivalent to the interest in Interpublic's Common Stock credited to their accounts under the Plan as of the record date. Participants may vote by instructions given to JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. ("JPMorgan"), the trustee of the Plan, pursuant to the proxy card being mailed with this document to Plan participants. JPMorgan will vote any shares of Common Stock held by the Plan that are not specifically allocated to any individual Plan participant (known as the suspense account) in the same proportion that JPMorgan votes the Common Stock for which it receives timely instructions.
